

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Kannapolis Parent-Teachers' Meeting.

The second annual meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association met at the Kannapolis North Grade School Monday evening, November 5th.

Much interest was manifested by the large number of parents and teachers present and the enrollment of six new members. The meeting was called to order by the president. The adaptation of the constitution was signed. A ways and means committee was appointed (the duty being to arouse interest in the social life of the community and for the welfare of the school). The ones elected for this committee were Mrs. W. L. Sechler, Mrs. J. V. Blackwelder, Miss M. Bost, Miss F. Frazer was elected as publicity reporter. Mrs. Kotler was appointed as a delegate to attend the State Parent-Teachers' Association at Winston-Salem November 6-8. We are sure that her visit, with the report she will bring to us, will add much to our next meeting December 3rd. X.

Arrives Here From Greece.

ROTARY CLUB MEETS

Yesterday Was "Song Day."—To Subscribe to Page Advertisement in New York Tribune.

Yesterday was "Song Day" at the regular weekly meeting of the Concord Rotary Club which was held at the Y. M. C. A. President Rankin presiding.

The singing was led by Mr. Doyle, of the faculty of the graded school, Robert Ridenhour and Mr. O'Grady, of the Charlotte Rotary Club, and the members joined in with enthusiasm that at times bordered on the edge of merriment. Two hits of the program were O'Grady's "Down In Carolina," and a selection by Rotarian Irving Woodhouse.

The committee composed by J. B. Womble, Ed Sauvain and Parks Lafferty, which was appointed to consider the proposition of Concord purchasing a page advertisement in the forthcoming edition of the New York Tribune that will feature Piedmont North Carolina, reported that the cost of the page would be $900 and that they recommended that the Rotary Club pay $225 of this amount. The committee's report was adopted.

President Rankin announced that next Tuesday night would be ladies' night and that the music committee would be in charge of the program.

Rotarian Luther Hartsell stated that the local chapter of the Red Cross was without a chairman and that some one volunteer for the work. After much discussion Rotarian Bill Jenkins volunteered, and applied to take the job.

Rev. William A. Jenkins, pastor of Central Methodist Church, was elected a member of the club. He fills the classification of "junior" which formerly was filled by Rev. T. N. Lawrence, who recently resigned as rector of All Saints Episcopal Church.

An invitation was received from the Charlotte club to hear Rotarian Bert Adams, past international president, in Charlotte November 20th.

FORMER CONCORD MAN DIES AT IDAHO HOME

A. P. White Victim of Apoplexy.—Left Concord About 30 Years Ago for the West.

Relatives here were advised this morning of the death yesterday afternoon of Mr. A. P. White, formerly of this county, but who had been making his home in Boise, Idaho, for a number of years. A message was received yesterday from Mrs. White stating that her husband had suffered a stroke of apoplexy and this message was followed by another this morning stating that Mr. White died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. White was a half-brother of Mr. C. L. White, of this city, and Mr. Thomas White, of this county, and a brother of Mr. Richard White, of Charlotte. He was twice married and a son from his first marriage survives. His second wife, who was Miss Thattie Weddington of this city, also survives. Mrs. White is a daughter of Mrs. W. M. Weddington, of this city, and was married to Mr. White about 14 years ago. Mr. White was a cement contractor and was planning to move back to North Carolina.

Mr. White will be buried in Boise, the funeral to be held tomorrow—Friday—afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

COLORED FAIR HERE TO CLOSE TOMORROW NIGHT

Extra Race Features Are Offered for Tomorrow Afternoon.—Crowds Getting Bigger Each Day.

With increased interest being shown in the fair each day, officials of the Cabarrus County Colored Fair are certain that despite the rain of the opening day, the event is going to prove a big success. The cloudless skies of yesterday and today acted as an incentive to a large number of persons to visit the fair, and the crowd today has been the biggest of the week.

