WORK ON THRIFT WEEK

The Executive Committee Has Full Attendance at Meeting—Much Enthusiasm Shown... The committee in charge of the Thrift Week met at the Y. M. C. A. and transacted much important business relative to Thrift Week.

Dr. S. W. Rankin, chairman of the committee, has called a general meeting of all the committees to meet Thursday night at 8 p. m.

Thousands of posters and literature will be given to merchants and others for display purposes.

Many merchants are planning the biggest Thrift sales to usher the week in that Concord has ever had and thrifty people will find this a great week to lay up the special bargains that will be offered.

Hundreds of budget-books will be given away to those desiring them on Budget day.

An essay contest will be one of the features in the high school and a nice sum of gold will be awarded the winner.

There are rumors that several brass bands may invade Concord on the opening day.

Remember, you will get a lot out of Thrift Week if you put something into it.

The Publicity Committee will be at the Service of all to look after advertising and general publicity.

Mr. Heglar Hurt by a Bull... Mr. W. H. Heglar, mail carrier on Route 6, from Concord is nursing a dislocated shoulder and several broken ribs, as the result of an encounter on Tuesday with a register bull at his home near this city.

The animal made a fierce attack on Mr. Heglar, in spite of the fact that another man with a pitch fork was doing everything in his power to cause it to desist from the attack.

The fact that the animal had been dehorned is probably the only thing that saved Mr. Heglar's life.

Mr. Heglar is able to be out again today, and is improving from his injuries.

Epworth Comrade Class... The Comrade Class of Epworth Church held its regular monthly meeting with Mrs. Z. B. Reading on Kerr street Tuesday evening.

Plans for the coming year were made and the class is praying to do more than it has ever done.

We want the co-operation of every member present at the next meeting.

After the business meeting a social hour was spent and refreshments were served, which was enjoyed very much by all present.

Go to the "Y" This Evening... Remember there is a whole armful of great big laughs for those that come up to the "Y" this evening at 8:15 o'clock to witness the business men's team of Concord battle with the Kannapolis "Y" volleyball team.

Captain S. W. Rankin announces that there will be two games and that the public will have an opportunity to witness two fast games.

Program of Epworth League Union... Following are the main features of a program to be rendered by the Concord-Kannapolis Mt. Olive League Union at the Methodist Church in Kannapolis tomorrow (Friday) night, beginning at 7:45.

After special music followed by devotions and a short business session a Bible Story Telling Contest will be held. No story will exceed five minutes in length. But one representative from any chapter.

Take Notice, Ye Basketball Fans... The local "Y" has arranged a big game to be played on the local gym floor Friday evening with the strong aggregation from Charlotte.

See the big game.

Rotary Club Meeting... Thrift Week Was Subject of Discussion—Speakers Emphasize Its Importance... Thrift was the subject of the regular meeting of the Concord Rotary Club at its regular weekly meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday.

President Rankin presided and Wayne Blanks, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., which is planning the Thrift Week campaign for Concord, was program chairman.

Guests introduced were: W. L. Bell, by Leslie Bell; P. E. King, by A. S. Webb, and Dr. William Branson, by W. R. Odell.

The program committee announced the next meeting of the club would be in charge of the business affairs committee, F. C. Niblock, chairman.

The meeting two weeks hence will be in charge of a committee composed of J. T. Hartsell, chairman; F. C. Niblock and W. R. Odell and the program will be arranged as a farewell for Martin J. Cannon, who recently moved to Charlotte.

Wayne Blanks opened the program by a brief talk on the proposed Thrift Week campaign. He declared the campaign would be of untold value to Concord and outlined the plans that had been made for conducting it.

Other interesting talks on the Thrift campaign were made by F. C. Niblock, Arthur Odell, Maury Richmond and C. F. Ritchie.

All of the speakers emphasized the importance of the coming campaign and pledged their support toward making it a success.

Following several songs under the leadership of Price Doyle, the meeting adjourned.

Kannapolis Defeats the B. V. D. From Erlanger... Kannapolis defeated the strong basketball team from Erlanger there Wednesday night by the score of 44 to 34.

This was one of the most exciting games witnessed on this floor this season. Kannapolis would forge ahead, then Erlanger would come ahead and it was just a nip and tuck game all the way through.

Both teams put up a hard fight and every fellow was in to win.

Koontz, Flowe and L. Gilliam were the outstanding stars for the home team. Koontz leading with seven field goals, Gilliam with six and Flowe with five field goals and four free shots all five good.

Leonard for Erlanger, was the outstanding star of their team, getting eight field goals while Everhart, his running mate, registered up four field goals.

The teams play again on Friday night at Erlanger.

Lutheran Educational Board Meets... The board for Educational Institutions of the United Evangelical Lutheran Church of North Carolina, met here yesterday and adopted plans for securing funds to enlarge the plant at the Collegiate Institute at Mt. Pleasant.

The plans call for a new dormitory, enlarged heating plant and enlarge water system and enlarged laboratory. The school at the Institute has more than outgrown its quarters and larger equipment for the school is an imperative necessity.

The work that should be done by the school cannot be done with the present equipment and it is the intention of the entire board that more adequate equipment shall be provided at the earliest possible date.

Take Notice, Ye Basketball Fans... The local "Y" has arranged a big game to be played on the local gym floor Friday evening with the strong aggregation from Charlotte.
