TIME OF CLOSING MAILS

The time of the closing of mails a the Concord Postoffice is as follows: Northbound. -11:00 P. M.

-10:00 A. M. - 4:10 P. M. - 8:30 P. M. 30-11:00 P. M.

Southbound 39—9:25 А. м. -3:20 P. M. - 8:00 P. M. 29-11:00 P. M.

RAILROAD SCHEDULE.

In Effect June 19, 1927. Northbound

40 to New York No. 136 To Washington 5:05 A. M. 36 To New York 10.23 A. M. 4.33 P. M. No. 34 To New York 3:15 P. M. 46 To Danville 7.09 P. M. 12 To Richmond 9:03 P. M. 32 To New York 2.12 A. M. 30 To New York So thbound. £:36 P. M. 45 Tc Charlotte 35 To New Orleans 9.56 1. M. 29 To Birmingham 2:15 A. M. 5:51 A. M. 31 To Augusta 33 To New Orleans 8:15 A. M.

8:37 P. M. No. 135 To Atlanta 9.45 A. M. 39 To Atlanta 37 to New Orleans 11:29 A. M. Train No. 34 will stop in Concord to take on passengers going to Washington and beyond.

11 To Charlotte

8:00 A. M.

Train No. 37 will stop here to discharge passengers coming from Washington and beyond. All trains stop in Concord except- opening of the 1928 season. No. 38 Aorthbound.

Bible Thought for the Day

The Fool :- The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: God looked down from heaven to see if there were any that did understand. Psalm 53:1, 2.

Prayer:-Lord keep up from such

LOCAL MENTION

One case of scarlet fever was reported Wednesday to the office of the county health unit.

"The Millionaires" is the name of the motion picture which will be shown Friday night at the Concord There will be preaching at Kellar at 3 o'clock by Rev. L. A. Peeler, of P. A. Goodman, a citizen of Lan- FUNERAL IS HELD dis, was operated on for appendicitis

Tuesday at the Concord Hospital, and is resting nicely today. Rev. Franklin Herms will preach at Howell Baptist Church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited. Cotton picking is going on this week at several farms, and within a few days from now that particular harvest will be in full swing. sold property in No. 4 township to o'clock Wednesday

The weekly meeting of the Concord Kiwanis Club will be held at Hotel Concord tomorrow, Friday at 12:30 o'clock. An interesting program is being arranged for the meeting.

Members of the Fred Y. McConnell Post of the American Legion will children: W. L., Ed, M. L., and meet tomorrow, Friday night, at 7:45 Thomas Gordon. of Monroe; J. M in regular session. All members of the post are urged to be present. L. H. Crow, of Kannapolis, underwent a successful operation at the Concord Hospital Tuesday. His scores of friends will be glad to learn that he will soon be able to be out The Fred Y. McConnell Post of the American Legion will hold a regular meeting Friday night at the club room on Barbrick street. The meeting will begin at 7:45 and all members are urged to attend. Double windows will be installed at once in the office of S. Glenn Hawfield, county superintendent of schools There is but a single window in the office at present and this is insufficient to properly light the room. Tuesday was another hot day in Concord without signs of rain. The there is always much happiness; much sun was out in full glory throughout to about 86 during the hottest part of the afternoon. Temperatures fell lege. Chief L. A. Talbirt, of the local police department, stated this morning that he had nothing new to report. Business with the officers was quiet yesterday and no session of the were continued until Friday or a later date. Wednesday was another exceedingly hot day, with temperates above 90 There was but little change in the Mrs. Archie Allred.

recorder's court was held as all cases mercury's standing at night, people making complaint for the first time n several weeks of inability to sleep well due to the heat.

Another divorce suit was filed in Cabarrus Superior Court here Tuesday, bringing the total for the month to four. It is probable that at least two more notices will be filed during the month, bringing the total to six, the average so far for the year.

The Yankees won two games Tuesday and clinched the American League pennant. In the National the Pirates won two from Boston while New York and St. Louis were dividing a double header. In the South Atlantic the Hornets and Spinners won.

Babe Ruth got two more homers Tuesday and is now but 7 behind his record year. He has more than a dozen games to play yet and has an excellent chance to break his record of 59 for a season. He is now seven ahead of Gehrig, the Yankee first baseman.