The race track was in good shape again yesterday and the races proved the most interesting feature of the day. The races were witnessed by many white people as well as by a large crowd of colored people. The first race is run each afternoon at 2 o'clock and now that the public has been shown that some good horses are entered in the events, interest is increasing.

The fair will close tomorrow night. Special race features have been booked for tomorrow afternoon and officials are sure that the record crowd for the week will pass into the grounds tomorrow. With fair weather predicted, nothing is expected to occur to prevent the running of the races.

The behavior of the crowds at the ground this week has been unusually good. Officials of the fair have become wise enough to close the ground early each night and so far no disorders of any kind have been reported to county officers.

Dies in Morganton.

Chester Barber, voting man of this county, died Tuesday in Morganton, where he had been making his home. The body reached Concord last night and was carried to Locust this afternoon for burial. The deceased was a brother of Mr. Walter J. Barber, superintendent of the Hoover Supply Mill, of this city.

Services at Harmony Church.

Rev. A. C. Tippet, pastor of Harmony Methodist Church, has gone to Hillsboro, where he closes his year's work. He will be back on Wednesday of next week to resume his work at Harmony church, Brown Mill. Rev. W. H. Williford, blacksmith preacher, will preach for him Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at night at the usual hour. Everybody is welcome.

If there were no clouds, we should not enjoy the sun.

KANNAPOLIS DEPARTMENT

Kannapolis, Nov. 7.—A wedding of much interest to people here and elsewhere was solemnized on Thursday evening, November 1st, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother when Miss Bertha Overcash was married to Mr. H. P. Frieze. Rev. W. C. Jamison officiated, the beautiful ring ceremony being used. The wedding was characterized by simplicity, only a few friends being present. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Asheville, returning Monday. Mrs. Frieze is the attractive daughter of Mrs. Sallie Overcash, of Midway. Mr. Frieze is a son of Mrs. M. A. Frieze, of South Main Street, and holds a responsible position with the F. L. Smith Drug Company. Both these young people are held in high esteem, and are popular with a large circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Frieze will be at home at Midway with the bride's mother.

Circle No. One of the Ladies' Auxiliary held an interesting meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. W. C. Jamison. Plans were outlined for the ensuing year. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. P. Law and infant daughter, Virginia Nell, will leave tomorrow for their home in Atlanta after spending a number of weeks with Mrs. Law's mother, Mrs. Laura Smith. Mrs. Law's brother, Mr. Clement Smith, will accompany this sister to Atlanta for a visit of a week or ten days.

Mr. George Norville died Tuesday, November 6th, after an illness of several weeks, the funeral being preached today at the Baptist Church by the pastor, Rev. C. K. Turner, of which the deceased was a charter member. Mr. Turner was assisted by Rev. W. C. Jamison, Mr. L. J. Brown and Mr. A. H. Sides, each of whom have been for many years intimately associated with Mr. Norville, and who knew him well from a social, moral and spiritual standpoint, gave interesting talks, pointing out the exalted life he led. He was every loyal to his church. Before there was a Baptist Church erected here when services were being conducted in the upper story of the drug store, Mr. Norville and a few other men determined to build a house of worship, and many here today know how well that purpose was accomplished. He stood ready at all times to testify for his Lord when there was occasion, and his talks in the Sunday school were very helpful. He was one of the oldest deacons in the church. He came here as a contractor, having been employed in gold mines in both North Carolina and South Carolina. He graded streets here and helped in the building of the dwelling during the first years of the life of the town, also in the construction of the churches, Mary Ella Hall, etc. Mr. Norville was twice married, both wives preceding him in death; the last one only about four months ago. Surviving are seven children and other relatives.

Mrs. Burley Beaver delightfully entertained the Social Hour Club Thursday afternoon. The following were invited guests: Mesdames G. G. Allen, H. A. Alfred, E. T. Willmott, W. C. Graham, C. K. Turner, and Guy Beaver, the latter of Concord. Featuring the occasion was a guessing contest in which the questions were answered in abbreviations for the various states of the Union, provoking much fun and laughter.

