WATER IN ABUNDANCE

If in the early morning you are awakened from your rest by a noise that sounds as though the house is falling in and upon rising you go to the boys' room, peeping in to find them in the middle of the bed pounding each other over the head with pillows-the feathers flying over the room and you are afraid to speak for fear the bed will col-lapse before they can be stopped—just think for a moment, and if you remember that the bed is of "CONTI-NENTAL QUALITY" you may just close the door gent-ly, and with a smile return to your rest as it will be just as rigid when the fight is over.

Yes, two more carloads just arrived last week-one of "CONTINENTAL QUALITY" and one of TATE. The bed room furniture built to last.