H. C. Williams, whose home is in Charlotte, but who is more recently of Greensboro, has accepted a position with Cline's Pharmaey as pharmacist, beginning his duties today Mr. Williams is experienced in this vocation, and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina.

Harry M. Daugherty, who played third base for the Weavers during most of the season, has been sold to Charlotte by the Rocky Mount team. Daugherty was farmed out to Concord by the Rocky Mount owners, and he will report to Charlotte at the

The South Atlantic League closed yesterday with Greenville in first place and Spartanburg in second. Greenville team will begin a postseason series with the Portsmouth team tomorrow, playing the first three games in Greenville and the next two, if both are necessary, in Charlotte.

Quite a number of persons are securing hunting licenses now, reports C. R. Honeycutt, Cabarrus game war-Mr. Honeycutt received his license blanks and buttons several weeks ago and has them ready for local persons who wish to secure now their licenses for the hunting season which Dr. J. W. Ewing.

L. M. Williams has sold to S. J. Sherrill for $100 and other valuable considerations property in Ward 2, according to a deed filed here Tuesday. Another deed filed during the day records the sale of land in No. 4 township by Sallie Goodman to Reformed Church Sunday afternoon W. C. Barger for $10 and other valuable considerations.

TODAY AT MONROE FOR H. R. GORDON

Mr. Gordon Died Wednesday Morning After Brief Illness .- Was a Native of Union County. Suffering a stroke of paralysis some two weeks ago, Harvey R. Gor-S. C. Bost and Ola Ledbetter have don, 75 years of age, died at 9:25 morning at his Weaver for $1275, according home near Brown Mill. He was a nato a deed filed at the court house here tive of Union county, but for the past several years had made his home in Cabarrus county.

Mr. Gordon was a farmer, being young man was reported resting very very successful in this trade. His friends in this and surrounding counties number many, and they wil learn of his passage with deep sorrow The deceased leaves the following Gordon, of Concord; Mrs. Maggie Talbirt, Mrs. W. R. Jennings and Mrs. L. Helms, all of Monroe.

Final rites will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the Methodist church in Monroe, of which Mr. Gordon was a member.

COLLEGE PALS SEE EACH OTHER AGAIN AFTER MANY YEARS

Professor Emeritus Everett Brady and Dr. W. D. Pem- nas moved in Union street. berton Greet Again After 46 Years.

When collage pals get back together, after 46 years have gone attend the Weidemeyer dance. marching down the pathway of time, to tell each other, and to be sure these the day, carrying the mercury again pals recount gleefully those good old times when college was really col- Ritchie.

When Professor Emeritus Everett Brady, of Smith College, Soth Hampton, Mass., paid Dr. W. D. Pemberton, prominent Concord physician, a surprise visit Tuesday, college pals were re-united after 46 years. Prof. Brady and Dr. Pemberton were students at the University of North Carolina, rooming together, and each graduating the same year.

Miss Mary Fisher spent the weekdegrees during part of the afternoon. end in High Point with her sister,

The new styles are out on display to delight you with their beauty, quality and low prices. See this showing of twenty new styles and

A Step Ahead In

NEW FALL FOOTWEAR

you'll profit.

Better Wearing Shoes at these prices are not offered anywhere Built for Extra Service, yet they possess

G. A. MOSER SHOE STORE

Style and Good appearance.

PERSONAL

Miss Ila Bost spent Saturday in Charlotte attending a teachers' meet-

Mrs. W. E. Porter, who has been visiting in Concord for several days, left last Friday for Charlotte, where she will visit before returning to her home in Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blume and daughter, Christine, returned Monday night from a trip to Lake Lure and Asheville.

Mrs. Alice Isenhour returned Monday evening from Detroit, Mich., where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roy Plott. Miss Frances Akerstrom and her mother arrived in the city Monday from New York City. Miss Akerstrom is a member of the Harrisburg High School faculty. Miss Anne Dayvault was the weekend guest of Miss Louise McCuen in High Point. Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Arrowood have for several days. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brower returned Monday from Raleigh, where they spent several days. Mrs. W. S. Bingham went to Charlotte Tuesday to spend several days with Mrs. Thomas Hawthorne.

George Kluttz spent Monday Greensboro on business.

Rev. T. F. Higins left Tuesday for Burnsville. Mrs. Higgins and baby, who have been visiting there, will return home with him.

Mrs. J. F. Goodman and Misses Kate Means, Catharine Goodman and spent Sunday at Lake Lure.

