Ladies' Day at the Webb Field. Friday. By RADIO KING.

Fielding and hitting in scintillating style the Concord Legionnaires shutout the Statesville Hustlers, 9 to 0, county building. Friday afternoon at Webb field. The Concord doughboys executed four brilliant double plays to squash budding Hustlers' rallies, and hit the offerings rooms in the county building of Parker almost at will. The locals are credited with 16 healthy smashes. It was Ladies' Day at the park, and quite a crowd of women and girls enjoyed the overwhelming Concord win. Only one other time during the current season has the Ladies' Day been observed at Webb' field. Frank Baker, of Albemarle, a semi-pro right-hander, kept Statesville's eight swats scattered. This feat of the moundsman added to the crack Legionnaire fielding gave Statesville absolutely no chance to score. Concord started the slashing double plays in the third frame. Laird, who had reached first on an error, was out M. Watts to Daughtery, between econd and third bases; and Parker, Eachern. safe on a fielder's choice, overran first, and was nailed M. Watts to Hord, to SIX DIVORCE SUIT Chick Miller.

Statesville's portion of the fourth canto was short-lived. Dowell beat out an infield hit. Neece was safe on Hord's error. Oswalt hit an easy infield fly, M. Watts muffing the ball. The batter was ruled out because first base was occupied. Then Hord grabbed Click's liner and stepped on the keystone bag for a double play unassisted. That trick won him more prizes.
