

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Music Club Meets.

Quite a large crowd assembled at the lovely home of Mrs. C. F. Ritchie on South Union street Tuesday evening for the February meeting of the Music Department of the Woman's Club.

As special guests of the club were Miss Janie Klutz, the president of the Woman's Club, Mrs. Victor A. Means and Mrs. I. I. Davis, two of Concord's most accomplished and talented musicians, who favored the club with two beautiful piano duets, Mrs. W. W. Morris and Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Pemberton. In addition a large and representative portion of the membership was present to hear one of the best programs of the year.

Contrary to the usual order the program was rendered first after which business of importance to the club was transacted.

Miss Mary McLaughlin opened the program with two particularly attractive vocal solos, one a selection from Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman" and the other a tender little love song by Grieg.

Mrs. R. E. Ridenhour, Sr., then read the scenario of the opera "Tales of Hoffman," which is the story of three love affairs of Hoffman all of which ended unhappily.

Following this reading, Mrs. H. G. Gibson and Mrs. Nan Pickard sang the well known and ever popular "Barcarolle" from the "Tales of Hoffman."

Miss Mary McLaughlin next read the scenario of "Samson and Delilah" by Saint Saens, after which Mrs. Gibson sang "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," and another selection from that opera, and a "Wind Song" by Thomas. Mrs. Gibson's voice is always a delight to her hearers and she was more than usually in good singing voice on this occasion.

Mrs. I. I. Davis and Mrs. Victor Means closed the program with their beautiful duets "Semiramis," by Rossini, with William Tell Overture by Rossini as an encore number.

Mrs. Leslie Correll's accompaniments for the vocal numbers merit special commendation as they were rendered exceptionally well.

Following a business session at the close of the program the hostess served delightful refreshments to her guests.

Meeting of Virginia Dare Club.

An interesting meeting of the Virginia Dare Book Club was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. L. Marsh at her home on South Union Street.

During the meeting Mrs. W. D. Pemberton read an article she had recently written on the "Carolina Playmakers," and Mrs. N. A. Archibald read a paper on the inauguration of the different Presidents of the United States.

In addition to the club members Mrs. Marsh had as her guests her niece, Mrs. Bigley, of Marshville; Mrs. J. F. Goodson and Mrs. W. C. Houston.

After the business section refreshments were served.

Colonial Dames to Meet.

The Cabarrus county chapter of the Colonial Dames will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. T. Hartsell on Spring Street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fisher Celebrate Golden Wedding.

An affair of great interest in the community was the celebration this week of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Fisher at their home in Landis. Over one hundred relatives and friends were present. The arrangements for the celebration were made by Miss Anna Louise Miller and Fisher Miller, of Concord. James Klutz, of Concord, officiated at the ceremony and the invocation was made by Rev. Mr. Keller, pastor of the Reformed Church of Landis. Mrs. Henry Walker was chosen bridesmaid, and Squire C. A. Linn was best man. Music was furnished by Mesdames L. A. Corrier, Frank Albright, H. L. Efrid, Paul Schullenberg and Ed Flemming and Messrs J. P. O. L. and D. C. Linn. Paul Schullenberg, Ed Flemming and B. L. Umberger, of Concord. H. W. Jewell, of Salisbury, acted as toastmaster. C. F. Ritchie and Mr. Jewell gave interesting sketches of the families of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were presented with many attractive gifts. Pictures of the bride and groom in their courtship days were exhibited, and also a part of the trousseau of the bride of fifty years ago. In the dining room, where a delicious four-course luncheon was served, Valentine decorations were used. Those assisting in entertaining were Miss Lucy Pink, Miss Joe Gine, Mrs. Fink Beaker and Miss Grace Ballard, of Kannapolis, and Mrs. C. O. Life. A photograph was taken by Mr. Stone, of Salisbury.

A register of the guests was kept.

Gaither-Huffines.

Rocky Mount, Feb. 19.—Palms, Southern smilax and fragrant white lilies decorated the First Methodist church at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon for the wedding of Miss Carrie Louise Huffines, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Luther Huffines, and William Hayes Gaither, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gaither, of Elizabeth City. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church, Rev. Harry M. North, and Miss Louise Burton, of Nashville, presided at the organ. Mrs. Lewis S. Thorpe and Mrs. Rowland Williams, of Dunn, rendered the wedding music.

