

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

MRS. CLARK HOTELL, SR. GUEST CHARMING PARTIES

Mrs. Howell, Much-Feted New Member of Atlanta Society, Is Native of Concord.

Mrs. Howell was formerly Miss Margaret Cannon, of Concord and is a daughter of Mrs. J. W. Cannon, of this city. Since her marriage to Mr. Howell in April she has been entertained extensively by Atlanta society.

The following is from The Atlanta Constitution:

"Mrs. Price Gilbert's luncheon Wednesday at the Piedmont Driving Club was given in compliment to Mrs. Clark Howell, Sr., and Mrs. Francis. The latter recently returned from Europe where she spent the past four months. The clubhouse was decorated with palms and ferns. Exquisite cut flowers filling silver baskets and vases were arranged on the mantels and console tables. Luncheon was served in the main dining room and around the side of the walls were banked palms and wall baskets filled with Easter lilies and trailing vines of Dorothy Perkins roses.

"The round table was overlaid with a cover of real lace and adorning the center was a French wicker basket filled with madonna lilies and Dorothy Perkins roses. Placed at either side of the central decoration was a gold French basket holding white and pink American beauty roses. Silver compotes were placed at intervals filled with Dresden shade mints, dipped grapes and cherries.

"Mrs. Gilbert wore a handsome gown of deep cream embroidered batiste and real lace over black satin finished with black and gold shawl. Her hat of black was trimmed in gold meline and burnt goose.

"Mrs. Howell was gowned in brown satin, combined with bands of hand-embroidered batiste and her gold-colored hat was trimmed in a single yellow rose and a brown lace veil.

"Mrs. Block wore a gown of blue crepe combined with lace and her hat was of orchid meline faced with black lace, and trimmed with lace.

"Mrs. Ada Watts, of Columbus, who assisted in receiving, wore a gown of black chiffon, and her black hat was trimmed with small lavender flowers."

MISS PRATHER NAMED DEMONSTRATION AGENT

Former Concord School Teacher Takes up Work in South Carolina.

The following story from Sunday's Columbia (S. C.) State, will be read with interest here, where Miss Prather taught school for several years:

"Mrs. S. O. Plowden, district agent of the home demonstration and girls' club work, announces the appointment of a new agent for Lee county in a memorandum to The State as follows:

"Miss Ora Prather, of Charlotte, has been appointed home demonstration agent for Lee county, to fill the vacancy occurring by the resignation of Miss Jane Ketchen. Miss Ketchen leaves the county to attend Peabody, where she will spend the summer in study preparatory to work as a specialist on the state home demonstration staff. She has done a splendid piece of work in this county and built up a strong organization of women and girls who are pursuing demonstration methods.

"The new agent, Miss Prather, comes to us well trained and experienced, having taught domestic science in the schools of Concord, N. C. She is a graduate of Bessie Tift College in Georgia and had special home economics courses at the University of Georgia and the Normal college in Asheville. The women and girls of the county are looking forward to more satisfactory work under her direction."

Luncheon Given Miss Bell

Mrs. C. J. Harris delightfully entertained at a luncheon Monday in honor of Miss Margaret Bell, who will be wedded to S. J. Ervin, Jr., of Morganton, this month. The living room and dining room were beautifully decorated with spring flowers.

During the afternoon the guests played bridge, there being four tables.

Mrs. Harris' guests were: Misses Bell, Margaret Virginia Ervin and guest, Mary O'Neil, of Rock Hill, S. C., Lucy Richmond Leutz, Ruth and Lois Crowell, Mary and Adele Pemberton, Helen Marsh, Miriam Morris, Francis Ridenhour, Elizabeth Woodhouse, Francis Jarrett, Elizabeth Black, Nell Herring, Mrs. Kenneth Caldwell, Mrs. Leslie Bell, Mrs. B. E. Harris, Jr., Mrs. C. W. Byrd, and Mrs. Victor Means.

Mrs. C. W. Byrd and Mrs. Victor Means assisted Mrs. Harris in serving the luncheon.

A Surprise Birthday Dinner

A surprise birthday dinner was given W. D. Bostian, who lives near Kannapolis, last Sunday. Mr. Bostian celebrated his sixty-third birthday. The occasion proved to be an entire surprise to him. On his return from Church he found the house and yard filled with his children, grand-children, neighbors and friends, making a total of seventy-one present. After every one had been greeted a large and tempting dinner was spread under one of the large oak trees in the yard.

