

It was unfortunate that some should Cloaninger-Graeber Wedding. One of the prettiest weddings of the have drawn a ribbon without a trinket, season was solemnized Tuesday evening but fate was not ready to unfold their

A Quiet Marriage.

Mrs. Felker is a daughter of Mr. and

Mr. Felker is a son of Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. King Honoree.

Mrs. Peter E. King, of Turkey, who with Mr. King is spending some time here with relatives, was honoree at a charm-

PERSONALS,

Master Jimmie Corzine, son of Mr.

and Mrs. R. .C. Corzine, has returned

Miss Dorothy Wolff and Mr. Harold

Miss Elizabeth Hahn, student at Lenoir-Rhyne College, is spending several days here with her parents, Mr. and

. . .

Miss Jessie Deaton and Mr. Clyde

Deaton spent Tuesday afternoon in

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Barnhardt,

Dr. Frank O Kogers, of Little Rock,

George L. Deaton.

with home folks.

Dry spent the week-end in Hickory with from a Charlotte hospital, where he un derwent treatment for some time.

at 7:30 when Miss Katherine Graeber future at this time. Those enjoying Miss Graeber's hospibecame the bride of Mr. Everette L. Cloaninger at the home of the bride's partality were: Misses Ola Winecoff, Sudie Moore, Maents, on South Union street.

With Miss Queen Graeber, cousin of mie Sappenfield, Beulah Praether, Kaththe bride at the piona, Miss Dorothy erine Isenhour, Queen Graeber, Mestra Wolff sang "At Dawning," and "O Promise Me," after which to the strains Everette L. Cloaninger and Mr. and Mrs. of Lohengrin's Wedding March the bri- George S. Graeber.

dal party entered. Rev. L. A. Thomas, pastor of the bride, and former pastor of the groom, took his place at the altar. A quiet marriage was celebrated on artificially made of combination cedar and Sunday, November 25, 1923, at the resiivy, together with pedestals from which dence of Rev. Geo. H. Cox, D. D., 424 radiated the mellow glow of candles. W. Horah Street, Salisbury, the con-Then came little Miss Sadie Lee Graeber. tracting parties being Mr. Paul H. Felkniece of the bride, dressed in pink crepe er and Miss Connie Estelle Rogers. Only de chine and white kid slippers, carrying a few special friends were present. the ring in a white rose. She was followed by the maid of honor, Miss Flor- Mrs. S. R. Rogers, of Kannapolis, ence Graeber, sister of the bride, who wore a lovely creation of blue satin, car- R. W. Felker, and is connected with the rying a bouquet of Russell roses and Paul Rubber Tire Company, of Salisfern. Then came the bride and groom bury.

together presenting themselves before the altar where the beautiful ring ceremony of the Lutheran Church was used. During the ceremoney Miss Queen Graeber softly played "Souvenir," by Deda.

The bride was attired in a beautiful ing tea drinking given Monday aftergoing-away suit of dark blue duvetyne noon by Mrs. W. M. Linker and Mrs. J. with grey squirrel trimmings and acces- B. Womble at the home of Mrs. Linker game they had played this season. The sories to match, carrying an arm bouquet on White street. Receiving in the home were Mrs. King, of bride's roses and lily of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony amid congratulations, the young couple left May King, Mrs. J. C. Willeford and Miss for Charlotte, spending the night and Bertie Louise Willeford. will take a motor trip to Pinehurst and About 75 guests called at the home of other points of interest in this state. Upon their return they will be at 5 o'clock and tea and sandwiches were home in Charlotte, where Mr. Cloaninger served.

has a responsible position with the Carolina Cadillac Company as manager of Brilliant Soprano to Be Heard Here team, played about half of the game. He stated that he was treated very courteous Sunday. of the parts department.

Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Mr. For the past two years the bride has been a resident of Winston-Salem, hold- Samuel Goodman will give an hour of played in since he was hurt. Sullivan ing a position in the offices of the Brown- music at St. James Lutheran Church. ran the team when Ridenhour was not He has been fortunate in securing to as- playing, and as has been the case most Rogers Hardware Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Cloaninger were the re-sist him Mrs. Lila Rozelle Knubel, of of the season, proved the best ground cipients of many beautiful and useful New York, who will sing three numbers. gainer for the Concord team. presents, attesting the popularity of the Mrs. Knubel who is the possessor of couple, among them being a chest of sil- a remarkable lyric voice has just com- er for Gastonia. The slim back ran the pleted a year's engagement at the Criver from the bride's parents.

Following the wedding ceremony an in- terion Theatre, New York. formal reception was held, at which time The organ has recently been remodeled refreshments consisting of cake, cream and additions made and will be used Sunday for the first time since remodeland mints were served.

Among those present from out of the city were: Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cloaninof Mooresville: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Graeber, of Kannapolis; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Brown and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McNeely of Mooresville, Mr. T. R. Cloaninger, of Troutman, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Graeber, of Statesville; Mr. Pitman, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Praeber, Columbia. S .C.; Mr. Turner, Winston-Salem; Miss Queen Graeber, of friends at Lenoir-Rhyne College.

Kannapolis, and Miss Florence Graeber. of Winston-Salem. Announcements reading as follows have been issued: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Augustus Graeber people who went to Charlotte Monday announce the marriage of their daughter

Margaret Katherine Mr. Everette L. Cloaninger

on Tuesday, November twenty-seventh nineteen hundred and twenty-three Concord, North Carolina

At Home ber 10th

THE CONCORD TIMES Mr. Robert Safrit, of Winston-Salem, spending the day here with home Mr. Harry Martin, who has been attending a business college in Roanoke, Va., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Martin. Mrs. J. E. Love and children left this ning.

afternoon for Greensboro, to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Love's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sussman.

Miss Edith Furr, of Gastonia, is externoon to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Miss Ila Bost.

folks.

Mrs. W. C. Correll is visiting now at the home of her son, Mr. Eugene Correll, in Hiddenite.

CONCORD AND GASTONIA IN SCORELESS FOOTBALL GAME

Two Teams Showed Again That They Are About Evenly Matched.---Ridenhour Made Long Run. The Concord and Gastonia high school

The for the second time this season. As was the case in Gastonia, when Concord was defeated 9 to 6, the teams showed Tuesday that they are very evenly

The game was the last of the year for resumed as usual on Friday the Concord team and was the fourth tie team disbanded after the game.

During most of the game Tuesday the ball was in the center of the field, skowing the almost equal strength of the teams. Neither team was closer to the goal than the 20-yard line, and with one

Mrs. Linker between the hours of 3 and exception, when Ridenhour, of the Con-game Tuesday was the second he had beautifully situated in Salem.

Armstrong was the best offensive play-Concord ends for good gains at times, but he did not have enough support to

Toward the last of the game Rideninterference carried the ball about fifty back into the field, he was stopped. Three Hi-Y Clubs Hold Kegular Weekly

Meetings at the "Y."

by each club, the regular Bible study denly some time Monday night. Miss Ruth Dry, Miss Dorothy Wolff being left off, as the clubs were busy mapping out a program for their year's and Miss Bulwinkle and Mr. H. B. and T. A. Wolff were among the Concord work. evening to hear the Paderewski con-

The boys are turning their attention t present to the Older Boys' Conference, The Hi-Y boys will have actual charge

Mrs. H. C. Hahn. The following were among the Concord of promoting this banquet. They will arrange the program, sell tickets. and people who went to Charlotte Monday thoroughly advertise the banquet in all conducted in this county last week. evening for the Pederewski concert: Mr. schools and churches. The girls will is expected that the amount from the The Y Entertains the Meyers Athletic and Mrs. V. A. Means, Miss May White and guest, Miss Hudson, Misses Mary serve. and Adeline Morrison, Mrs. J. B. Wom-

LOCAL MENTION

There will be no Tribune tomorrowplease don't look for it.

There will not be any prayer service at Central Methodist Church this eve-

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Arley Sloane, at their home in No. 5 township, a son November 25th.

