INAPOLIS DEPARTMENT (By JAMES L. MOORE)

TWILIGHT MEETING

The inclement weather conditions

"Y" physical mentor, and was open team regardless of the restoration of

The Y. M. C. A. is contemplating having a host of good local boys on

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR CHAP-

MAN INFANT.

PUNCH CARDS MAKE EXIT.

Hear ye! Hear ye! The punch cards and pull boards which have

ANOTHER REVIVAL BEGINS

evening at 7:30 o'clock. Special vice and the public as a whole is in North Kannapolis and much good,

MAN.

Deputy Sheriff Hinson, of the local sent to place un-

LINDBERGH OF long series between Kannapolis and TALENT PLAYS, Concord. The second number, as an-ENTED TONIGHT nounced yesterday, will be staged at Concord on the following week-end. echler Featured Prines Woman's Club of Items and Iotas. Off.-Twilite Meet eral Service-Punch Monday night caused the postponein Kannapolis Hence-Forever.-Revival Returns had been called by Chic DeMarcus, Texas.

to the baseball loving public but only dbergh of local tal- a few persons braved the harsh weathproceeds being applied the league, which was disbanded here in purchasing maps in 1926 when John S. Carpenter, grammar grades of father of the loop, moved out of town.

the featured princibeing ably supported and a galaxy of local nts that includes J. should get in touch with the new outivian Walter, Lucille Good- Funderburke, of this city. llett. Hattie Parker and Sam Wiley. of half the people will be identified. ilarious farce comedy Seas suitable for the and especially the It is of two enterdeals chiefly with a young civil engineer The two illustriously the girl's aunt enter ial state in order that wedlock. The aunt a bug specialist and rt to the grand finals. being a bandits dance, a soldier drill, and a olody. Piano selec vent will be furnished stian, of China Grove.

L HORDE OFF. nd his horde of Towelormers left this mornille, where they meet is afternoon. ere in fine physical hey departed, expresswinning both ends Newberry, generally a nifty moundsman, into the pit, for the

in a two-game series

he homelings here Sat-Antley, a newcomer will take the box it is thought, is being accomplished. ative hopefuls, Parkis needed.

custom of last year Protestant Church. ings and features of mary, stampedes der arrest Bud Wilson, wanted here

Laurel Olive revival draw large crowds.

ole were present Sun was estimated that automobiles parked

el tent at the night

out-of-town visitors

uding Mr. and Mrs.

of Southern Pines, an

the evangelist. Many ent from Henderson.

. Charlotte and many singing was enjoy-

There were two pianos

. Four pianists were

yed. The orchestra

Mr. Saunner, violin-ve Revival.

Many wonderful testimonies were pepople of Concord.

praying through and shouting the vic- athletic enterprises.

healing and saving power of the Sav- in the national singles championship iour. They are holding a revival at that he desired to retain his status Lexington, but called off last night's at least until he had another chance meeting to attend the meeting here. There will be special music and singing every night this week, Several interesting programs are being ar-the coming week. The

the services. C. D. WATKINS.

ranged for and suit of clothes.

Wilson was committed to the county jail at Concord in default of a three hundred dollar bond. He will be tried at the August term of court.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. S. L. McCraven has recovered ufficiently to be removed from the Salisbury Hospital to her home at 922 Poplar street.

"Bos" Williams, formerly an ath lete of this city, will arrive in Kannapolis today to spend sometime with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wilment of the meeting of the Twilight liams. Young Williams is now eneague to an indefinite date. The meet gaged in aviation work at Waco, Local merchants announce that stores and business houses of Kannapolis will close Thursday afternoon of each week at 1 o'clock, allowing Meanwhile DeMarcus is busily enthe employees an afternoon away from gaged in organizing a Y. M. C. A. work, as was the custom last year.

> DUKE TRUSTEES REPORT GIFTS

Several Large Donations to University Are Made Public.

