

The Concord Times

Entered as second class mail matter at the postoffice at Concord, N. C., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Published Mondays and Thursdays. J. B. SHERRILL, Editor and Publisher. W. M. SHERRILL, Associate Editor.

Special Representative FROST, LANDIS & KOHN

225 Fifth Avenue, New York. Peoples Gas Building, Chicago. 1004 Chasler Building, Atlanta.

RAILROAD SCHEDULE

Table with 2 columns: Station, Time. Includes routes to Washington, Danville, Richmond, and Charlotte.

TIME OF CLOSING OF MAILS.

Table with 2 columns: Train No., Time. Lists closing times for various train services.

Bible Thought For The Day

BETTER THAN RUBIES.—Search the Scriptures; for in them ye shall find life eternal life: and they are which testify of me.—John 5:39.

THE COMMISSIONER IS RIGHT.

When Corporation Commissioner, Pell recently attended a convention of railway and utilities commissioners in Miami, Fla., he ran across some astonishing figures regarding the expansion of North Carolina.

THE TRAGEDY OF THE AGE.

The Charlotte News under the above caption says editorially: An exchange, writing under this caption, thinks that the greatest tragedy of the age is not the crime wave that is sweeping through the country, not the wickedness that prevails in the high places, not the flagrant violations of the Volstead act, not the laxity with which children are being reared, not the liberties and licenses which the young people are being allowed, and which are being largely sanctioned by those who ought to know better, but it believes the tragedy of the age to be the divorce which has come about between fathers and sons.

TO HELP THE UNFORTUNATE.

The members of the King's Daughters and B. P. O. E. of Concord have instructed their officers to make plans to care for the city's unfortunate at Christmas. This plan was first tried last year and it proved so successful that it is being repeated.

COTTON CONSUMPTION DECREASES.

According to figures just announced by the census bureau, there was a decrease in cotton consumption in November as compared with October. The figures announced by the bureau also show that cotton consumption in November of this year was less than the consumption in the corresponding month of last year.

THE REMEDY THAT CURES.

It is interesting to note that a Federal Court judge in Savannah, Ga., has fined 24 men from $500 to $10,000, each for breaking the liquor laws and sentenced them from one to two years in the penitentiary.

358,718 bales. Cotton spindles active in cotton producing States 16,162,382.

PRESS AGENT.

North Carolinians seem to have taken Irvin Cobb's statement about the need of a press agent in the State to heart. At least civic organizations and cities in this section of this State and certain parts of South Carolina seem to have awakened to Mr. Cobb's hint and their first concerted action was the securing of sixteen pages in The New York Tribune of December 9th.

DALTON NOT TO DIE.

The case of Jerry Dalton, young white man of Macon County convicted three years ago of the death of a young woman and a young man and sentenced to die, has created State-wide interest and with one or two exceptions has been one of the most prominent cases in the history of the State in recent years.

WHEN BILLBOARDS FAIL.

There will always be differences of opinion about the relative merits of various forms of advertising. If there were not, only one form would exist. We are unable, however, to get the viewpoint of a few large corporations which use outdoor, or billboard, advertising exclusively.

WOMAN DISAPPEARS FROM HER YADKIN COUNTY HOME.

Mrs. Wooten Had Been Notified That She Was to Be Sent to Asylum at Morganton. Winston-Salem, Dec. 13.—Relatives are seeking the whereabouts of Mrs. Myrtle Wooten, who mysteriously disappeared from the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Rutledge, near Courthouse, Yadkin county, with whom the daughter lived.

Way of the Transgressor Is Hard.

Fred Long, a young married man, is no doubt, convinced that "the way of the transgressor is hard." He was convicted in the county court Wednesday morning for violating the law against immorality, and was sentenced to serve four months on the county chain gang.

Great Praise For North Carolina.

The recent action of Governor Morrison, of North Carolina, in sending militia to Nashville, in that State, to protect a negro on trial there, charged with attacking a white woman, moved the County Commissioners of Nash county to express their disapproval. The Governor has promptly replied to his critics that he intends to use every power given to him by the Constitution of his State to prevent lynchings.

Pity the Lion.

It was rather a small circus and carried but one lion, one tiger, one elephant, and so on down the list. After the trainer had put the lion through his paces, an elderly lady appeared at the cage door and remarked: "Aren't you afraid that this ferocious beast will attempt to make a meal of you some day?"

Capt. Melvin G. Caldwell of Charlotte Dies on Sunday.