Mrs. D. L. Bost and Joe Bost attended their family reunion Sunday at Mt. Gilead. The occasion celebrated the 87th birthday anniversary of Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Edwards and son, Ryland, have returned to their home in Rocky Mount, after a visit to Mrs. Edwards' mother, Mrs. John K. Patterson.

Mrs. J. W. Cannon returned Sunday from New York, where she spent Misses Margaret and Pauline Stall-ngs have left for Lenoir, where they will attend school at Davenport Col-Miss Frances Jarratt has left for Winston-Salem. She will be an instructor of music at Salem College this year. Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Overcash and daughter, and W. B. Ritchie are spending several days at Wrightsville Beach. Suffering with an acute attack of of the Porter Drug Co., was rushed to the Concord Hospital for a successful operation Monday night. The nicely today. Miss Julia Reid Rosborough, acksonville, Fla., Miss Mary Earle, of Greenville, S. C., and Miss Ida struck. She never regained conscious-Clifton Galloway, who have been the attractive guests of Miss Alice Yorke, left Tuesday for their respective Wallace Moore, who has been visiting in Concord left Tuesday for Salis-

Rev. C. W. Lafferty, of Rome, Ga., arrived in the city Tuesday to attend the funeral of his brother, Dr. J. S.

Friends of Miss Nannie Alexander will be interested to learn that she has moved into her home on North

Miss Rose Williams, of Lancaster, C., was the guest Monday night of Miss Louise Morris. She came to Mrs. E. W. Freeze and daughter, Miss Alice Elizabeth Freeze, of High Point, are the guests of Mrs. M. F.

Misses Winifred Pegram and Mary Bagley Ross, of Charlotte, who came over to attend the Weidemeyer dance Monday night, were guests of Miss Catharine Goodman.

Miss Anne Dayvault and Miss Sarah Crowell entered Salem College, Winston-Salem, yesterday, where they will be students.

Among the students leaving here for school is Miss Emily Pounds, who will continue her studies at Salem Academy, Winston-Salem.

Mrs. W. A. Foil, Mrs. W. D. Pemberton, Mrs. Ben White and Mrs R. E. Ridenhour, Sr., spent yesterday over to attend the meeting of the Gaston County Chapter of War Mothers.

Misses Laura White Bost and Ruth Elder left Tuesday for N. C. C. W., school this year.

Miss Ethel Eudy has left for N. be a senior this year. Miss Betsy Davis has left for Winston-Sa'em, where she will be a student at Salem Academy.

Miss Shirley Moose, of Mt. Pleas ant, has gone to Salisbury, where she will be a student at Catawba College. Cline Mabery has gone to Mt. Pleas ant to attend school at M. P. C. I. Greensboro, where they will be stu-

Miss Millicent Ward has left for Winston-Salem, where she will attend school at Salem College. Miss Evelyn Rumple left Tuesday for Greensboro, where she will resume

DRY GIVEN LIBERTY BY CORONER'S JURY FOLLOWING INQUEST

son Ran From Behind a Truck Into Path of Charles Dry's Car.

A coroner's jury last night freed Charles Dry of responsibility for the death of Mabel Hinson, seven, who day morning of injuries received Monday when struck by Dry's car.

testify unless he wanted to. "I want to tell the truth, God knows

I do," the man sobbed as he took the "I would not have done it stand. for all the world if it could have been were called before the jury, the evithe child ran from behind a truck directly into the path of Dry's car. Ernest Shaw, the first witness, said he saw the Dry car coming, running gone to Greensboro to visit relatives about 15 miles an hour, saw the child

"I was standing beside a truck parked in front of the store," Shaw "The girl came running out said. of the store, with her little brother I saw the car and darted walking. around the truck to try to hold the girl back. Just as I got around the truck, Dry's car struck her. If the boy had been running like the girl was, he would have been killed too.' Reece Hatley said he was driving east and Dry west and their cars met near the store. He said he saw the girl step from behind the truck into the path of Dry's car.

patrolmen, and G. H. Humphreys said reelected clerk and treasurer. see how far the car moved after striking the girl. In all the car moved about 30 feet, they said. It did not move that far, Shaw and Hatley said, after the child dropped from the wait to stop the car before jumping Dry was crying when he was called "God knows I wouldn't have this. If her little brother had been running I would have hit him too. I couldn't help it. She ran right couldn't see her for the truck."