The Literary Department of the Woman's Club will hold its next meeting Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. L. Ridenhour on Ridge Avenue, with Mrs. Ridenhour and Mrs. M. L. Troutman as hostesses.

The Presbyterian Auxiliary has taken up the study of the book entitled, "Child, America's Future," the meetings to take place on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of both this and next week.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist Church met last evening with Mrs. W. L. Yost. The attendance was good, and important business was transacted.

The singing school being conducted here by Mr. Hagler under the auspices of the Methodist and Baptist churches will be brought to a close on Thursday night. The school is quite a success. Mr. Hagler possesses adequate training which enables him to master his profession in an admirable manner. Quartets, etc., are in process of organization, and it is assured that a certainty that the public will not be disappointed in looking forward to good vocal music. The class is fond of Mr. Hagler and regrets to see him leave.

Miss Martha Rowe spent the week-end in Concord with Mrs. C. A. Davall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Carter, of Raleigh, have left after spending a few days with Mrs. Ira Montgomery, en route to Asheville.

Miss Alma McLaurin, of South Carolina, left Friday after spending some time with Mrs. H. D. McCorkle.

The Woman's Club held a splendid meeting Monday night at the Y. M. C. A. The large crowd enjoyed the talk given by Prof. J. B. Robertson on the bill under way relative to the county-wide school tax. Miss Jordan gave an interesting talk on "Children's Book Week," which is an annual event, and is considered a successful method of arousing the interest of children and young people in standard literature. The next meeting of the club will be held on the second Monday night in December.

In the passing of Mr. Henry Ritz, of Concord, and Mr. Norville, of this city, we have lost two men who were connected with the early history of our city. All the early inhabitants well remember Mr. Ritz's novelty store which was conducted in the building in which Mr. O. B. Hoffman is now engaged in merchandising.

Mrs. O. B. Hoffman delightfully entertained last evening at her home on Main Street in honor of her son, who celebrated his tenth anniversary. The decorations of cut flowers rendered the home very attractive. Interesting games were played after which delicious ice cream and cake was served. About 30 guests enjoyed the hospitality of the home.

Mrs. Joe Bypson has accepted a position with the Parks-Belk Company.

Miss Meta Sechler will be the guest tonight of Miss Eva Goble.

The friends of Mrs. J. R. McKnight will learn with regret that she has been confined to her home since Sunday by illness.

Miss Dessie Warren and Mr. Ernest Taylor, the latter of Charlotte, were married Saturday in Concord. Mrs. Taylor is well and favorably known at the Mary Ella Hall, where she has made her home for four years.

Master H. A. Scott and little Miss Beatrice Trounman have returned to their respective homes here following operations by Dr. W. R. Brandon for the removal of their tonsils.

Mr. Robert Marshall spent the week-end in Charlotte.

Mr. Guy Ritchie, of M. P. C. I., spent the week-end with home folks. He had as his guest Messrs. McLaughlin and Smith.

Mrs. L. E. Bost is improving following an illness of some duration, though she is not yet able to be out. Her many friends wish her a speed recovery.

Miss Pauline Walter, of Mont Amenez Seminary, spent the week-end with home folks.

Rev. Mr. Moser delivered two interesting sermons at the 11 o'clock and evening services Sunday at Trinity Methodist Church. The Baptists, Presbyterians and Associated Reformed Presbyterians attended the evening service.

Mrs. McKay, of near Mooresville, visited her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Housel, yesterday afternoon at the Kannapolis Inn.

Mrs. Myrtle Walker, who has been ill the past several weeks, is somewhat improved. She is now in the country at the home of her parents.

The friends of Mr. Paul Short are glad to see him back with the Kannapolis Drug Company. Mr. Short's brother, also, has accepted a position with the same store.

