THE COTTON MARKET

Plan to Increase Live Stock Raising. Tribune Bureau Sir Walter Hotel

Raleigh, July 7 .- Now is the time for farmers to begin making plans dren. The funeral service will be to increase their livestock raising, especially as indications are for a heavy cotton crop, with its consequent decrease in prices, the State department of agriculture advises, as prices for stock are strong and likely to go higher any time. The farm earnings may be greatly increased by adding several good cows, a dozen or so more hogs or a flock of sheep.

Sheep are proving unusually profitable in the state at this time, especially in the mountain section in the activity in the South seemed to be
