

ANIZED AT ST. CHURCH

of Central Methodist Church would join together in a Wesley Brotherhood. The officers elected were: J. Lee Crowell, Jr., president; A. S. Webb, vice president; Robert E. Jones, treasurer, and Albert Eogle, secretary.

Proceeding the address by Mr. Barnett, the ladies of the church served a delicious banquet. Supper to a large number of men that were present, following the invocation given by Rev. R. M. Courtney. D. B. Cole, chairman of the board of stewards, presided over the meeting.

A rising vote of thanks was given the ladies for the excellent supper served.

After dinner Miss Elizabeth Woodhouse, accompanied by Mrs. V. A. Means, sang several delightful selections.

J. F. Shinn, district lay leader of the Salisbury district, made a short talk in which he urged the brethren to heed the talk to be made by Mr. Barnett and to make the Salisbury district one of the leaders in this class of work.

Mr. Shinn's talk was followed by a vocal duet by Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Rowlett, accompanied by Mrs. V. A. Means.

Then in a few selected words Mr. Courtney introduced Mr. Barnett to the assembly. He told of the great distance that the speaker of the evening had covered in working toward brotherhoods, and ended with a plea for the audience to listen carefully to what they were about to hear.

ROTARY MEETING.

Member of Building and Loan Delegates Guests at Weekly Meeting of Club.

Several distinguished visitors, in attendance here at the convention of the North Carolina Building and Loan League, were guests of the Concord Rotary Club members at their weekly meeting at the Hotel Concord.

The program was in charge of R. E. Ridenhour, Jr., Dr. Joe A. Hartwell and S. Kay Patterson. Among the visitors who spoke were C. Clinton James, President of the United States Building and Loan League, Dr. Horace Clark, educational director of the American Savings Building and Loan Institute and J. F. Stevens, president of the North Carolina League.

The visitors paid their respects to Rotary and its ideals, expressed appreciation and delight at the reception accorded them here and predicted even greater success for Concord in the future.

One of the most interesting features of the meeting was the musical program which included several flute solos by S. Kay Patterson and several vocal solos by Mrs. H. G. Gibson, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Leslie Correll.

Dental Clinic Monday.

Dr. P. Y. Adams, state dentist, is today erecting his apparatus at the county health department in the County Building on Church Street to start work on the school children, between the ages of six and twelve, Monday morning. Mr. Adams has been in Kannapolis during the past few weeks.

This service to the school children is given free of charge by the state and it is hoped that all of the children in the city will take advantage of the opportunity to have their teeth put in good shape for the coming school year.

Dr. Adams urges that all children who want to take treatment from him make appointments early. A systematic schedule is necessary in order to make the best results possible. This cannot be done without the cooperation of the children and of their parents.

KANNAPOLIS OVERWHELMS GIBSON, SCORE 13-3.

Winn's Hit Offerings of "Bad Eye" Gathers For 17 Bingles-Gibson Infield Poor.

Kannapolis secured sweet revenge Friday for the three defeats administered here in the first three games of the series by making a merry-go-round of "Bad Eye" Guthrie's alleged pitching. Lefty Sherrill, on the other hand, pitching his first game for Kannapolis, held the Gibson sluggers in the hollow of his southpaw hand, allowing them only five scattered hits and three runs. Only Hatley was able to connect safely more than once with his slants, and in no inning was he touched for more than one hit.

The winners not only had the best pitching but also the best fielding. Motsinger, Saunders and Johnson working like well-oiled machinery in the infield.

Bob Kirke continued his heavy slugging with two home runs, one with the bases full, and two singles out of five times up. Motsinger, Flowe and Saunders also hit well.

After making one run in the second when Smith pegged wildly to home trying to catch Kirke who was on third when Leutz died to left, Kannapolis sewed the game up in the third by making five runs. With the bases filled in this round Kirke hit the ball far over the fence at left, the hardest hit ball of the day and one of the longest home runs made at Gibson Park this year. Guthrie then walked Flowe who scored a few minutes later on a single by Saunders.

