STIRRING SERMON IS DELIVERED BY DR. MORGAN SUNDAY

es Twice at New First Presbyterian Church.—Baptismal Service.

"But ye are that ye may, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a people for possession; that ye shew forth the excellencies of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light."

The above verse, chapter two of First Peter, formed the theme of the eloquent and profound message which was delivered by Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, renowned Bible scholar, at the initial services in the new First Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Dr. Morgan cited to his large attentive audience that the great underlying principle of the church is to the nation, and the world the exceldent analyzised the subject of his dis-

"There is nothing the world needs quite so much today as God," exclaimed the scholar. "It is the one passionate and pulsive need of this When there is no God the people perish. The World needs a clear vision—a healing vision—of God. God defeated Jacob to make him victorious: God has to break many men to win them for Him and to make them. 'I have seen God face to face, and I am healed,' said Jacob. Whenever one comes to God he is brought to a place of healing and restoration.