its roster and expect to inaugurate Durham, June 7.—Announcement the season at once. Any team interested in a lively battle or two Duke university board of trustees, of gifts to the university in the form fit's boss, Chie DeMarcus or Roy of funds to be set up to provide loans and scholarships for the use of worthy students who need financial assistance. Among the handsome gifts is Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chapman's Angier B. Duke memorial fund, for infant son, Muriel Junior, who died loans and scholarships for use Sunday, was buried yesterday after-noon at the Kannapolis cemetery, fol-Duke, long friend of the institution, lowing the funeral services from the to which Mr. Duke has given $452,-Chapman residence, 648 Pine street. 000 to date. It was stated that it is team. Many of the runs scared were Rev. H. G. Bryant, pastor of the the purpose of Mr. Duke and other due to errors in the outfield. Up till day. First Baptist Church, had charge of members of the family to increase this the fifth inning no one on the Winefund from time to time. Established as a memorial to Angier B. Duke, '05, who died in 1923 and left a noble bequest to his alma mater, the fund flooded Kannapolis for lo, these many their college work. months have gone to never return. The trustees decided that the gen-Many a person will shout, many will erous amounts heretofore contributed weren't. But, nevertheless, County Sheriff set up as the B. N. Duke endowment Caldwell, after raiding business ren-fund. This is done in view of seeing desvouses Tuesday found they were that this special fund is built up to not needed here and issued a warning proportions that will make it a fit for all Kannapolis merchants to rid memorial to the man who through a themselves of such or otherwise be period of many years has done much indicted. Not one could be seen last for the institution.

Claude Flowers, of the class of 1909, gives $5,000 toward a scholarship and loan fund to be set ap as Rev. V. M. Hager, of High Point, will open a series of revival services at the Holy Church of God here this evening at 7.20 and 150. a memorial to his father, Colonel G. years of his life. It is expected that music will be rendered at each ser- this fund will be augmented.

"Specks" Wolfe, melings here SatThe Hendry-Miles evangelistic meet.

The bequest of $10,000 by P. M.
Barringer, the income from which is The Hendry-Miles evangelistic meet- to be used for student loans and ing is now in full swing at the tent scholarships.

Another gift of $5,000 was announce ed, coming from C. W. Toms, of New Services are being conducted daily at York, as a memorial to his wife, to being in the offing in 7:30 o'clock under the auspices of the be named the Mary Newby Toms board of extension of the Methodist Scholarship fund. For many years Protestant Church, Mrs. Toms was one of the most beloved women in Durham and a source e returned to the F. HINSON RETURNS WITH HIS of inspiration to many students, Alumni of Duke, it was announced have subscribed $33,268 to the alumni adership of the clev- force, returned yesterday from Greens- loyalty fund coming from a large number of individuals.

for the first game of a for the theft of a fifty dollar watch Johnson and Bill Tilden May Turn Pro.

> New York, June 7 .- Prophecy that both Big Bill Tilden and Little Bill given by visitors, as well as by the Johnston would desert amateur tennis and take up the professional game before the end of this year was made There were about 75 people at the in The New York Evening Post today altar Sunday night, many of them by C. C. Pyle, backer of professional

Tilden, it is recalled, refused an The Fraser evangelistic party was offer from the California promoter resent last night, testifying to the last year, explaining after his defeat

A Cold Proposition.

Philadelphia (Pa.) Bulletin-Mrs. of Phillips and Mr. public is cordially invited to attend all Edwin Evans had the misfortune of having her head cut by falling on the ice, which bled profusely.

Have You Heard This One?

minded, isn't she? Joe-Oh, yes, awfully. She believes there are always two sides to a question-her own and her mother's.

Mr. Moneybags-Since I've retired I've so much leisure I don't know what to do.

Friend-Why not marry in haste?

The young housewife called at the shop to buy oysters. "Do you want large or small ones?"

she was asked. "Just medium, I think," she said. "My husband takes a 16 collar."

count. I never heard of such a thing!
Daughter—Oh, it's all right, daddy. I sent them a check to cover the amount I overdrew!

Poplar Tent Shuts Out Winecoff. On Saturday, June 4th, Poplar Tent "All Stars" shut out Winecoff on Ochler field with a score of 16 to 0. by the "All Stars." They defeated Gilwood on May 21st and Brown Mill

The game started at 3:30 p. m The first inning "Kurt" Taylor whifted out the first three men up on the Winecoff team, while Caldwell scored the first run for the "All Stars." score steadily increased for the latter coff team had reached first base.

who have subsequently made good in of the team. Winecoff changed pitchers three times during the game. One man on the Poplar Tent team the guest of Miss Ida Mae King. fanned out while Taylor hurled out eighteen men on the Winecoff made for the lost cause while the "All from Chapel Hill where they were Stars" made thirty-eight. "Bottle students at the University the past the game but his balls usually changed the graduating class. their course and fell somewhere in outfield, while the "All Stars" player Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Sappenfield and made a merry-go-round of the dia-

> The main feature of the game was relatives in High Point. the heavy hitting of "Lat" Caldwell and "Red" Williams. The game ended left for their homes near the Winecoff lege for Women, Greensboro, has re-burg. HAYSEED. turned to her home on the Kannapolis from Rutherfordton College where she

Bar Harbor Chair

Most popular of summer chairs-built of cool reed, with

PERSONALS.

