Pedestrians Slow Traffic.

Horse-drawn vehicles and slow-moving trucks should not be allowed on streets where passenger motor car traffic is On streets where slow-moving vehicles must necessarily impede progress of the faster moving cars, the slower vehicles should be made to hug the curb. Left hand turns are always instrumental in slowing up traffic. In many cities it would improve traffic conditions if cars were compelled to go to the right and around the block rather than make the modern picture faker that experts left-haund turns on streets like Fifth Avenue, New York.

Complete turns always block traffic. There again cars should be required to go around the block.

A study of traffic conditions on Fifth Avenue will satisfy any one that the biggest obstacle to the improvement of traffic conditions on the street is the failure of the pedestrian to observe traffic signals.