Kannapolis added four more in the fifth when the team batted all the way round for the second time in a single inning. McLean, first up, singled to center. Kirke was safe on an error by Dulin who had a double play in sight. Flowe scored both runners with a long double to the center field fence. Saunders went out to Wood, unassisted but Leutz singled to left scoring Flowe. Johnson fled out to Smith. Sherrill scored Leutz with a long single and Motsinger followed with another single. Lee made the final out, popping to Wood.

Kannapolis added two more the next inning when with one down Kirke smashed out his second home run. Flowe next man up tripped, and scored on two infield outs. The last run came in the seventh on a hit, stolen base and two errors.

Watts homered in the third was the first Gibson run. Then Hatley, through daring base running after he had singled, scored a second run in the eighth. Jarrett singled, went to second on an error, to third on a long fly, and then stole home for the last run, in the ninth.

RESOLUTIONS REPORT. THANKS LOCAL PEOPLE

Building and Loan Men Grateful for Fine Reception Accorded Them in Convention.

The following is the report of the resolutions committee of the State Building and Loan League, the report having been accepted by the convention:

Mr. President:

Your committee on resolutions beg to report as follows:

First--We desire to extend our thanks to the local building and loan associations, the mayor and citizens of Concord; also to the various clubs and organizations of the city, for the many courtesies and kindnesses extended to us during our stay in their city; to the committee on arrangements for the delightful entertainment and the interesting trip to Kannapolis and Jackson Training School.

To the newspapers for the very full reports carried in their columns covering the proceedings of this convention.

Second--We extend our sincere thanks to the several speakers for their inspiring addresses and especially to Dr. Horace Clark, of Kansas City, Mo.; Hon. C. Clinton James, president of United States League, Washington, D. C. and J. M. Wyman, of Cincinnati, Ohio, whose addresses and information imparted have added so much to the success of the convention.

Third--We desire to extend to our officers, and especially to President Stevens and Secretary Todd, our gratitude for their efforts on behalf of the league, for the most excellent program provided and for their successful administration.

Fourth--We extend our thanks to Senator F. M. Simmons for his untiring efforts on behalf of the building and loan cause in the matter of tax legislation during the present session of Congress.

Fifth--We recommend that the league extend an invitation to the United States League to hold its 1927 convention in Asheville.

Sixth--Your committee have made inquiry regarding the Clark-Chase correspondence course on building and loan, and recommend that the members of this league consider the advisability of availing themselves of this course and that they get in communication with Dr. Clark, who will gladly furnish full information.

A. G. CRAIG, Chairman,
S. D. BROADHURST,
E. T. TAYLOR, Committee.

INJURED IN PLAYFUL FROLIC WITH FRIENDS

Tricks of Mirth and Levity Result in Use of Sling and Bandages.

Stanly News-Herald.

Mr. J. C. Shinault, who holds a position with the Central Barber Shop here, is carrying his left arm in a surgical sling and also has his head bandaged, all as a result of a friendly pow-wow with Nat Auten and Peuse Furr Tuesday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock.

According to the story as related by each of the participants, a friendly pow-wow had been engaged in. Peuse, states that Tuesday afternoon existence had grown drab and of no account. Therefore exigencies there were to indulge in tricks of mirth and levity and no sooner than these three gentlemen had assembled at the Auten-Wolfe Motor Company than frolicsome times ensued.

Some one dashed a bucket of water down the back of Peuse Furr, and things started. Finally, Mr. Shinault, availed himself of a large bucket and made to pour the same upon Nat and Peuse. Forthwith, these two gentlemen took to their heels and headed toward the Lutheran Church. Mr. Shinault, clinging to his pall of cold water stayed him not, but gave pursuit as best he could. At the corner of the Lutheran Church, Peuse passed from sight while Auten did about face and hauled his freight toward the original starting point. But his sight grew dim and his limbs waxed weary while the fleetness of the water bearer increased. At last to save himself from a drenching of the ice cold fluid, the crafty Nat, dashed into the show room of the Albemarle Hudson Company, slamming the door shut behind him. Mr. Shinault rushed against the glass door, breaking it down and receiving several painful injuries. His left arm was cut rather seriously in several places while he received an incision just above his left eye.