The bride wore a wedding dress of imported ivory lace over cell blue chiffon. Her hat was of blue georgette with French rosebud trimming and she carried an exquisite shower of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The maid of honor, Miss Josephine Huffines, wore a frock of orchid georgette with lace hat to match, and her flowers were pink roses and sweet peas. Mary Leigh Gaither, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Gaither, of Elizabeth City, was the flower girl. She wore a dainty frock of pale orchid georgette cloth rosebud trimmings and carried a basket of rose petals.

Earle Brown, of Concord, was best man and the groomsmen included William Whitehead, Isaac Thorpe, Robert Cotter, Elizabeth City; Curtis Baum, Elizabeth City; Albert Gard, Elizabeth City; Robert Huffines, Thomas Jolly, Meade Fields, Jr., Hertford.

The bridesmaids were Miss Louise Gather, Hertford; Miss Mary Will Daughtridge, Miss Mary Graves, Lynchburg, Va.; Miss Margaret Horne, Miss Julia Caudler, Dallas, Texas; Miss Helene Jeffreys. They wore dresses of blue georgette ruffled with cream and blue lace with blue hair braid hats with maline streamers. Their flowers were shower bouquets of roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Stanley Pierce was dame of honor and she wore orchid chiffon ruffled in real lace with hat of blue and lavender maline. Her flowers were the same as the bridesmaids.

Among the guests from a distance, attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gaither, Miss Helen Montgomery Gaither, Mr. and Mrs. Will G. Gaither, and daughter, Miss Mary Leigh Gaither, of Elizabeth City; Mrs. R. B. Crawford, R. B. Crawford, Jr., of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. G. Burnett Lewis, of Concord; Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Williams of Dunn; Miss Jennie Procter, Mrs. Frank Gooch, Miss Anne Cummings, of Raleigh; Mrs. Emerson Tucker, of Durham; Mrs. Dantford Joseph, of Elizabeth City; Mr. E. C. Wallace Huffines, of Hope Mills, and Miss Margaret Horne, Columbia University; Robert Huffines, Richard Thorpe, Chapel Hill.

Floral Club to Take Over Beautification of H. S. Grounds.

At a recent meeting of the Floral Club, it was decided to take as a specific piece of work for the year, helping to beautify the High School grounds. The matter was taken up with Mr. A. S. Webb, superintendent, and a blue print of the grounds secured from him, the blue print showing the exact place and kind of shrub to be used.

A list of the plants to be used is given below, and any one desiring to contribute plants from their own gardens kindly phone Mrs. Lester Coltrane, Jr., phone 126. A committee will see to the transplanting of the shrubs.

It is the desire of the club to follow explicitly the plans of the landscape architect, Mr. E. J. Draper.

Bush Arboretum, Japanese Laurel, Summer Lilac, Wilson's Barberry, Japan Spinee, Pink Dentzia, Obonster, Pearl Bush, Spindle Tree, Golden Bell, Hydrangea, Golden St. John's Wort, Jasmine, "Pitzers" Juniper, Globe Flower, English Laurel, Arnon River Priort, Evergreen Priort, Bush Honeysuckle, Purple Plum, Spiraea Reeves, Spirea Van Houttes, Bridal Wreath, Snow Garland, Arborvitae, Diecoillo, Adams Needie, Boston Ivy, English Ivy.

Party For Miss Drake.

Miss Georgia Drake and a number of her friends celebrated her sixteenth birthday anniversary at her home on Cedar street Saturday night. They played a number of games, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Drake, Major Lowder and Miss Georgia Drake, Clarence Fletcher and Miss Myrtle Cain, John Mauldin and Miss Lena Brantley, Albert Cain and Miss Annabel Little, Floyd Furr and Miss Pauline Starnes, Walter Jarvis and Miss Eva Doby, Willie Herlocker and Miss Lucile Starnes, Lindsay Lentz and Miss Veda Isley, Claude Lewis and Miss Zelma Little, Dick Armstrong and Miss Minnie Shoe, Jane Williams and Miss Emma Herlocker, Curtis Honeycutt and Miss Cloty Bulsby, Andrew Kellough and Miss Eula Burris, Tom Sapp and Miss Elizabeth Furr, Frank Furr and Miss Mildred Burris, Graham Davis, Coye Cox, Buford Steele, Pat Ellington, Edd Groff.