Dr. Ed. Misenheimer returned yeserday to his home here from the University Hospital, Baltimore, Md. where he graduated this spring. Misenbeimer will go to Raleigh this month where he will take the State board examination.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Joyner are seriously ill at their home in No. 11 township.

Mrs. W. I. Little and Miss Edith Moose returned yesterday from a trip to Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barrier had as their guests Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Will Wylie, Misses French and Ruth Wylie and Fulton Wylie and Miss Myrtle Newell, of Oxford, Irritated Father—The idea of our overdrawing your bank action overdrawing your bank action. The Wylies and Miss Newell are en route to their home after visiting in Virginia for sometime.

> Misses Julia Arrowood and Bonte Loftin are going to Chapel Hill Thursday where they will attend summe school.

Mrs. C. H. Barrier, Mrs. E. E. This is the third straight game won Barrier, Miss Ida Mae King and Jethro King attended the birthday dinner of Mrs. Hoyle in Newton Tuesday.

> Miss Love Banner, of Mt. Airy, spent Tuesday and Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cline.

> Hugh W. Broom, of Mt. Airy, was a business visitor in Concord Tues-

Ralph and Fred Arrowood, of Bes Winecoff lost their pitcher last semer City, were the guests Tuesday week which was due to non-backing. of E. B. Arrowood on Cedar street This game was a sure proof that he They were en route to Chapel Hill has aided a large number of students had been winning their games instead where they will attend summer school.

Mrs. N. H. Hoyle, of Newton, is

W. J. Bost and R. C. Harris have Only four clean hits were returned to their homes in the county Washer" Umberger pitched most of year. Mr. Harris was a member of son, Robert, Jr., and Miss Sallie Sap- Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bell. penfield have returned from a visit to Miss Annie Cline Barnhardt, a dance here Tuesday evening. about 5:30 and the discouraged team gralluate of the North Carolina Col-

Porch Shades

The kind that roll up automatically-keep the sun out

Bell - Harris Furniture Co.

"The Store That Satisfies, and the Home of Beautiful Furniture" but let the breeze in.

Rev. and Mrs. Storch Brown and Rev. and Mrs. Storch Brown and son, of Lexington, are visiting at the home of C. A. Isenhour on East Corbin street.

J. B. Sherrill returned yesterday from Durham, where he attended commencement exercises at Duke University. He is a member of the board of trustees of the university.

Miss Penelope Cannon and guest, Miss Verita Anderson, of Nelson, Ga., left yesterday for Atlanta, Ga., later going to Athens, Ga., where they will attend the University of Georgia, "finals." They plan to go to Nelson, Ga., Miss Anderson's home, and then to Augusta, Ga., where they will be the guests of friends.

Miss Blanche Armfield has gone to Boston, Mass., where she will visit before going to Niagara Falls and other interesting points.

Mrs. J. E. Smoot and Miss Virginia where they attended the commencement exercises at N. C. C. W.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armfield, Miss Alice Armfield and Frank Armfield, Jr., have returned from Greensboro, where they went to attend the graduating exercises of North Carolina College For Women. Miss Blanche Armfield was a member of the graduating class.

Miss Sara Ellen Linker and Miss Alda Winecoff left yesterday for North Carolina College For Women. Greensboro, where they will attend summer school.

Mrs. I. I. Davis and daughter, Miss Minnie Hill Davis have returned from a trip to New York.

William McAulay, of Mt. Gilead, and Dick Richards, of Liberty Hill, S. C., attended the Weidemeyer dance here Tuesday evening. They leave shortly for Camp Sapphire, near Brevard, where they will be instructors this summer.

Mrs. S. J. Ervin, Jr., and son have returned to their home in Morganton, after visiting Mrs. Ervin's parents,

Max Warlick and Miles Wolf, of Charlotte, attended the Weidemeyer

Miss Mary Dayvault has returned

Rustic Hickory

A sturdy comfortable rocker with woven rattan seat and back.

of Lakeland, Fla. Mrs. McClama has many friends in the city, as she > Mrs. Eleanor Walker and Miss Nina Norman, of Washington, D. C., are visiting heir parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Norman.

Mrs. A. H. Wheeler, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. V. L. Norman.

Mrs. Howard Seple, of Staunton, Va., will arrive in Concord tonight to visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burrage, she being a cousin of the latter. Mrs. Seple will also visit other relatives while here.

children left Tuesday for Goldsboro, Miss Lucy Hartsell attended the Raleigh and Beaufort, where they graduating exercises at Salem Coltives and friends tives and friends.