Medical aid was summoned immediately and his wounds given attention. The injured man is now getting along as well as could be expected.

KANNAPOLIS WINS IN TENTH FROM KIRK'S HOME RUN

Fayetteville Series Evened When Former Colonial Gets Homer; Score 4-3.

Fayetteville, June 25.--A home run by Bob Kirk, former Colonial outfielder, and now a fly chaser in the right garden for the Kannapolis club, gave a decision over the Highlanders here yesterday afternoon. The victory evened the series between the two clubs.

Kirk's blow came in the tenth inning with two men down and the bases clear, the line drive bounced past the centerfielder and going so far away that the runner reached home base before the ball could be retrieved.

Kirk was the hitting star of the day, the homer, one double, two singles, and a sacrifice being his lot. Kannapolis acquired a three run lead in the third frame, but Thomas was driven from the box by the Highlanders in the same inning, and with Ferguson in the box, the score was tied up in the fifth. Greason's single, two passes and an infield out being responsible for th score.

Johnny Johnson, former Carolina shortstop, played an excellent game for Kannapolis, and in the tenth frame, broke up a probable rally by a beautiful catch which he turned into a double play. Spectacular fielding by both teams was the order of the day.

Score by innings: ---102 000 000 1---D
Kannapolis ---002 010 000 0---3

INDEPENDENCE WEEK

Celebrating the 150th Birthday Anniversary of the Declaration of American Independence.

All this week will be observed throughout the United States and its possessions as Independence Week. The Daughters of the American Revolution of Concord will not have any formal exercises in commemoration of this occasion except the ringing of the court house bell and the church bells on next Monday morning at 11:11 a. h., as the "Echo of the Liberty Bell."

The following is the Patriot's Pledge of Faith:

"I do hereby pledge and declare my sincere belief and devout faith in the fundamental ideals of my country so bravely proclaimed to the world by the immortal signers of the Declaration of American Independence; and in their words and noble spirit 'we pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor' to the support of those ideals; and as a token of my sincerity and as an evidence of my gratitude for the blessings which that immortal document has assured to all Americans, I do hereby make this contribution for the preservation of Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, as a National Memorial to the author of the Declaration of Independence and as a patriotic Shrine for the Children of America."

Bus Owners to Gather in Charlotte July 12th.

The North Carolina Bus Owners Association will meet, 200 strong, at the Hotel Charlotte, July 12-13. The first day will be given over to general business, with a banquet and an address of welcome by C. O. Keuster, manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

The convention committee of the association consists of L. A. Love, chairman; Joel W. Wright, Gastonia; W. E. Smith, Albemarle; R. O. Walters, Concord; C. H. Bost, Newton, and P. R. Shinn, Greensboro.

Bus lines of the association cover 95,000 miles daily, and the holdings of the companies represent over $3,000,000. H. A. Bailes, of Goldsboro, is president of the association, and J. W. Hester is its attorney.

Runaway Youth Found in State, Salisbury Post.

Roy Morgan, Gold Hill lad of 14, who ran away from his home last week, has been located in Laurinburg, N. C., and returned here yesterday. His father states that the boy, who went away in a Ford truck belonging to the father, had eaten nothing for two days, and was delighted to return home. At the time he left, the boy had no money to speak of, the father said, and he was not surprised that he had been forced to go without food for two days.

It was thought at first that the boy had probably gone to Alabama to visit an uncle.

To New York and Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Howard, Mrs. A. Jones Yorke and Miss Alice Yorke left Thursday afternoon for New York City. Mrs. Yorke and Miss Yorke will sail for Europe tomorrow on the steamship Orduna and will spend several months touring the continent. They were joined in New York by Miss Hazel Hunter, of Charlotte, who will be their travelling companion.

Mrs. B. F. Rogers returned home Saturday from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. John F. Yorke, of Charlotte.