Mr. Morgan, of Greensboro, has accepted a position with the F. L. Smith Drug Company.

Miss Addie May Browley, of Gastonia, spent Sunday at the Kannapolis Inn.

The Mel Trotter meeting begins at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday night. This series of meetings will continue through the 25th instant. Mr. Trotter is scheduled to preach at the Baptist Church Sunday at the 11 o'clock service.

Mr. Trotter is superintendent of the Rescue Missions of America, and is a very able speaker.

Miss Elizabeth Robbins spent the week-end at Hickory Grove, near Charlotte.

Mr. A. L. Brown returned Monday from a business trip to New York.

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the South School meets Thursday afternoon at the school building. Today was the original date, the time being changed on account of some of the ladies wishing to attend the State Parent-Teachers' Association which is in session today at Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Joe Deaton, who is employed in the bleaching and who has been making her home at the Mary Ella Hall, is now coming daily from Concord.

Mr. Homer Ritchie has been very ill the past week.

The ladies of the Lutheran Church made quite a success Saturday night of the bazaar held at the O. K. Shoe hospital, realizing $114.

Mrs. Frank Frowe and little Miss Annie Hill have returned from Tennessee, where they spent some time with Mrs. Frowe's home folks.

Miss Aileen Moore gave a delightful Halloween party Friday evening at her home in Midway. Practically all who were present were disguised. The home was decorated in Halloween colors and autumn leaves. Interesting games, fortune telling, and music were features of the occasion. Following these amusements the guests were invited to the dining room, where a brew and Myrtle ginger snaps were served. Those present were: Misses Hattie and Myrtle Goodman, Altha McCombs, Bettie Claire, Mary Harrison, Blanche Walter, Probst Thompson, Harriet Orr. Out-of-town guests included the following: Misses Evelyn Goodman, Mary McClelland, Catherine and Hillard Linker, Gene Cook; Messrs. Wilson Griffin, Dowd Shinn, Ralph Beaver, Reece Bostian, Robert (Cline, Billie Mabrey, Franklin Harrison, Henry Lamont, George Linker, and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cook.

Beautiful Tribute to a Wife.
George Driskill, who died recently in Penfield, Illinois, by his will paid a beautiful tribute to his wife, who survived him. Such testimonials in wills are rare, and it is to be regretted that such holy sentiments of affection are not oftener found, for the will has ever been associated with home and family life.

"The will reads as follows:
"Throughout a longer wedded life than the Maker has ordinarily granted to a man and wife to live together, myself and my beloved wife, Samantha Driskill, have lived and toiled together to keep up our home and to accumulate and preserve what little fortune with which we have been blessed and favored. All this property has been carried in my name, merely because I am the husband, although she has worked side by side with me and just as hard to save and accumulate most of it. In reward to her loving kindness and faithfulness to me, as well as in justice to her, and in consideration of the fact that the property in reality is as much hers as mine, I bequeath to my beloved wife all of my personal property of every kind and character and all of my real estate."

No Further Indication of America's Attitude.
Paris, Nov. 6 (By the Associated Press).—Premier Poincare today received Ambassador Jusserand's cabled report on his conversation with Secretary of State Hughes in Washington yesterday. The conversation is described as most friendly, but no further indication of the American government's attitude is given in official quarters.

Fox Refuses to Add Anything to His Statement.
Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 6.—While Solicitor John A. Boykin asked the Fulton County grand jury today to indict Philip E. Fox, editor of the "Night Hawk," official organ of the Ku Klux Klan, the prisoner refused to add anything to his statement that Captain W. S. Coburn had threatened to "ruin him" in explanation of which he shot the attorney late yesterday.

The first woman to obtain cabinet rank in a British parliament is now on a visit to England. She is Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, who at one time was minister without portfolio in the Provincial Government of British Columbia.

On January 1st the earth is about 3,000,000 miles nearer to the sun than it is on July 1st.
