CLUB DANCE LARGEST OF THE SEASON Several Hundred Persons Present For Dance Given in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Cannon. Several hundred persons attended the dance given at the Merchants and Manufacturers Club Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Cannon, who recently moved to Charlotte. The assemblage was a brilliant and prominent one and in addition to the 75 dancers present there were several hundred members and friends of the club in the vast concourse that filled the dance hall from the beginning until the end of the dance. Dancing began at 9 o'clock and continued until after one o'clock. The dance was by far the largest of the Christmas season in Concord. The popularity of the honorees and the pleasure that has always attended dances given by the club accounted for the presence of so many dancers and spectators. The dance hall was profusely and beautifully decorated for the dance. Christmas decorations predominated. Attractive favors were given to the dancers during several dances and punch was served to those present during the entire evening. The dance was given as a tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Cannon, the former having served as the club president since the club was organized here several years ago. Negre Killed by Train. An unknown negro man, believed to have been a bobo, was killed by a Southern freight train near the passenger station at Harrisburg some time Friday night. The body was discovered about 4 o'clock Saturday morning by the agent at Harrisburg who communicated af once with Sheriff Caldwell and Coroner Hartsell. According to reports reaching the

CLUB DANCE LARGEST OF THE SEASON Several Hundred Persons Present For Dance Given in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Camnon. Several hundred persons attended the dance given at the Merchants and Man- ufacturers Club Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Cannon, who recent- ly moved to Charlotte. The assemblage was a brilliant and prominent one and in addition to the 75 dancers present there were several hundred members and friends of the club in the vast concourse that filled the dance hall from the beginning until the end of the dance. Dancing began at 9 o'clock and continued until after one o'clock. The dance was by far the largest of the Christmas season in Concord. The popularity of the honorees and the pleas- tre that has always attended dances giv- en by the club accounted for the presence of so many dancers and spectators. The dance hall was profusely and heautifully decorated for the dance. Christmas decorations predominated. At- tractive favors were given to the dances curing several dances and punch was served to those present during the en- tire evening. The dance was given as a tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Cannon, the former having served as the club president since the club was organized here several years ago. Negro Killed by Train. An unknown negro man, believed to have been a bobo, was killed by a South- ern freight train near the passenger sta- tion at Harrisburg some time Friday night. The body was discovered about 4 o'clock Saturday morning by the agent at Harrisburg who communicated af once with Sheriff Caldwell and Coroner Hat- sell. According to reports reaching the city the body was found near the tracks a short distance north of the Harrisburg- station. The body was firown clear of the tracks and its position indicates that the body was thrown from the train and killed in the fall. Permission was granted the railroad company to move the body when an in- vestigation showed that the negro with- out doubt had been killed by a train. New Officers of 1. O. O. F. The following