Mr. Bostian received several useful presents. Late in the afternoon the guests departed, wishing Mr. Bostian many more such happy birthdays.

ONE PRESENT.

Garden Party Tuesday

The garden party which was given on the lawn of Mrs. B. F. Rogers, on Franklin avenue Tuesday afternoon by Miss Elizabeth Black and Mrs. W. H. Gorman, complimenting Miss Margaret Bell, who is to wed S. J. Ervin Jr., of Morganton, this month, was a most enjoyable affair. In spite of the grayness of the day, it was made bright by the little ballet girls dressed in pink and the guests in summer dresses and picture hats. Little Bo Peep presented Miss Bell with a book from Venice with unwritten pages on which she will write about her parties and her friends. Also a lovely handkerchief was given her.

Many Learn to Swim

Seventeen non-swimmers learned to swim across the pool at the Y. M. C. A. Monday, which was the first day of the free swimming campaign for all those who wish to learn. Eight learned Tuesday and several of the Monday pupils ventured into deeper water. Over a hundred have learned to take their first stroke this year and most of these are able to swim much better than those who learned by their own efforts two or three summers ago. Many have advanced to the deep waters and quite a few have taken to the diving board. The reason for this is that those who start in right progress rapidly while those who learn haphazardly often swim for many years without learning to do more than keep afloat. Among those who have learned this season who have been individually taught to swim the longest to learn took only twenty-five minutes and the shortest only two minutes. Come down and learn, it's easy, so easy that we only devote a few minutes to each pupil who earnestly desires to swim. After you learn there are the advanced classes where you can learn anything on up to the expert staff. Every man, woman, boy and girl should know how to swim and then every swimmer should be a life-saver; so while it is free take advantage of it. We teach them up to a hundred years old but cannot guarantee to learn any boy or girl under ten years old. Yet these youngsters can learn much by taking advantage of the classes held during this week; many of them will learn to swim.

From Fremont to Coolidge

Washington, D. C., June 10.—The Republican national convention which meets in Cleveland today is the eighteenth in the history of that party. In all but four of its seventeen campaigns the party has been successful. President Coolidge, former President Taft, and Charles E. Hughes, now Secretary of State, are the only nominees of Republican conventions now living.

If President Coolidge is re-nominated on the first ballot, as his friends predict, it will not be by any means the first time that this has happened in the Republican national convention. In the conventions held since Lincoln's time the balloting was as follows:

Year	Nominee	Number of Ballots
1860	Lincoln	3
1864	Lincoln	1
1868	Grant	1
1872	Grant	1
1876	Hayes	7
1880	Garfield	1
1884	Blaine	36
1888	Harrison	4
1892	Harrison	88
1896	McKinley	1
1900	McKinley	Acclamation
1904	Roosevelt	Acclamation
1908	Taft	1
1912	Taft	1
1916	Hughes	3
1920	Harding	10

Miss Vivian Walter Marries in New York

Kannapolis, June 9.—A telegram was received in Kannapolis today announcing the marriage in New York city of Miss Vivian Walter and R. M. Housel. The ceremony was performed in Holy Trinity Lutheran church, Sixty-fifth street and Central Park, by Rev. Paul E. Schuerer, D. D., at 1 o'clock on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Housel left New York immediately after the ceremony for a trip by boat to Savannah, Ga., and other southern cities.

Mrs. Housel, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walter, of Kannapolis, has been spending several months in Brooklyn as the guest of Miss Gladys Bradshaw. She is quite a pretty brunette and popular with a wide circle of friends here and elsewhere. Her marriage, though not unexpected, came as a distinct surprise to her home town friends today.

"Dancer's Heart" Is Newest Disease in London Circles

London, June 12.—One of the most fashionable complaints of the moment is "dancer's heart," according to advice from medical sources. The craze for dancing at all hours and at all times, between meals and between courses of meals, is having an effect on the most energetic. A visit to the doctor produces the advice: "You have dancer's heart. You are suffering from over-exhaustion. There is only one thing to do, rest for weeks and no more dancing for months."

According to the latest year book, the Congregationalists in the United States have 75 women who have been ordained as ministers, of whom 17 are in sole charge of churches.
