PROF. ROBERTSON IS GIVEN WATCH BY MEN'S CLASS

Upon Resignation as Class Teacher After Five Years of Fine Work, He Is Given Present.

As a token of friendship and in appreciation of his work as one of the class teachers, the Men's Bible class of St. James Lutheran church presented to Prof. J. B. Robertson a handsome gold watch Sunday morning. Prof. Robertson, former superintendent of Cabarrus county school, resigned recently as a teacher of this class because his new work will carry him away from Concord frequently for lengthy periods.

Mr. Robertson has taught the Men's Bible class of this institution for the past five years. He has presented all of his lessons in a most interesting and enlightening manner, and the class regrets deeply to give him up. Rev. L. A. Thomas presented the watch to Mr. Robertson who voiced his appreciation.

The Men's Bible class of St. James church has an enrollment of about 100, and a regular attendance of about 60 members.

LEGION HAS 10,000 MEMBERS IN NORTH CAROLINA TO DATE

First Time in Seven Years of Its History State Department Reports 10,000 Members.

Of much interest to local Legionnaires is the announcement from State headquarters in Charlotte that the North Carolina department membership had passed the 10,000 mark for the first time in the seven-year history of the organization.

This total is approximately 250 members larger than the membership of the department at the close of the previous membership year on December 31. Department officials forecast that probably 350 additional memberships will be enrolled this year.

Reports from the posts scattered throughout the State, numbering approximately 170, flooded into department headquarters Saturday, which was the final day for reporting memberships on which the individual posts could base their calculations of the number of delegates to send to the department's annual convention, which will be held August 15-16 at Washington.

The present membership of the department is approximately 1,000 members larger than it was on the corresponding date of last year, it was understood.

Important changes in the problems of national defense in recent years, resulting particularly from progress in aviation, will be impressed upon the members of the Legion in North Carolina by the principal speakers at the annual convention at Washington, according to information obtained from department headquarters.

Admiral Coontz, representing the American Navy, and Tribes Davison, assistant secretary of war work aviation, representing the American Army, have accepted invitations to address the convention, said Paul R. Younks, of Charlotte, department commander. An aerial demonstration will be provided by military aviators as a feature of the meeting.

Mr. Younks indicated. He plans to make the trip from Charlotte to the convention city in an airplane. His motor car will be taken there by his driver, who will have Vincent Paffi Rousseau, of Charlotte, department adjutant, and Clarence O. Kuester, business manager of the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce, as passengers.

Mr. Younks did not disclose the time when Admiral Coontz will speak when he announced that the admiral had accepted the invitation. Two weeks ago Mr. Younks said Mr. Davison will speak at the morning session of the first day of the convention.

Between 3 and 4 p. m. a tour will be made of clover, soybean fields, etc. Following this, stunts by black-faced comedians, demonstrations by Boy Scouts and an auction sale will be held. The proceeds from the auction sale will go to the Boys and Girls Fair.

AIRPORT IS ASSURED FOR WINSTON-SALEM

Ten-Year Lease on Piece of Land Near County Home is Obtained. Start Work at Once.

Winston-Salem, July 14.—Establishment of an airport in Winston-Salem was assured this afternoon when the Forsyth county commissioners, in special session, voted to lease to an airport commission lands near the county home. The lease will cover a period of 10 years.

Clinton Miller, Winston-Salem capitalist, will finance construction of the field, including erection of hangars and other equipment. The field, it is said, will be called Miller Municipal airport, and will be one of the most modern airports in the south, with ample space for the landing of the largest airplanes now in operation. Little grading, it is declared, will be required to put the field in condition.

Work on the airport will get under way immediately, and it is expected to be completed in time for the visit of Colonel Charles Lindbergh when he arrives here October 14 in "The Spirit of St. Louis."

The airport commission will be appointed by Mayor Barber and the board of county commissioners.

No other reasons were given by Cleveland for suspending the outfielder. Bozo Brown, former Duke University star, and also formerly with Chattanooga has been signed by the club and takes the place made vacant by Cook's absence.

PEOPLE WILL TALK.

You may go through the world but 'twill be very slow if you listen to all that is said as you go.

You'll be worried and fretted and kept in a stew.

For meddlesome tongues must have something to do—And people will talk.

If quiet and modest, you'll have it presumed, That your humble position is only assumed.

You're a wolf in sheep's clothing, or else you're a fool; But don't get excited—keep perfectly cool—For people will talk.

And then if you show the least boldness of heart, Or a slight inclination to take your own part, They will call you an upstart, conceited, and vain.

But keep straight ahead—don't stop to explain—For people will talk.

If threabare your dress and old-fashioned your hat—Someone will surely take notice of that, And hint rather strong that you can't pay your way; But don't get excited, whatever they say—For people will talk.

If your dress is in fashion, don't think to escape, For they criticize then in a different shape—You're ahead of your means, or your tailor's unpaid; But mind your own business, there's naught to be made—For people will talk.

Now the best way to do is to do as you please. For your mind, if you have one, will then be at ease.

Of course, you will meet with all sorts of abuse; But don't think to stop them—it's not any use—For people will talk.