Charlotte, Dec. 16.—Captain Melvin Grimes Caldwell, son of the late Thomas E. Caldwell, and Mrs. Mamie Grimes Caldwell, died this morning after weeks of illness, the result of a wound received in the world war. He was at the officers' training camp at Oglethorpe, where he gained his first lieutenantcy. He was then detailed for service at Camp Greene, 3rd division, company F, 30th regiment. In March, 1918, he went to France and was injured in service there, by the bursting of a bomb, being struck in the hip and back. He married Miss Lorna Porter, of Charlotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Porter. He will be given a military funeral Monday afternoon.

DINNER STORIES

"Bill's going to sue the company for damages." "Why? Wat did they do to him?" "They blew the quitin' whistle when he was carrying a 'savy piece of iron, an' 'e dropped it on 'is foot."

Safe Secrets.

She—"How is it that widows generally manage to marry again?" He—"Because dead men tell no tales."

Repairing Neatly Done.

Irate Customer: "I bought a car of you several weeks ago and you said if anything went wrong you'd supply the broken parts." Dealer: "Yes." Irate Customer: "I'd like to get a nose, a shoulder-blade and a big toe."

That's the One.

Smith: "Yes, I'm engaged to be married and I've only known the girl two days." Jones: "What folly." Smith: "Ziegfeld's."

On the Other Hand.

A large may was spread on the wall and the teacher was instructing the class in geography. "Horace," said she, "when you stand in Europe facing the north, you have on your right hand the great continent of Asia. What have you on your left hand?" "A wart," replied Horace.

Definition of Love.

It's something like a lizard; It wraps its tail around your heart, And creeps into your gizzard.

The Trade Mark.

"Mamma, are the people in Siam Republicans?" "Why, no, dear. Why?" "Because I read where they worship the elephant."

The Difference.

Elder Watkins, of Muddy Hollow, just back from the city, was telling his wife of the church he had attended. "Did you know any of their songs?" asked she. "No," replied the elder, "they didn't sing anything but anthems."

Why?

Are not the people to whom they want to sell their goods the very same people whose favorable opinion they wish to enlist on propositions mutually affecting their business and the public welfare?

National Advertising Brings Quick Results.

High Point, Dec. 13.—The response to the advertising of High Point in The New York Tribune last Sunday has been quick. The Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce Frank J. Sizemore, finds his mail increased by numbers of letters asking for further information about the city and the opportunities that it presents.

Way of the Transgressor Is Hard.

Fred Long, a young married man, is no doubt, convinced that "the way of the transgressor is hard." He was convicted in the county court Wednesday morning for violating the law against immorality, and was sentenced to serve four months on the county chain gang.

Great Praise For North Carolina.

The recent action of Governor Morrison, of North Carolina, in sending militia to Nashville, in that State, to protect a negro on trial there, charged with attacking a white woman, moved the County Commissioners of Nash county to express their disapproval. The Governor has promptly replied to his critics that he intends to use every power given to him by the Constitution of his State to prevent lynchings.

Pity the Lion.

It was rather a small circus and carried but one lion, one tiger, one elephant, and so on down the list. After the trainer had put the lion through his paces, an elderly lady appeared at the cage door and remarked: "Aren't you afraid that this ferocious beast will attempt to make a meal of you some day?"

MYSTERY OF SERIES OF MURDERS SOLVED

Officials Think Birmingham Negro Responsible for Many Axe Murders. Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 12.—Confidence that a solution has been found to Birmingham's long series of axe murders in the garret of Fred Glover, negro, Monday night, was expressed here by Solicitor Jim Davis and sheriff's officials. Glover was identified by Edward Sparks and Mrs. Sparks on a vacant lot Sunday afternoon. She is recovering from a wound in the head.

ST. LOUIS GETS BUSY

Wants to Secure Meeting of National Democratic Convention. St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 15.—If St. Louis does not capture the Democratic national convention it will not be for lack of effort on the part of its citizens. They confidently believe that they can beat out New York in the contest for the gathering and as a first step towards this end a campaign was inaugurated today to raise a fund of $130,000, with which it is proposed to bid for the convention.

WOMAN DISAPPEARS FROM HER YADKIN COUNTY HOME.

Mrs. Wooten Had Been Notified That She Was to Be Sent to Asylum at Morganton. Winston-Salem, Dec. 13.—Relatives are seeking the whereabouts of Mrs. Myrtle Wooten, who mysteriously disappeared from the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Rutledge, near Courthouse, Yadkin county, with whom the daughter lived.

Way of the Transgressor Is Hard.

