Miss Ervin Gives Buffet Supper. One of the loveliest parties in the series being given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Young, of Cleveland, Ohio, was the buffet supper of Miss Margaret Virginia Ervin on Tuesday evening. Spring flowers were used profusely throughout the home with yellow flowers predominating in the dining room. Mrs. R. S. Young and Mrs. Stanton Northrup presided over the dining room table, which was lovely with its yellow candles and bowl of beautiful evergreen jonquils.

Miss Ervin's invited guests were: Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Young, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Hartsell, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Hartsell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Harris, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ervin and Mr. and Mrs. A. Jones York, and Messrs. R. S. Young, Stanton Northrup, and Misses Elizabeth Smith, Lucy Richmond Lentz, Adelaide Harris, and William Morris, Gettis Guillie, Miles Wolf, Tom Webb and L. M. Richmond.

The Julia Magruder Book Club. Mrs. R. P. Gibson was hostess to the Julia Magruder Book Club Tuesday afternoon at her home on South Union street. Bowls of pink carnations and narcissus were used in all the rooms.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. C. Gibson, who has been president of the Julia Magruder Club since its organization.

After the short business session, the program was devoted to sketches of George Washington's life, many interesting anecdotes being given of the famous president and general.

Mrs. Nells Gron was a special guest of the club.

Mrs. Gibson served a delectable salad course to her guests who were: Mesdames Gron, C. J. Harris, J. C. Gibson, L. T. Hartsell, Sr., L. T. Hartsell, Jr., A. Jones York, W. J. Burns, J. Leonard Brown, L. D. Coltrane and Mrs. George Patterson.

Recital Attracted Large Audience. Quite a large and appreciative audience heard the recital given Monday evening in the high school auditorium by the members of the expression class conducted here by Miss Delma Hersperger.

In addition to the Concord pupils, several numbers were splendidly rendered by Kannapolis pupils, and a number of Kannapolis persons were present.

The various numbers were well received, the children showing excellent training.

In addition to the students, there were numbers by Dorothy Mallard, Charlotte dancer, and Ruth Martin and Bob Smith, violinists, and Anna Stantfer, pianist.

Musical numbers at the recital were especially pleasing and Miss Mallard was generously applauded after her dances.

Ushers assisting were Misses Mary Cannon, Ruth Dayvault, Mildred Ward, Mrs. W. L. Burns and Brown Lee Goodman.

P. T. A. MEETING

Central Association Held One of the Most Interesting Meetings of the Year Tuesday Afternoon.

The Central Parent-Teachers' Association held one of the most interesting and helpful meetings of the year Tuesday afternoon at the school building.

Miss Mary King gave most encouraging reports of the success of a project recently undertaken by the welfare department of the Women's Club, endorsed and aided by the association. This worthy project is the provision of nourishing hot chocolate or soup to supplement the cold lunches of children who live too far from school to go home for warm dinner.

The project of providing milk for undernourished children has been successfully carried on for the past few years, and a fund is maintained constantly for that purpose.

Miss King also told of the splendid work recently begun by the city health department in some of the schools, in the holding of "nutrition classes." This work grew out of a recent visit to our city of Miss Theresa Danahill, of the State health department. It is planned to observe "Book Week" the first week in March, at which time parents, or interested persons, are requested to give books to the school library, or the money wherewith to purchase books. It is desired that these books will be selected from a carefully compiled list of books that are especially good for and interesting to children. This list will be made public very soon.

Mrs. Laura Leslie Ross read a highly interesting and thought-provoking article on "How to Know a Really Healthy Child." Mrs. F. J. Hayward then read of an excellent program of health education now being carried out in the schools of Newton, Mass.

It was decided that the next meeting, to be held March 16th, would be devoted to a program in memory of Miss Constance Clinie, who gave so many years of devoted, loyal service to our schools, was so active an officer in our organization, and was so universally beloved in our city. All the other Parent-Teachers' Associations of the city are asked to join in that meeting, and it is hoped that a large number will be present.

FISHER-ARMOUR CO. IS SOLD BY CONCORD MAN

Kannapolis Store Purchased by R. M. and M. H. Cochrane and Will Open Saturday.

Announcement is made here today of the sale of Fisher-Armour Co. of Kannapolis, by Julius Fisher to R. M. and M. H. Cochrane.

The change in management became effective today but the store will not be opened until Saturday morning. During the week inventory of the stock will be taken and changes made to the interior of the store building.

R. M. Cochrane has been with Fisher's here for the past two and a half years and his brother recently moved here from West Palm Beach, Fla. Their store, to be known as Cochrane Bros. Co. will handle ladies-to-wear, millinery, dress goods and shoes.

D. E. McEachern, who has been with the Fisher-Armour Co. for the past year, succeeds Mr. Cochrane as Fisher's here.

The sale price was not announced by the interested parties.

Farewell Tea For Mrs. Cannon. Mrs. R. E. Jones and Miss Jenn Coltrane entertained a few friends on Tuesday afternoon in honor of their sister, Mrs. C. A. Cannon, who leaves Thursday for Panama.

Tea was served informally in the living room, which was lovely with spring flowers.

MILBANK MEMORIAL FUND OFFICERS COMING HERE

Will Pay Visit to County Health Department in Swing Through the South.

Dr. S. E. Buchanan, county health officer, has been advised that several officers of the Milbank Memorial fund commission, plan to visit Concord Saturday to see how the county health department is conducted.

The following letter explains the purpose of the visit: Dr. S. E. Buchanan, County Health Officer, Concord, N. C. Dear Sir:

In order to look in on health department practice in various municipalities and counties in several midwestern and southern states, Mr. John A. Kingsbury, secretary of the Milbank Memorial Fund, and myself are arranging a tour. We expect to visit your department on or about February 20th.

The Milbank Memorial Fund, as you no doubt know, is interested in health work, and is at this time assisting, by substantial grants, health demonstrations in Cattaraugus county, New York, in Syracuse, New York and in New York City.

I would appreciate it very much if you would indicate to me whether or not the time specified for our visit is convenient to you.

Yours very truly, S. A. DOUGLASS, County Health Officer and Director of Demonstration.

The Milbank Fund was created several years ago for medical work and experiments, especially in rural sections of New York State.

American Legion Auxiliary Gives Parties.

A delightful series of bridge parties were those given on Tuesday afternoon and night by the American Legion Auxiliary members as benefits for their nurses' ward at Otten.

Although the crowd was small in the afternoon, at night the Merchants and Manufacturers Club rooms were comfortably filled.

Delicious frozen salad with tea was served at both affairs.

In the afternoon Mrs. C. W. Byrd won the prize, a delicious box of Whitman's candy.