All present reported a nice time and departed wishing Miss Drake many happy returns of the day.

ONE PRESENT.

PERSONALS

W. D. Lyerly, of Charlotte, spent the day in the city on business.

Mrs. Luther Kestler and children, of Charlotte, are spending the week with Mrs. Ed Kestler.

Miss Hilda Correll, of Winchester, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. Brown.

Mrs. J. F. Hurley, of Salisbury, was the guest of Mrs. Richmond Reed Tuesday.

Misses Virginia Reed and Peaclope Cannon went to Salisbury yesterday to see the play, "Blossom Time."

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ervin have returned to their home after spending the week-end in Asheville with relatives.

Mrs. M. L. Buchanan is spending the week in Mt. Pleasant with Mrs. A. N. James.

Miss Mesie Little, of Charlotte, will arrive Thursday afternoon as the week-end guest of Misses Fay and Ruth Moore.

J. A. Cannon spent yesterday in Davidson, where he has gone to attend a meeting of the Trustees of that institution.

Dr. Frank O. Rogers left Tuesday for Little Rock, after spending several days here with his mother.

E. H. Thompson, of Jacksonville, was a visitor in Concord for a short while Tuesday, stopping over on his way to Baltimore to see his sister, Mrs. A. R. Howard.

Mrs. J. W. Hodges returned to her home at Davidson Monday after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. W. D. Harvey at her home, Morehead Place.

Elliott Clayton left Tuesday for Parterdale, Ga., where he will make his future home.

Joe Kestler and W. H. Ruth left Tuesday for Lynchburg, Va., on a business trip.

Misses Margaret Morrison, Pink Wilford and her guest, Elizabeth Lewis, Blanche Armfield, Blanche Dick, Mary Donald Smoot, Emily Weddington, and Mae Klutz, students of N. C. C. W., at Greensboro, returned Monday night to Greensboro, after spending the week-end with home folks.

Miss Jane White and her guests, Misses Mary Cloud, Charlia Austian and Louise Black, returned to Converse College Monday after spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. White.

Erwin Parnell, Jr., of Charlotte, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. W. C. Parnell.

Miss Margaret Hatreel and her guest, Miss Jesse Clark, of Leaksville, and Miss Frances Jarratt returned to Salem College Monday after spending the week-end with home folks.

J. B. Sherrill returned this morning from Raleigh, where he spent several days.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Marsh and guest, Mrs. Bailey, of Marshville, and Miss Helen Marsh went to Salisbury last night to see "Blossom Time."

The John J. Williams Stock Co. which is appearing here in the old Eldred store building, Moose Theatre, will present tonight "The Unwanted Child."

Misses Sudela Frick and Margie McEachern and Eb. White attended the play "Blossom Time," which was given last night in Salisbury.

Stanly News-Herald: Mrs. W. B. Pannill and children Buster and Evelyn, spent the week-end in Concord with Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cannon, Miriam Morris, Penelope Cannon, John Oglesby and Gettys Gulle motored to Salisbury last night to see the performance of "Blossom Time," which was given in that city.

J. A. Cannon and George S. Klutz left this morning for Fayetteville, where they will spend several days on business.

Miss Helen Marsh and Thomas Webb motored to Salisbury last night to see "Blossom Time."

Mrs. W. E. Swinson and Mrs. C. M. C. Barger, of Salisbury, spent Wednesday in Charlotte.

The condition of Miss Maude Goodman, who is ill at her home with pneumonia is very satisfactory.

Concert at Landis Friday.

A concert by Community Talent will be given in the Landis High School Auditorium Friday evening, February 27th, at 8 o'clock.