Marriage license has been issued by pected to arrive here some time this af- Register of Deeds Elliott to W. C. Dixon, of Reckley, W. Va., and Miss Mary Petrea, of Kannapolis.

> For the second day in succession no new cases of diseases of any kind were were reported to the county health department Tuesday.

> Mrs. Annie Baird, Miss Annie Brice Baird and Rev. J. A. Baird, the latter of Kannapolis, have returned from York, S. C., where they were called by the illness and death of Mr. J. Steel Brice.

Mary Elizabeth Davis, daughter of football teams played another sanppy game Tuesday afternoon when they met The Operation in the Concord Hospital on Tuesday afternoon for appendicitis. The game was played at the Gibson Mill park here and resulted in a scoreless tie. ed to the hospital, where the operation was successfully performed.

All of the banks of the city and pracmatched. There was little to choose be tically all of the business houses will be tween the two elevens and a tie game closed tomorrow. The drug stores plan was the most natural result. Both teams to observe Sunday hours and will be opshowed strong on the defense, but they en for several hours in the morning and could not muster enough offense to score. again in the afternoon. Business will be · All schools of the city and county will be closed tomorrow-Thanksgiving Day. The schools of the city will not resume work until Monday, but most of the coun ty schools will resume work Friday. Thanksgiving Day is always observed as a holiday by the schools here.

Mr. J. H. Brown, county welfare officord team, got off to a long sprint, the cer. has returned from Salem. Va., goals were not threatened. Ridenhour, quarterback of the local to the Lutheran orphanage. Mr. Brown was injured early in the season and the ly by officers of the orphanage, which i

About fifty persons from Concord will ee the Carolina-Virginia game in Chapel Hill tomorrow. A private car on the Southern will carry about thirty persons and others will go in automobiles. Quite a large number of Concord people also plan to see the Trinity-Davidson game in Charlotte.

Mont Amoena Seminary and Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute closed this afnour received a punt and with splendid ternoon for the week. These schools, located at Mt. Pleasant, always close for yards. It looked at first that he was off Thanksgiving Day and the day following to a touchdown , but he skirted the side- so that the students will have an oppo lines too closely, and when he reversed tunity to visit home folks. Work at the schools will be resumed again Monday.

The funeral of Margaret Cline, four months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cline, who died some time Monday The Senior Hi-Y boys and girls' club night, was held this morning at 11 held their regular meetings last night at o'clock at Poplar Tent. The service was the "Y" with their respective leaders, conducted by the pastor of the Church, Primarily a business meeting was held Rev. Mr. Eubanks. The child died sud-

Rev. W. C. Lyerly, pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, will preach at the un on service to be held in Central Methodist Church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.- A number of the down-town ber 30th to December 2nd, and to the Churches will take part in the service Father and Son Banquet which will be held at the Y. M. C. A. December 13th. different embedded in the made to different orphanages by those attending.

So far about $700 has been reported com the Red Cross Roll Call, which was

This Store Will Be Closed all Day Thanksgiving

Friday and Saturday

Last Two Big Days of Sale of Wooly Warm Blankets

By co-operation with the Philippi Mills of Philippi, West Virginia, we have arranged a four-day sale of 1,000 pairs of Woolly-Warm Blankets, wool mixed, of good grade yarns constructed to prevent shrinkage and to maintain the beautiful colors used in the plaids. The Blankets are bound with three-inch ribbon. They are 66x88 inches and weigh four pounds per pair. The Special price

^{$4.95} A Pair

A price lower by a fourth than equal Blankets can be sold regularly. Four-inch block plaids, blue, pink, tans and greys, with a third contrasting color in the border.

Special Prices For These Four Days on Other Blankets

A Real $7.00 Value Blanket For $4.95

These Blankets are warm-they are substantial. They look well-they launder well. The Philippi Mills back every pair for Real Quality.

Only 200 pairs in stock for this Sale, and these are priced to sell quick. Better get yours early in the sale. If you can't come phone 138-Blankets.

Thursday, November 29, 1923

Charlotte, North Carolina.

Club.