Fred Long, a young married man, is no doubt, convinced that "the way of the transgressor is hard." He was convicted in the county court Wednesday morning for violating the law against immorality, and was sentenced to serve four months on the county chain gang.

Great Praise For North Carolina.

The recent action of Governor Morrison, of North Carolina, in sending militia to Nashville, in that State, to protect a negro on trial there, charged with attacking a white woman, moved the County Commissioners of Nash county to express their disapproval. The Governor has promptly replied to his critics that he intends to use every power given to him by the Constitution of his State to prevent lynchings.

Pity the Lion.

It was rather a small circus and carried but one lion, one tiger, one elephant, and so on down the list. After the trainer had put the lion through his paces, an elderly lady appeared at the cage door and remarked: "Aren't you afraid that this ferocious beast will attempt to make a meal of you some day?"

Capt. Melvin G. Caldwell of Charlotte Dies on Sunday.

Charlotte, Dec. 16.—Captain Melvin Grimes Caldwell, son of the late Thomas E. Caldwell, and Mrs. Mamie Grimes Caldwell, died this morning after weeks of illness, the result of a wound received in the world war. He was at the officers' training camp at Oglethorpe, where he gained his first lieutenantcy. He was then detailed for service at Camp Greene, 3rd division, company F, 30th regiment. In March, 1918, he went to France and was injured in service there, by the bursting of a bomb, being struck in the hip and back. He married Miss Lorna Porter, of Charlotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Porter. He will be given a military funeral Monday afternoon.

THE REMEDY THAT CURES.

It is interesting to note that a Federal Court judge in Savannah, Ga., has fined 24 men from $500 to $10,000, each for breaking the liquor laws and sentenced them from one to two years in the penitentiary.

COTTON CONSUMPTION DECREASES.

According to figures just announced by the census bureau, there was a decrease in cotton consumption in November as compared with October. The figures announced by the bureau also show that cotton consumption in November of this year was less than the consumption in the corresponding month of last year.

THE TRAGEDY OF THE AGE.

The Charlotte News under the above caption says editorially: An exchange, writing under this caption, thinks that the greatest tragedy of the age is not the crime wave that is sweeping through the country, not the wickedness that prevails in the high places, not the flagrant violations of the Volstead act, not the laxity with which children are being reared, not the liberties and licenses which the young people are being allowed, and which are being largely sanctioned by those who ought to know better, but it believes the tragedy of the age to be the divorce which has come about between fathers and sons.

THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER

Pay $2.00 and Get The Concord Times and Progressive Farmer Both For One Year. Until further notice we will give The Concord Times and The Progressive Farmer, both one year for only $2.00, the price of The Times alone. You get 155 papers for only $2.00. The Progressive Farmer is the best farm paper published and every farmer should have it.

WOMAN DISAPPEARS FROM HER YADKIN COUNTY HOME.

Mrs. Wooten Had Been Notified That She Was to Be Sent to Asylum at Morganton. Winston-Salem, Dec. 13.—Relatives are seeking the whereabouts of Mrs. Myrtle Wooten, who mysteriously disappeared from the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Rutledge, near Courthouse, Yadkin county, with whom the daughter lived.

Way of the Transgressor Is Hard.

Fred Long, a young married man, is no doubt, convinced that "the way of the transgressor is hard." He was convicted in the county court Wednesday morning for violating the law against immorality, and was sentenced to serve four months on the county chain gang.

Great Praise For North Carolina.

The recent action of Governor Morrison, of North Carolina, in sending militia to Nashville, in that State, to protect a negro on trial there, charged with attacking a white woman, moved the County Commissioners of Nash county to express their disapproval. The Governor has promptly replied to his critics that he intends to use every power given to him by the Constitution of his State to prevent lynchings.

Pity the Lion.

It was rather a small circus and carried but one lion, one tiger, one elephant, and so on down the list. After the trainer had put the lion through his paces, an elderly lady appeared at the cage door and remarked: "Aren't you afraid that this ferocious beast will attempt to make a meal of you some day?"

Capt. Melvin G. Caldwell of Charlotte Dies on Sunday.

Charlotte, Dec. 16.—Captain Melvin Grimes Caldwell, son of the late Thomas E. Caldwell, and Mrs. Mamie Grimes Caldwell, died this morning after weeks of illness, the result of a wound received in the world war. He was at the officers' training camp at Oglethorpe, where he gained his first lieutenantcy. He was then detailed for service at Camp Greene, 3rd division, company F, 30th regiment. In March, 1918, he went to France and was injured in service there, by the bursting of a bomb, being struck in the hip and back. He married Miss Lorna Porter, of Charlotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Porter. He will be given a military funeral Monday afternoon.

