MISS HARRISON AGAIN OFFICERS GUARDING TRIES TO CROSS CHANNEL Started From Cape Gris Nez Shortly After Noon .- Weather Not So Favorable. HOSPITAL WHERE 2 Boulogne, France. Aug. 10 .- Miss Lillian Harrison, Argentine girl swimmer, has begun her fourth attempt to swim the English Channel, starting from Cape Gris Nez at 12:12 o'clock this after-Miss Harrison struck out firmly, swim-ning with a strong breast at a gait of about twenty-five to the minute, which she expects to maintain throughout. The weather was becoming cloudy and there was a slight breeze from the north when she started. 'The sea, however, was very calm. When Miss Harrison was a little more than a mile from shore a storm broke, with heavy rain falling. The wind was increasing with some whitecaps showing. Conditions were steadily growing worse.

Miss Gertrude Ederle, the American girl, who will attempt the channel swim next week, and Miss Viet, of the American Woman's Swimming Association, watcher Miss Harrison start from the cliffqs under the lighthouse at Gris, Nez, but did not accompany the swimmer or the tug.

"It will be my turn next week,' said Miss Ederle, "and it can't come too quick. I am rather tired of this suspense. This is the third time Miss Harrison has begun an attempt to swim the channel in day time, and she told the Associated Press correspondent that it was much less trying to start with several thousand people lining the cliffs cheering her than to steal out in the middle of the night by the flickering light of a lan-