Rev. C. C. Myers brought his Athletic ble, Miss Nell Herring, Mr. and Mrs. A. Club down to the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday E. Harris, Mrs. W. W. Flowe, Mrs. C. evening and the boys enjoyed the privi- L. White, Mrs. J. F. Goodman. leges of the institution during the entire evening. A special period has been arrarged for this club to meet at the Y every Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. In this Mooresville, attending the funeral of Mr. manner it is hoped that the club can take advantage of the apparatus and equipment to advance its efficiency. They already have a state-wide reputation as of China Grove, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Linker. a baseball club and they are planning to take up basketball and other sports, start-

Misses Helen Patterson, Adele and ing off at the Y with one period each week. Later on they will have courts Mary Pemberton, Jessie Burkhead, Mesand equipment put up for their own use dames R, A. Brower, C. B. Wagoner, G. Mr. Myers has a splendid organization Mr. Lewis, and C. A. Cannon, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. out in their community.

in this athletic club of his, and the boys Jones, Mr. and Mrs. I. I. Davis, Mr. and and young men in it are of the very best Messrs. S. K. Patterson and W. H. kind and are the sort of men who, with Muse attended the Paderewski concert a little help and encouragement make the in Charlotte Monday evening. citizens of the future worth while. They are interesting from every standpoint; organized, orderly, competitive, sports-Hahn spent Tuesday in Salisbury.

manlike, and skilled in many athletic Miss Margaret Ritchie, student at games and contests. They can be bank-Queen's College, Charlotte, is expected night. ed on to furnish some very entertaining competition when they get their basketto spend Thanksgiving here with home ball team organized, and no doubt will folks.

give all of the olcal teams a chase for their honors.

Hill-Woods.

Mr. Samuel M. Hill, of Concord, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barnhardt, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Byrd left this Miss Louise Woods, of Salisbury, were married in Salisbury last night at 7:30 afternoon for Chapel Hill, Mrs. Barn-hardt will go on to Noyfo'k before re-Immediately after the cereo'clock. mony Mr. and Mrs. Hill lest for South Carolina where they will spend several turning home to visit her sister, Mrs. days, and will return to Concord where Burks Withers. they will make their home. Mr. Hill is agent here for the Business Men's Insurance Company, of Greensboro. Bridal Party Entertained.

Monday evening Miss Katherine Grae-ber entertained her bridal party, together with a few other friends, at her home on South Union street.

Following the rehearsal Miss Queen her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lip-Graeber gave several musical selections. pard. after which those present engaged in a Miss Wilma Correll is spending the Thanksgiving holidays in Bennettsville, Floral Wedding Contest and other merriment. Later in the evening a salad course was served.

S. C., with friends. The real fun of the evening came when Mr. J. F. Goodson and Dr. H. C. they were invited into the dining room, where amid the soft light of candles shone forth a beautiful wedding cake at Okracoke.

from which hung dainty white ribbons, anxious to tell the fate of each one pres-One by one the ribbons were drawn, the ring by Miss Mamie Sappenfield, Miss Queen Graeber the thimble, which put

Mrs. D. R. Hoover, Miss Annie Hoover, Mrs. A. R. Hoover and Aubrey her into the realms of being an old maid; Miss Katie Isenhour the four leaf clover; Hoover plan to spend tomorrow in Mrs. George Graeber the best sport : Miss Greensboro with friends. Sudie Moore drew the button, the bride-

Charlotte Observer : Mrs. B. E. Harelect received notice of the best news. Mr. Everette L. Cloaninger the most flowery, Mr. Ray Cline the most hopeful, Mr. Robert Clark the wisest, and Providence road, Myers, Park, for the hold her by it, if nothing more. - and makes it look like new. Or any Miss Florence Graeber the most in love. Paderewski concert Monday. Too Doo.