Mrs. J. E. Smoot and Miss Virginia Miss Blanche Threadgill, who has Smoot have returned from Greensboro, been a patient at the Charlotte Sanatorium, has returned to her home in Miss Wilma Correll, Mrs. J. L.

We have the following

For Sale or Exchange:

One Ford Roadster.

One Ford Touring One Ford Truck

One Buick Touring

One Studebaker Touring

One Studebaker Sedan.

Standard Buick

PHONE 363

road to spend the summer with her attended the wedding of Miss Sarah Brown, and Miss Anna Strider, of parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Barn- Johnston and Dr. Harold McClama, Concord, and Miss Mary Peck, of hardt. lege For Women.

Mrs. T. L. Ross and son, Thomas Ross, Miss Lena Leslie, A. H. Jarratt, Hal Jaratt, and Bruce Jarratt were in Winston-Salem Tuesday. They went up to witness the graduation of Miss Frances Jarratt, from Salem that evening. Rev. R. M. Courtney left Tuesday morning for Durham, where he will attend the preachers' summer school at Duke University.

L. T. Hartsell, Sr., is improving after a severe illness, his friends will be interested to learn.

lege, Winston-Salem, Tuesday. Miss Margaret Hartsell, who is a member of the graduating class, returned home with them that afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Stallings, Jr., of Har-risburg, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Linker.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Faggart and sons, and Misses Mary Litaker and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Matthews, of Mary Dollar and Francis Weddington Winston-Salem, motored to Concord Sunday at Chimney Rock.

Sunday Mrs. Matthews remained wisit to her parents, Mr. and for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Goodson.

> Elmo Burris left Monday morning for New York to rejoin his ship, "The Trenton," after enjoying a furlough

Oswald Phillips has returned to his home from the Concord Hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis several weeks ago. Attend Council Meeting.

The State Council of the Sons an Daughters of Liberty will hold its state meeting in Greensboro June, and 9th. Those attending from Man tha Washington Camp, No. 2, are the Washington Camp, No. 2, are Mieses Louise Irvin and Nellie Heavis Mr. C. W. Beaver, Mrs. C. A. Beaver, Mr. S. H. Teeter and Mr. J. M. Gray. All are delegates for the local council except J. M. Gray who is a state officer. Former Concord Man Is Law Grad uate. Among the list of graduates of the Chattanoogs College of Law in the class of 1927 appears the name of Walter C. Groner. Mr. Groner son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Dhehr Gre er, the former having been reared in Concord, and left here more than 25 years ago to make his home in Chattanooga. Mr. Groner is a nephew of Mrs. R. V. Blackwelder, of Concord.

According to the Reverend Dr. F. B. Short of New York, paster of a Methodist church for thirty-five years, blond badies usually cry, brunets smile and bald-headed ones look blank while being baptized.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1927 SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM ACCOUNT

RETURN CAPTAIN CHAS. LINDBERGH ROUND TRIP EXCURSION FARES

Charlotte, N. C. ___ $11.50 | Mooresville, N. C. __ $11.50 Gastonia, N. C. ____ $12.00 High Point, N. C. ___ $9.50 Concord, N. C. ____ $11.00 Hickory, N. C. ____ $11.50 Salisbury, N. C. ____ $10.50 Reidsville, N. C. ___ $7.50

Proportionately reduced round trip fares from other stations. Excursion tickets on sale Friday, June 10th, final limit good to to reach original starting point prior to midnight Wednesday, June 158th, 1927.

Tickets good in sleeping cars upon payment of Pullman charges.

Washington is planning big celebration on June 11th for this occasion in honor of Captain Chas. Lindbergh.

Big League Baseball Games, Washington Senators vs. Chicago White Sox, June 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th. Griffith Stadium. Don't miss this opportunity to visit the Nation's Capital.

For detailed information see large flyers or call on any South-

R. H. GRAHAM, D. P. Charlotte, N.

Thank You!

Call Again!

Ritchie Hardware Co.

ern Railway Agent. M. E. WOODY, T. A.,

Concord, N. C.

Your Hardware Store PHONE 117

LAN L

THE TOILER

ALL RIGHT, TILLIE . I'LL BE THROUGH HERE IN A SECONDI

SHE GETS A SUBSTITU NO, I DID NOT HELLO, MR. SIMPKINS . 1 ARE YOU DOING BUESS YOU DIDN'T EXPECT AT TILLIE'S TO SEE HERE

FAMILIARITY BREEDS NICKNAMES

ON THE JOB

NESS OF CALLING OUR STILL ITS A LONG EXPERT "PETTY HAS

NAME AND THERE OUGHTA BE SOME SORT OF A SHORT CUT.

