SENATE AS COURT

Hears the Impeachment Trial Brought Against Federal Judge English by the House.

Washington, May 3 .- (AP)-For the first time in years, and one of the first times in history, the Senate today transformed itself into a trial court to decide an impeachment case brought Federal Judge George W. English, of Illinois, accused of manipulation of bankruptcy cases, assumption of undue authority, and other misdemeanors, was brought to the bar of the court and entered a detailed denial of deci- the indictments.

The case will rest in that status for the present. The next step will be the filing of a rejoinder by the House. The trial date is yet to be selected.

Facing almost the full membership of the Senate, and with crowded galleries looking down, Judge English presented through counsel denial which was read by a Senate official from a place on the Vice President's dais. Many members of the House also were present.

By previous order the Senate formally ceased to be a legislative body at 12:30 p. m. and at the stroke of the gavel became instead a court of