Dry said he worked in the store from which the child ran out, and intended to stop just beyond the truck. with it. He said he thought he was travelling 10 or 15 miles an hour. "I haven't eaten or slept since the

as soon as I saw it I put on all my jumped from the car before it stopped thing I could for her." The accident occurred on the Sun- of the church. derland Hall road Monday morning. The child had been to the store to get some beans, and these were scat-

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Hinson. The Drys and Hinsons are next-door neighbors and the tragic ending of the accident has cast a pall of goom over the entire com- Mrs. Rose Banton, a report of

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 at the home and interment made in Union cemetery. Sunday schools by Rev. Zeb Caudle

MAN ARRESTED IN CHARLOTTE IS NOW IN CABARRUS JAIL

J. R. Tisdale Arrested at Request of Local Officers.—Is Charged With Seduction in Cabarrus.

J. R. Tisdale, charged with seduction ander promise of marriage was lodged in the Cabarrus county jail here late Monday after being arrested by Charlotte police officers. The warrant for Tisdale's arrest was sworn out here several days ago by the woman he is alleged to have seduced. The act is said to have been committed last November. Tisdale is a tinner by trade, county officers here declare, and was working on a construction job in Charlotte when arrested. He will be given a hearing here sometime this week.

Funeral Services at Fairview For J. A. Aldridge. Following funeral services from Farview Methodist Protestant Church at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, John perance, Rev. C. D. Barton. Adam Aldridge, 73, who died early Monday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frances Huff, in No. afternoon in Gastonia. They went 4 township, was laid to rest in the church cemetery. Although a native of Stanly county, Mr. Aldridge had pursued the occupation of farming in Cabarrus for the past 23 years. His death is de-Greensboro, where they will attend plored widely in Cabarrus where he was well and favorably known. He is survived by his widow and the following children: Mrs. Frances C. C. W., Greensboro, where she will Huff, Mrs. Sarah Anna Easley, Mrs. Mary Smith, and Alexander, Sid, Willie, Crofford and Charlie Aldridge

> Store Breakers Bound Over To Court. Mooresville Enterprise.

Calvin and Brady Clontz, brothers. young white men of Cabarrus county, were arraigned before Recorder George A. Morrow Wednesday morning charged with entering the store of P. A. Shinn and the larceny of an adding machine. After the evidence had been submitted, the Recorder adjudged that there was probable cause, and there-Misses Edna Brown, Bernice Miller fore bound the young men over to and Era Linker left Wednesday for Superior court in the sum of $500 each. Relatives of the men were here dents at N. C. C. W. the coming and said that bond would be arranged for them. In the meantime they were remanded to jail to Statesville.

Mrs. W. L. Hogan, grand district deputy, of Charlotte, and Mrs. Alice Parker, grand matron, of Farmville, Eastern Star.

SMITH'S PLATFORM IS WET; BAPTISTS DO NOT FAVOR HIM

Jury Found That Mable Hin- Mecklenburg-Cabarrus Baptists Discuss Matter Pertly at Close of Convention on Wednesday.

Al Smith is not the man for president. This is the opinion of members of the Mecklenburg-Cabarrus died in the Concord Hospital yester- Baptist Association which closed its 42nd annual convention at Pritchard Memorial Church in Charlotte Wed-Dry was called to the stand after nesday. Disfavor for the New York being advised that he did not have to governor arises because of his antitemperance proclivities.

Politics, and Al Smith drew the attention of the association shortly before adjournment. "We should never vote for a man who wants liquor back," said C. E. Mason, aged lay-Five witnesses in addition to Dry man, in the course of a talk following the report on temperance by Rev. dence of the eye witnesses indicating S. F. Conrad. A chorus of "amens' echoed through the auditorium. "If you elect a man who wants liquor," said Mr. Mason, "you will see him appointing some week-kneed fellow as secretary of the treasury run out of the store and tried to stop who will not have the 18th amendment enforced." Mr. Conrad in commenting upon hi report on temperance stated: "There is to be a meeting here movement. I want to tell you now that the people of Cabarrus and Mecklenburg Association are not going to support a man who votes for liquor." Another chorus of "Amens" swept over the convention floor.