Vocal solos and quartets, piano solos and ensemble, violin and flute solos, recital readings and the Landis High School Club are included in the varied program. Of special interest will be the appearance of Salisbury's eleven-year-old violinist, Jane Ulmer, who is the talented pupil of Don Richardson, Charlotte.

This innovation in the musical life of the community is being promoted by J. D. Tickle, superintendent of the Landis School, and Miss Ada Stirewalt, of China Grove.

Find Dead Body of Geo. E. Fields.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Feb. 24.—Geo. E. Fields, aged 50, of Hertford, today was found dead in his home. The top of his head had been blown off, and by his side was a shot gun. He recently lost his position with a railroad.

HOME AGENTS MEET IN TWO-DAY CONFERENCE

Seventeen Counties to Be Represented in Clothing Methods Meet Next Week.

Seventeen home demonstration agents—an exceedingly charming levy, Miss Martha Creighton, district agent, avers—are billed to attend a two-day conference in Charlotte Tuesday and Wednesday, March 3rd and 4th, at the district office in the federal building.

The conference will be with Miss Estabrook, the State's new clothing demonstrator, who will confer with the agents of the nearby counties on methods in presenting to the several communities ideas as to the department's year campaign.

Later in the year Miss Estabrook will give individual attention to the counties who arrange for clothing demonstrations. The Mecklenburg farm women have already made tentative arrangements for her appearance here for a short period.

Among the visitors to be here is Mrs. Cornelia Morris, of Henderson, central district agent.

Others to attend are Misses Edna Rinehardt, of Alamance county; Myrtle Keller, Rockingham; Addie Houston, of Guilford; Marian Swain, Scotland; Alice McQueen, Forsyth; Elizabeth Cornelius, Davidson; Edna Edwards, Rowan; Lillian Cole, Cabarrus; Anna Rowe, Charlotte; Nell Picketts, Gaston; Marjorie Holmes, Stanly; Miss Bertha Profit, Mecklenburg; Mrs. A. L. Harris, Richmond; Mrs. Irma Wallace, Cleveland; Mrs. Rossford Redfern, Anson.

Mrs. Rosa Austin Dead at Home in Number Ten Township.

Mrs. Rosa Austin, 90 years of age, died at the home of her son, M. H. Austin last night after an illness of less than a week. Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Howell's church, Rev. M. D. L. Pressard officiating.

Mrs. Austin was a native of Union County, having been born and reared there. All of the early part of her married life was spent in that county. It has only been during the last fifteen years that she moved to Cabarrus county to make her home with her son in No. 10 Township.

Death was caused by an attack of flu, which was followed by complications resulting in pneumonia. Mrs. Austin was the daughter of Pleasant and Elizabeth Gaddy of Union county. Her brothers and sisters have moved West and relatives are unable to communicate with them.

Surviving are two sons, M. H. Austin, of No. 10 township and J. W. Austin, of New London. There are five grandchildren.

Johnson Starts Again.

Hot Springs, Ark., Feb. 23.—Walter Johnson joined the Washington squads here today. Manager Stanley Harris said the veteran pitcher and the Washington club had agreed to terms by wire and that there was no further doubt as to Johnson being a member of the Senators' mound staff during the coming pennant campaign.

Kangaroos outnumber sheep two to one in the Australian northwest where they are proving a nuisance.

PARKS-BELK CO.

NATURALLY CURLY HAIR

A Permanent Wave by the Lanoil Process means the transforming of the straightest, lankiest hair—hair which otherwise needs curling daily into naturally curly hair. You may shampoo it, use hair treatments of any kind, go out in the rain, brush and comb it as much as you like, and yet have curly hair just as if you were born with it.

WHOLE HEAD $20.00
HALF HEAD, $10.00

WE MAKE HAIR SWITCHES

Phone 892, Listed as A. Henry's Beauty Shop

We are showing a beautiful line of Curtain Materials and Drapery. Also Ruffled Curtains.

Look at Our Big Window and See the Materials We Are Showing

Nets and Marquisette Special 10c yd to $1.48
Cretonnes, Special 15c to 69c yd.
Ruffled Curtains 89c to $2.48 a pair
Draperies, All Colors, 19c to $1.48 pair

When You Shop at Parks-Belk Co., the Whole World Is Your Market

PARKS-BELK CO.