THE REMEDY THAT CURES.

It is interesting to note that a Federal Court judge in Savannah, Ga., has fined 24 men from $500 to $10,000, each for breaking the liquor laws and sentenced them from one to two years in the penitentiary.

COTTON CONSUMPTION DECREASES.

According to figures just announced by the census bureau, there was a decrease in cotton consumption in November as compared with October. The figures announced by the bureau also show that cotton consumption in November of this year was less than the consumption in the corresponding month of last year.

THE TRAGEDY OF THE AGE.

The Charlotte News under the above caption says editorially: An exchange, writing under this caption, thinks that the greatest tragedy of the age is not the crime wave that is sweeping through the country, not the wickedness that prevails in the high places, not the flagrant violations of the Volstead act, not the laxity with which children are being reared, not the liberties and licenses which the young people are being allowed, and which are being largely sanctioned by those who ought to know better, but it believes the tragedy of the age to be the divorce which has come about between fathers and sons.

THE COMMISSIONER IS RIGHT.

When Corporation Commissioner, Pell recently attended a convention of railway and utilities commissioners in Miami, Fla., he ran across some astonishing figures regarding the expansion of North Carolina.

Salisbury Negro Preacher Held For Killing a Negro.

Salisbury, Dec. 15.—Rev. C. H. Lilly, negro sanctified preacher of this city, has been placed under arrest on a charge of murder growing out of an automobile accident in Hoke county. The arrest was made by Sheriff Kridler's office and Lilly was released on $2,000 bond. Some time during November, it is charged, Lilly's automobile struck a negro in Hoke county, causing injuries from which the man has since died.

WOMAN DISAPPEARS FROM HER YADKIN COUNTY HOME.

Mrs. Wooten Had Been Notified That She Was to Be Sent to Asylum at Morganton. Winston-Salem, Dec. 13.—Relatives are seeking the whereabouts of Mrs. Myrtle Wooten, who mysteriously disappeared from the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Rutledge, near Courthouse, Yadkin county, with whom the daughter lived.

Way of the Transgressor Is Hard.

Fred Long, a young married man, is no doubt, convinced that "the way of the transgressor is hard." He was convicted in the county court Wednesday morning for violating the law against immorality, and was sentenced to serve four months on the county chain gang.

Great Praise For North Carolina.

The recent action of Governor Morrison, of North Carolina, in sending militia to Nashville, in that State, to protect a negro on trial there, charged with attacking a white woman, moved the County Commissioners of Nash county to express their disapproval. The Governor has promptly replied to his critics that he intends to use every power given to him by the Constitution of his State to prevent lynchings.

Pity the Lion.

It was rather a small circus and carried but one lion, one tiger, one elephant, and so on down the list. After the trainer had put the lion through his paces, an elderly lady appeared at the cage door and remarked: "Aren't you afraid that this ferocious beast will attempt to make a meal of you some day?"

Capt. Melvin G. Caldwell of Charlotte Dies on Sunday.

Charlotte, Dec. 16.—Captain Melvin Grimes Caldwell, son of the late Thomas E. Caldwell, and Mrs. Mamie Grimes Caldwell, died this morning after weeks of illness, the result of a wound received in the world war. He was at the officers' training camp at Oglethorpe, where he gained his first lieutenantcy. He was then detailed for service at Camp Greene, 3rd division, company F, 30th regiment. In March, 1918, he went to France and was injured in service there, by the bursting of a bomb, being struck in the hip and back. He married Miss Lorna Porter, of Charlotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Porter. He will be given a military funeral Monday afternoon.

THE REMEDY THAT CURES.

It is interesting to note that a Federal Court judge in Savannah, Ga., has fined 24 men from $500 to $10,000, each for breaking the liquor laws and sentenced them from one to two years in the penitentiary.

COTTON CONSUMPTION DECREASES.

According to figures just announced by the census bureau, there was a decrease in cotton consumption in November as compared with October. The figures announced by the bureau also show that cotton consumption in November of this year was less than the consumption in the corresponding month of last year.

THE TRAGEDY OF THE AGE.

The Charlotte News under the above caption says editorially: An exchange, writing under this caption, thinks that the greatest tragedy of the age is not the crime wave that is sweeping through the country, not the wickedness that prevails in the high places, not the flagrant violations of the Volstead act, not the laxity with which children are being reared, not the liberties and licenses which the young people are being allowed, and which are being largely sanctioned by those who ought to know better, but it believes the tragedy of the age to be the divorce which has come about between fathers and sons.