Net 1 :

an active part. A large tree will be man of the Roll Call campaign this placed in front of the "Y," and will be year. loaded with useful gifts, which will be Only three cases were on docket for distributed to the needy by the boys and trial in recorder's court this morning and girls The Junior Hi-Y members held their first meeting Tuesday night, and although they are not thoroughly organ-building and larceny being charged in fellows and bid fair to have a good club the other. The other case charged a and to be right along with the other two clubs when there is anything to be done

They will meet again next Tuesday Mr. James M. Blackwelder returned night, at which time they will begin this morning from Westminster, Md., their regular program and Bible study. having been called there by the illness of The girls are putting all their effort toward the White Christmas and the who recently underwent an operation in Mother and Daughter Pow Wow which a hospital there. The condition of Miss will be held in January. They decided Blackwelder is considered fine, and she to use the same pin that the Hi-Y boys hopes to be able to resume her studies at use except they will have a G. C. in the the Western Maryland College within a place of Hi-Y printed on them. The few weeks.

Mr. H. C. Hahn and Miss Elizabeth girls have already begun work as they had charge of distributing tickets for the picture—"The Life of Christ"—which St. James Lutheran Church tomorrow, was shown at the "Y" last Saturday Thanksgiving night, at 7:30 o'clock. Thanksgiving night, at 7:30 o'clock. This congregation, through the Ladies' Aid Society, is sending a bale of second-

The Organ Recital Last Evening. An audience all of whom could not find of Europe. Those having such clothes beating space in the handsome new For- to send will kindly bring them to the seating space in the handsome new Foris spending several days in Concord est Hill Methodist Church, was present Tuesday evening at the organ recital given by Dr. H. A. Shirley, dean of the en by Dr. H. A. Shirley, itean of the music department of Salem College. The new memorial organ, erected by Mr. W. R. Odell in memory of his first wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Sergeant Odell, was used in recital for the first time. The organ was built by M. P. Moller, of Hagerstown, son will play, the game to be staged at Md., and is a large two-manual instru-Wearn Field. The regular football sea-Dr. H. A. Shirley, dean of the music ment of the very latest design and equipdepartment of Salem College, who gave ment. The various numbers on the pro-

the organ recital at Forest Hill Meth- gram were rendered in a masterly manodist Church here Tuesday evening, has ner and with great musical intelligence. returned to his home in Winston-Salem. and thoroughly tested the powers and range of the organ "Hele Nicke" Miss Mabel Lippard, teacher in the Beethoven's "Minuet" were especial fav-Salisbury public schools, is spending the orites with the audience. The following Thanksgiving holidays in Concord with was the programme: 1. Aria-Bach. 2. Minuet-Beethoven.

S. Hungarian Dance-Brahms. 4. Offertoire to St. Cecilia-Batiste. 5. In Springtime-Kinder.

6. Midsummer Caprice-Johnston.

Mrs. Luther Harkey and child, of Old Lady on a Porch"; (d) An Urchin Winston-Salem, are spending several days here with her father, Mr. C. A. Isenhour. 9. Scotch Fantasia-MacFarlane.

Fashions Here and There.

A South Sea island maiden beauth fies herself with a brass ring in her nose. An American woman of fashion does the same with a pearl in her ear. machine. It appears as if polishing ris, of Concord, was the guest of Mr. The ring is more serviceable—you can also keeps the finish from cracking and Mrs. T. C. Neal at their home on bold her by it if nothing more - and makes it look like new. Or any county will reach the thousand dollar Raleigh, Nov. 26 .- "The county of A White Christmas is being planned mark when all contributions have been in which every Hi-Y member will have reported to Rev. W. A. Jenkins, chair-Cabarrus was erected December 31, 1792, out of the Northeastern part of Mecklenburg and was named in honor of Stephen, Cabarrus, of Edenton, speaker of the state house of commons," according to a history of the county written for the North Carolina Historical Comthe same defendant was charged in two mission by Col. Fred A. Olds. "Its county seat, Concord, was named for the in one case and feloniously entering a town where the opening battle of the Revolution, in Massachusetts, was fought.

Fred A. Olds.