WE SELL IT FOR LESS FOR CASH

Phones 138--608

Concord, N. C.

The ship is sailing direct to Bell & Harris with the best stock of Iron Beds you'll ever have an opportunity to buy for the money.

Solid Car Load Just in. Beds Galore. Finished in White, Vernis Martin, Oxidized, Blue, Oak, Mahogany and Walnut. Priced $7.50, $9.50, $10.00, $12.50, $15.00, $18.50.

COME GET OUR PRICES BEFORE YOU BUY

BELL-HARRIS FURNITURE CO.

The Store That Satisfies

LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. R. K. Black, who has been ill for several days, is improved and is now able to be out.

Jack Hodson, after having been confined to his bed for over two months on account of rheumatism, is again able to be out.

Mary McKay, daughter of Mrs. J. L. is confined to her home on North Spring Street by illness. Her condition today is reported as greatly improved.

Raymond Klutz and George Klutz, Jr., sons of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Klutz, are confined to their home with mumps.

Ellen Lewis, Sherrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sherrill, is able to be up again after being confined to her bed for a week with bronchitis.

Pythagoras will be present at the Pythian Home-Coming on Friday evening, and give the members and visitors the benefit of his experience.

Mrs. Emma Griffin is confined to her home on South Spring street by illness. Her condition is reported as being unchanged.

Marriage license was issued yesterday by Register of Deeds Elliott to W. C. DeJarnette and Miss Mollie Dorton, both of Concord Route No. 7.

Charles N. Cox has sold to W. E. Philmont property in No. 11 township for $100, according to a deed filed yesterday with the register of deeds. Another deed filed yesterday records the sale of two lots in Ward 2 by R. M. Edsel to J. C. Burdage for $225.

The Chas. E. Buck tourist party will be in Concord Friday to present the "Picture Stories of American Wonders," at the Y. M. C. A. at 7:15. Mr. and Mrs. Buck will exhibit all of their equipment used on their 30,000 mile journey.

Mrs. Sallie Ferguson is seriously ill at her home on Georgia avenue with pneumonia. There is no change reported in her condition. Her daughters, Miss Annie Ferguson, of Dr. Long's Hospital in Statesville, and Mrs. J. F. Sossamon, of Kannapolis, are here.

Police officers this morning reported that a number of cases are on docket for trial in re-order's court this afternoon. Most of the cases have been continued from former sessions of the court although a few of them developed since the last session of the court was held Monday.

The regular Y. M. C. A. weekly movies will be shown on Friday night this week, instead of Saturday. These pictures will be shown after Mr. and Mrs. Buck finish their entertainment featuring "Picture Stories of American Wonders." Special music will accompany the picture.

A number of the rural schools have begun in earnest to get up products for exhibition at the county fair this year. It appears now that very creditable exhibits will be offered at the fair and many children will vie for the prizes that will be offered. This will be the first year prizes have been offered for the exhibits.

Stanly News-Herald: Albemarle is to have a branch of The Penney store. A deal has been closed with a local real estate owner and the contract let for the erection of a large, single story brick building on West Main Street to be occupied by the new department store. The Penney store will be opened here within the next four or five days.

Cold weather warnings have been issued by the federal weather bureau, announcement stating that the cold will arrive within the next 24 hours. There has been a change in the weather here already, and last night it became much colder than yesterday. Still colder weather prospect for tonight and Friday.

Officers of Company E received a telegram this week advising them that change has been made in the composition of the local company. National guard and regular army. The inspection will be held in the morning here Saturday afternoon and Major Kenneth Caldwell, general of the troops of the State, is one of the officers making the inspection.

Honest 27 Years Later. Mount Carmel, Pa., Feb. 24.—Mer Mount Carmel man, at present in Pittsburgh, whose name was disclosed, sent David Hughes, a check for $1 in payment for a melon stolen from in front of the 27 years ago. Hughes remembered the incident, and the dollar was turned over to the Holiness Christian Church of which the former resident was a member.

Among certain sects in America, a customary to bury with the deceased bottles which held the medicine used the last illness.

