Stanly News-Herald: Mr. J. F. Cannon, of Concord, has made a donation of $50 to the Confederate monument fund. DEATH OF MISS SALLIE YOUNG Passes Away at Her Home in Charlotte After Two Days Illness.

Miss Sallie White Young died at her home on North Tryon Street in Charlotte, Thursday morning at 2 o'clock after an illness of two days.

Miss Young was born in Cabarrus county, near Concord, on June 14th, 1855, and was 68 years of age. She was a daughter of the late Major Robert Young, of Cabarrus, who was a distinguished officer in the Confederate army, and who was killed in action at Iron Bridge, near Petersburg, Va., July 9, 1864. His young son, Robert Phifer Young, a son by his first marriage, his mother being Louise Phifer, who was in his father's company, was also killed in action, being almost a lad.

Miss Young was a woman of the finest, highest type; a woman of splendid mind, fine judgment and discernment. She was a great reader. Mentally she lived in an atmosphere of rare purity and sweetness of thought. She judged no man but saw good in all. Her power of discernment was unusual. Her was a dignified nature and a very warm and loving nature. She was loved by a wide connection of relationship and hundreds of friends who recognized in her a noble true woman, says the Charlotte Observer.

Miss Young was also closely related to Mrs. J. M. Odell, and brother, Mr. John Phifer Allison, of this city, and was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Robert S. Young, all of whom will go to Charlotte to attend the funeral.

The funeral service was conducted at the residence Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Dr. A. A. McGeachy, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

Rev. S. White Rhyne, of Rocky Mount, spent Friday in Concord on business.

The cold snap has increased buying in the stores of this city. A number of merchants have declared early in the week that little winter buying had been done because there had been no winter weather, but today the stores are filled with customers, many of whom are buying winter necessities as well as Christmas presents. Business from now until after Christmas promises to be so good that most of the business houses will remain open at night until after Christmas Day.

Several Concord men, it is reported, have been stung recently by the son of a prominent man of an adjoining county who has asked that his checks be endorsed. Knowing the father of the young man the Concord men have endorsed the checks, which have always come back, and the father states that he has not seen his son for some time and is not responsible for his checks. One man who was stung for $22.50 made the facts known, stating that his experience might keep some one else from being taken in.

Good Cheer—Good Cheer. A little laughter and a little play makes everyone more fit for the serious things in life.

The Y physical department is spreading its activities rapidly and not only seeing that there is plenty of fun, exercise, games and good sportsmanship at the Y but is taking in all the schools.

Very soon the physical director wants to secure athletic equipment for all the school grounds and to promote teams, leagues, games, etc., for every boy and girl in the Concord schools, white or black.

Without much expense every school can have at least six volley ball courts, balls and nets. The colored schools can have at least two, with this equipment and a few added sports there will be something for every pupil to do at recess time. The organization of class and team competition will promote responsibility on the part of the pupils and will bring out many athletic leaders as well as natural leaders fitted for leadership in other lines of work. In athletics an athletic leader, a good sportsman can always be depended upon to get results in a decided and fair way in most any walk of life.

No. 2 school has already accepted the idea and the first step taken has been the organization of a play ground ball league. The ground has been prepared and the championship ward will be given to the winners of the first and second half honors. Real interest has been aroused and the boys are in fine fettle for the league to start. Barber, one of the pupils at No. 2, has charge of the organization of these teams and with several other leaders to help him he can get some real activities over at No. 2.

Each team will play every other day and the scores for championship will be kept from the opening of school in January. A silver cup will be awarded the winning team and the names of the team winning will be engraved on the cup.

Mrs. A. P. White, of Boise City, Idaho, is expected to arrive in Concord to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. W. M. Weddington.

"Some time ago, I was very irregular," writes Mrs. Cora Robie, of Pikeville, Ky. "I suffered a great deal, and knew I must do something for this condition.