THE COMMISSIONER IS RIGHT.

When Corporation Commissioner, Pell recently attended a convention of railway and utilities commissioners in Miami, Fla., he ran across some astonishing figures regarding the expansion of North Carolina.

PENNY COLUMN

$1600 Income from 54-Acre Farm. With Equipment $1,000 Cash. High healthful location, close RR station; many prospects; neighbors, schools, stores, churches; 30 acres loamy tillage for tobacco, corn, wheat, vegetables, pasture, woodlot; apples, peaches, pears, plums, cherries; comfortable home, barn, granary, tobacco barn. Low price $2,700, includes cow, full implements, tools, corn, wheat, truck, hay, straw, hound dog, etc. included if taken now. Only $1,000 needed. E. A. Strout, Development Bldg., Lexington, N. C. Dec. 17 & 20.

WOMAN DISAPPEARS FROM HER YADKIN COUNTY HOME.

Mrs. Wooten Had Been Notified That She Was to Be Sent to Asylum at Morganton. Winston-Salem, Dec. 13.—Relatives are seeking the whereabouts of Mrs. Myrtle Wooten, who mysteriously disappeared from the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Rutledge, near Courthouse, Yadkin county, with whom the daughter lived.

Way of the Transgressor Is Hard.

Fred Long, a young married man, is no doubt, convinced that "the way of the transgressor is hard." He was convicted in the county court Wednesday morning for violating the law against immorality, and was sentenced to serve four months on the county chain gang.

Great Praise For North Carolina.

The recent action of Governor Morrison, of North Carolina, in sending militia to Nashville, in that State, to protect a negro on trial there, charged with attacking a white woman, moved the County Commissioners of Nash county to express their disapproval. The Governor has promptly replied to his critics that he intends to use every power given to him by the Constitution of his State to prevent lynchings.

Pity the Lion.

It was rather a small circus and carried but one lion, one tiger, one elephant, and so on down the list. After the trainer had put the lion through his paces, an elderly lady appeared at the cage door and remarked: "Aren't you afraid that this ferocious beast will attempt to make a meal of you some day?"

Capt. Melvin G. Caldwell of Charlotte Dies on Sunday.

Charlotte, Dec. 16.—Captain Melvin Grimes Caldwell, son of the late Thomas E. Caldwell, and Mrs. Mamie Grimes Caldwell, died this morning after weeks of illness, the result of a wound received in the world war. He was at the officers' training camp at Oglethorpe, where he gained his first lieutenantcy. He was then detailed for service at Camp Greene, 3rd division, company F, 30th regiment. In March, 1918, he went to France and was injured in service there, by the bursting of a bomb, being struck in the hip and back. He married Miss Lorna Porter, of Charlotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Porter. He will be given a military funeral Monday afternoon.

THE REMEDY THAT CURES.

It is interesting to note that a Federal Court judge in Savannah, Ga., has fined 24 men from $500 to $10,000, each for breaking the liquor laws and sentenced them from one to two years in the penitentiary.

COTTON CONSUMPTION DECREASES.

According to figures just announced by the census bureau, there was a decrease in cotton consumption in November as compared with October. The figures announced by the bureau also show that cotton consumption in November of this year was less than the consumption in the corresponding month of last year.

THE TRAGEDY OF THE AGE.

The Charlotte News under the above caption says editorially: An exchange, writing under this caption, thinks that the greatest tragedy of the age is not the crime wave that is sweeping through the country, not the wickedness that prevails in the high places, not the flagrant violations of the Volstead act, not the laxity with which children are being reared, not the liberties and licenses which the young people are being allowed, and which are being largely sanctioned by those who ought to know better, but it believes the tragedy of the age to be the divorce which has come about between fathers and sons.

THE COMMISSIONER IS RIGHT.

When Corporation Commissioner, Pell recently attended a convention of railway and utilities commissioners in Miami, Fla., he ran across some astonishing figures regarding the expansion of North Carolina.

CONCORD COTTON MARKET

Table with 2 columns: Cotton, Cotton seed. Prices listed for various cotton products.

CONCORD PRODUCE MARKET

Table with 2 columns: Eggs, Butter, Country Ham, etc. Prices listed for various produce items.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1923

Table with 2 columns: Cotton, Cotton seed. Prices listed for various cotton products.

Land Deeds and Mortgage Trust Deeds

5 cents each, at Times and Tribune Office.