WORKING TO FREE MINERS TRAPPED SINCE THURSDAY

3.000 Bales More Efforts Redoubled Today With Hope of Reaching Men Imprisoned in Hudson Mine in Kentucky.

> PUMP IS TO BE STARTED TODAY

Three Days and Nights of the Fiercest Work Had Brought Rescue Squads But Little Nearer Men.

Salem, Ky., Aug. 9.—(P)-Rescue workers seeking to free five men trapped since Thursday in the Hudson mine of the Zinc & Spar Company AFTER REPORT* near here, redoubled their efforts today with the home of reaching the imprisoned men before nightfall.

Three days and nights of feverish working apparently had brought the rescue parties little nearer'the trapped miners, but a pump capable of lifting 400 gallons of water, mud or sand, from the mine was to be placed in operation today. The pump, engineers said, would reduce the level of water in the mine to such an extent that the cave-in might be reached.

During the past three days two drills were used in an attempt to opdepth of 60 feet, only half the estiwhose fate is unknown.