"The act creating the county provided that James Harris, Joseph Moore Car-

Written For the North Carolina

Historical Commission by Col.

penter, William Orr, George Alepander, Zacheus Wilson, Paul Barringer, John Lippard, Joseph Shinn, Daniel Jarrett, Alexander Ferguson, James Bradshaw, James Harris, Sr., Archibald Hunter, Benjamin Patton and Robert Smith should fix on the most central place for the court house and jail and that three of their number should buy fifty acres of land at such place and contract for the erection of these buildings as soon

Thanksgiving service will be held at as the commissioners had fixed on the site. The first county court was held in January, 1793, at the home of Richard Russell, to divide the county and do other business. hand clothes to the unfortunate people "The first court house was not built until 1795, up to that time private building being used. The court house was used until 1835, when one of brick succhurch at this time. The public is eeded it. In 1876 this one was burned most cordially welcome. by a fire which started in a dwelling, and The State's biggest football game will the will books up to 1843 were destroyed, be played at Chapel Hill tomorrow when while all the deed books were saved. The present court house was built in 1878. "Members of the United States Conoutcome is very much in doubt. In gress born in Cabarrus county were Charlotte tomorrow Trinity and David-son will play, the game to be staged at Wagin Field, (The game to be staged at Wagin and William C. Houston."

and the patent office records disclose hundreds of these. The chief difficulty with all of them is the same: the fact that they do not work. Scientisis an impossibility and inventors are wasting their time and energy by attempting to produce such a machine

Can Make Flower Scents.

Nearly all flower scents can be suchave shown that perpetual motion is son throughout the country will come to a close tomorrow, with games in all parts Can't Be Made to Work. of the country. A good many so-called perpetual motion machines have been invented.

At the Theaters.

Neal Hart is being shown at the Pastime today in "Double Suspision." 'Temptation," a big drama, is also being offered. John Gilbert is being offered today at the Piedmont in "The Exiles," one of his latest features. At the Star today Agnes Ayres plays the leading part in "Racing Hearts," one of her latest productions.

morrow morning at eleven o'clock. Rev. W. C. Lyerly, of the First Reformed ing of artificial odors. That of the Church, will preach the sermon. The public is most cordially invited to this sertion.

> 'USIEU on being very frank are often cruelly Some people who pride themselves Frankness Without Judiciousness.

French Bastile 1369-1789. The French Bastile was founded i 1360 and destroyed in 1789.

How to Put Dollars in the

"It's a Good Feed But I Can't Afford to Feed It"

Because Cow Chow is fed on the farms of so many prosperous dairymen, some people feel that it is a "rich man's feed" and not for the man who has to make his cows support him.

You don't run across many well-to-do or wealthy men who aren't good business men and don't get the very most of every dollar. The big idea all over the Purina Mills from laboratory to mixer is "lower the cost of production."

Feed Purina Cow Chow in the checkerboard bags, and watch the extra dollars in the milk pail. Call for Mr. Davis for demonstration at the

CASH FEED STORE

SOUTH CHURCH ST.

PHONE 122

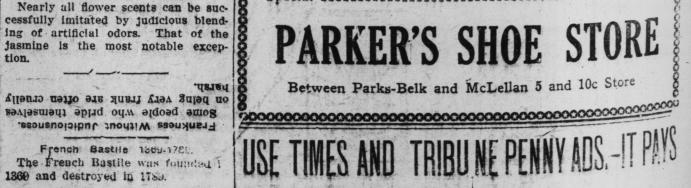

SPECIALS FOR

Friday, Saturday and Monday

No. 1620-Ladies' Sunset Tan Calf Oxford with dark brown calf wing tip and trimming. Low rubber $4.95 heel. A $6.00 value. Special _____

No. 362-Ladies' and Girls' Brown Calf, high cut lace shoe. Substantial and sturdy built. All solid $2.95 leather. Special _____

No. 1141-Men's Brown Calf Lace Shoes, medium square $3.95 toe. Half English last. Welt. Special _____ that will work. Union Thanksgiving Service. There will be a union Thanksgiving service at Central Methodist Church to-

Wm. A. JENKINS, Pastor.

Use sewing machine oil on a soft cloth to clean the wood parts of a sewing

Cleaning Sewing Machine.

7. Holy Night+Harker.

Herring are spending some time hunting Nevin: (a) The City From Afar; (b) On the Avenue; (c) The Grandmother "An