THE COTTON MARKET

Prices Had Another Upturn Today, With First Prices 14 to 51 Points Higher.

New York, July 24.-Cotton prices had another upturn today with transactions the for some time. It is in the October position on the call probably greater than at any time in the history of the exchange. First prices showed 14 to 51 points net advance, and after a little reaction the opening levels again were maintained, with July up to 35.30 and October to 29.50. Wall Street and commission houses were good buyers while New Orleans, the South, spot houses and old longs sold. Much of the buying was based on the idea that cotton in the southwest owing to continued hot weather, is going backward fast. Opening prices were: July 35.10 to 35.30; Oc. tober 29.20 to 29.50; December 28.25; January 28.10; March 28.30.

The "Wedding" of Two Towns

Bluefield, W. Va., was a city of 22,000 population. Just across the state line was the town of Graham, Va., with 8000 persons. The friendliest relations always have existed between the two municipalities. For years the two towns have wanted to be one. But owing to the fact they were in different states, there was a lot of red tape to unwind. They finally succeeded in untangling it al. And the other day they had a big "wedding." with Governor Morgan (left) of West Virginia and Governor Trinkle (right) of Virginia participating in the ceremonies at the old boundary line. An actual wedding, in which a young man from one town and a young woman from the other were married, tied the knot between the two towns man strongly. Now it is Bluefield-Graham. W. Va.-Va.
