SEEN ABOUT New York
New York, February 28.—The men who lustful telephones have their own peculiar tribulations.

...
For one thing, the woman of the household is sometimes careless about her appearance when the telephone company's representative calls shortly after breakfast to hook up the instrument...

...
The so-called "art" magazines in which nudity was displayed have disappeared from the newsstands, presumably as a result of the recent drives against them...

...
An ambitious dentist in the Bronx has chosen a unique place to "hang out his shingle." The sign, telling the reader in bold letters that his door is "just around the corner" hangs on the side of an apartment over looking the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad tracks...

...
The elevated lines advertise their newstands in the vernacular. A poster in the cars shows a young man holding a bundle of newspaper and asking pleasantly, "Whadya read? Whadever it is, the young man has it."

Have You Heard This One?
Explained It.
Mrs. Dooley had not had much of an education, but she did her best to hide the deficiency.

"Will you sign your name here?" asked the solicitor, whom Mrs. Dooley had asked to draw up a deed when transferring some property to her daughter.

...
"Sign it yourself, and I'll make me mark," said the old woman. "Since me eyes goes out I'm no' able to write a word, sor."

...
An American traveling in Scotland in the highlands said to the old boatman: "Don't, this rain is awful. Do you know where I could get a mackintosh for my daughter?"

...
Farmer—Come on and I'll show you how to milk the cow.
City Boy—Maybe I better start on the calf.

"Perce, dear, mother's coming soon—she says she's dying to see our faces again."
"Is seems a pity she should drag herself down here just for that—write and tell her we'll have our pictures taken!"

...
Actor (in role of Sydney Carton)—It is a far, far better thing that I do, than I have ever done before; it is a far, far better.
Gallery Wag—Fer goodness' sake, go ahead an' do it; we'll do the jug-in'.

...
Pat—Say, Mike, did yez hear about that big fiddler dying? He thought so much of his violin he had it buried with him.
Mike—No, yez don't mane it? It's a blame good thing he didn't play the piano.

Wonder Watch.
Samba—"What kind of a watch you got?"
Jasbo—"I has a wonder watch."
Samba—"Wonder watch? Never heard of that before."
Jasbo—"Well, you see, it's this way. Every-time I look at it I wonder what time it is."

PROSPECTS FOR STATE FAIR APPEAR ROSIER
Bill Presented in Legislature Provides Terms That May Prove Feasible.
(Raleigh, Feb. 25.—Prospects for a state fair in 1927 assumed a more rosy hue here following the introduction in the house of a State Fair bill by the Wake county delegation.

The bill, which is now pending, would authorize the State to set aside 200 acres of land within five miles of the State capital, and to accept $200,000 from the city of Raleigh and the North Carolina Agricultural Society for the purpose of staging the fair annually.

...
A provision is contained in the bill that the fair shall be managed by a board of directors. The board would consist of one representative from each congressional district and three representatives from the state at large.

...
The latter three members would be designated by Governor McLean. Ex-officio members of the board of directors were named as follows: Governor McLean, ex-officio chairman; Commissioner of Agriculture Graham, Wade H. Phillips, director of the department of conservation and development, and the presidents of State College and the agricultural society and the mayor of Raleigh.

...
Early action of the fair bill is expected by supporters of the proposal.
Educators at Dallas.
Dallas, Texas, Feb. 25.—The annual convention of the department of superintendence of the National Education Association, which gets underway here tomorrow, from all appearances will be the largest winter gathering ever held by that organization.

...
Hundreds of delegates have already arrived and it is expected several thousand will be on hand when the convention opens. Included among the visitors are scores of noted educators from all sections of the country. Today was devoted to the reception of the visitors and to meetings of several of the affiliated bodies. The regular sessions of the convention proper will continue through next week.

...
"Is it my belief, and I venture to assert it," declared the lecturer, raising his voice, "there isn't a man in this audience who has ever done anything to prevent the destruction of our forests."

...
A rather timid looking man arose in the rear of the hall and said: "I—er—I've shot woodpeckers."
