AMERICANS WASTEFUL.

Anton Lang, the Christus of Oberamun, was asked his opinion of Americans several days ago. He did not criticize the flapper, our mode of dress or other conditions that have been pointed out by certain foreigners who were seeking publicity.

The Charlotte Observer finds that North Carolina is spending this year over $4,000,000 educating its negro boys and girls. Of this total about one-half will go in salaries to negro teachers who will be in charge of the educational work for the colored race.

THE MONUMENT FOR WOODROW WILSON.

Breckenridge Long, who served at Washington during the administration of Woodrow Wilson, believes that some day the people of America will erect to the memory of Mr. Wilson a "monument higher than Washington's and wider than Lincoln's."

THE TURNIP KING OF CABARRUS.
