

Negro Hunted For Days Captured Near Concord

Collins, Alleged Slayer of Chalmers Sedberry, Captured by Posse Near Georgetown Yesterday.

BOUGHT TO THIS CITY DURING DAY
Wagon Carried From City
Sheriff to Unknown Destination.—Negro Said to Have Confessed to Crime.

Collins, negro, was placed in the jail here yesterday afternoon after his arrest near Georgetown. He had been searching for eight days following the slaying of Chalmers Sedberry, popular leader of Anson county.

The experts will reassemble at 3 o'clock this afternoon to reconsider the proposal which are intended to reconcile the British and American bankers to the attitude of the conference delegates on defaults and sanctions under the Dawes plan. The experts express the hope that a complete agreement may be reached and submitted to the plenary session at 4 o'clock.

It is stated that the broad basis of the proposed settlement is a combination of the report which the experts have already made with the proposal of Premier Theunis of Belgium for calling in the members of the original Dawes committee before any action can be taken, either in declaring Germany in default or in applying the sanction for such default.

Proposal May Be Defeated.
London, July 28 (By the Associated Press).—The compromise proposals said to have been offered by the American representatives at the inter-allied conference which appear to have met with success earlier today, produced differences of opinion late this afternoon, which, it was said, would rule out the new plan as a possible solution of the difficulty.

CONSIDER ROOSEVELT AS DISTRICT MANAGER
May Be Asked to Manage the Democratic Campaign in Eastern District.
New York, July 28.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, who managed the campaign of Governor Alfred Smith for the Democratic Presidential nomination, is being strongly considered for manager of the Democratic campaign in the eastern section of the country, Chairman Shaver, of the Democratic national committee, said today.

BELIEVE DAVIS STRONG IN NEW ENGLAND STATES
Leaders There Want Him to Open His Campaign in New England Section.
Dark Harbor, Me., July 28.—Democratic leaders in New England desire John W. Davis, the party standard bearer, to open his campaign in this section of the country. They believe there is great prospect of swinging several New England states into the Democratic column, and that Mr. Davis' early appearance in the field will have a very good effect, especially in Maine, where the state election is to be held in September.

AMERICANS SUBMIT ANOTHER PROPOSAL

It Is Hoped This Proposal
Will Mean the Deadlock in Inter-Allied Conference
Can Be Broken Now.

London, July 28 (By the Associated Press).—New American proposals which both the French and British hope will break the deadlock in the inter-allied conference on the subject of security for the loan to Germany provided for in the Dawes report were made today during the meeting of the experts of the conference.

The experts will reassemble at 3 o'clock this afternoon to reconsider the proposal which are intended to reconcile the British and American bankers to the attitude of the conference delegates on defaults and sanctions under the Dawes plan. The experts express the hope that a complete agreement may be reached and submitted to the plenary session at 4 o'clock.

Davidson, 2,656; Mrs. Meriam Ferguson, 2,139; Adjutant General Barton, 511; V. A. Collins, 435; W. E. Pope, 326; Joe Burkett, 320; and George W. Dixon, 162.

CONCORD MUST AND SHALL HAVE THAT NEW HOTEL
The movement toward the erection of Concord's new hotel has recently gathered momentum and within the next few days the sale of stock will be renewed. Some time ago the hotel proposition was launched but owing to business conditions and to other drives which were going on in the city the matter was temporarily dropped. It was deemed wise at that time to postpone the canvass of possible stock purchasers. Now, however, with the promise of better business conditions, interest in the hotel is becoming more widespread.