Elect Officers. D. W. Fink, of Charlotte, was re elected as moderator at the closing hour of the meeting. Rev. W. L. Griggs was made vice moderator and C. C. Sloop and C. G. Ridenhour, Luther Barnhardt, of Concord, was Blanche Bell, of San Antonio, Texas, they measured the Dry car's tracks to 43rd annual meeting of the organization will be held next year at Arlington Church in Clear Creek township, Mecklenburg.

The high spot of the association Shaw said Dry did not In part, it was as follows:

"The question of alcohol and what grounds. out and rushing to the injured chi'd. to do with it has been one of many years of agitation and discussion. to the stand and he testified between Many expedients have been resorted immediately before and after the picto and tried. Licensed saloons were hurt that child for anything," he said. tried and failed. Local option was "She was over at my house every day, tried and failed, and now the devil and I don't think I'll ever get over is raising a great howl in the newspapers in seeking to make the constitutional amendment a failure.

"There can be no question at all into my car as I got to the truck. I that its abolishment is an article of merchandise and restricting it to its proper and necessary uses, is the only proper method with which to deal

"The thing now to be done is to

The Christian enforce the laws. world and the people who stand for accident," Dry said as sobs shook his good morals and good citizenship "The little gir.'s left hand should stand as a unit against all caught on the bumper of the car and who are clamoring for its return to If the public and unrestricted use. brakes. She was carried with the moral and religious forces will stand the gifts of 400 yards of material from car a few feet and then fell off. | together and vote for men who are "After I pulled on the brakes I for the constitution and enforcement buted among women and girls who of the laws, putting it under appendicitis, Ernest Groff, employee and ran to her. The car ran off to ban, it will never return again to the side of the road. I thing I got public and unrestricted use." out about the time she fell from

Later, Mr. Conrad declared that a the bumper, and I have done every- church member who would deal with "blind tiger" should be turned out Mr. Mason declared that, although he had read of the large number of liquor dealers on Tryon street, tered about the road after she was had never been able to find any of Other reports during the day included: a report of the executive committee by Rev. J. A. Gaines, a report. of the orphanage by Rev. R. D. Carroll, a report on women's work by stewardship by J. P. Hackney, a re- ber, 26th. port on ministerial relief and annu-

> and a report on Baptist Young People's Union by J. E. Bruch. Mr. Gaines said: "We cannot close readiness for the opening on Septem this report without stressing the need ber 26th. which is constantly becoming more and more evident for a heaven-sent revival of old fashioned religion among

Rev. C. H. Trueblood, Rev. Zeb Caudle and Rev. T. C. Jones were named delegates to the State conven-Rev. W. L. Griggs was named delegate to the Southern Baptist convention with Rev. J. A. Gaines as

The stewardship committee was named to consist of J. P Hackney, H. G. Ashcraft and Rev. R. D. Car-Standing committees were aproll. pointed as follows:

Co-operative program, Rev. W. L. Griggs: state missions, Rev. T. W. Fogleman: home missions, Dr. Luther Little; foreign missions, Rev. J. A. Gaines; education, Rev. L. R. Pruette; orphanages, Rev. C. H. True boold; hospita's, Rev. R. D. Carroll Sunday schools, Rev. R. D. Carroll; women's work, Mrs. Rose Blanton; stewardship, Rev. Zeb Caudle; ministerial relief, Rev. J. D. Moose; periodicals, Rev. W. O. Rivenbark; tem-

TORRID WEATHER SWEEPS CONCORD; POPULACE SWEATS

Seek Relief. Concord people sweltered beneath the sizzling rays of a relentless September sun Wednesday, unquestionably the hottest day in this city since early July. Scarcely a breath of air stirred throughout the afternoon and evening, automobile riding growing decidedly popular in the later afternoon and evening as persons sought relief from the torrid air. Local soda fountains reported an unusually large business during the early hours of Wednesday night. It seems that this section is drawing some of the heat from the middle west where a severe heat wave, driv- Tickets For Charlotte Races ing the mercury to unseasonal and record heights, is causing much suffering, prostrations and deaths. Concord has little relief today from the excessive heat.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dayvault, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Dayvault, Dr. and are expected in Concord today to be Mrs. J. E. Smoot, F. C. Niblock, and present this evening at the meeting of J. F. Dayvault attended the Neely her studies at North Carolina College the W. G. Campbell Chapter of the family reunion at South River Church

ILL MANY MONTHS, MRS. WIDENHOUSE SUCCUMBS TODAY

Aged Resident of Number 9 Abstract of Listed Taxables Township Died at 4:45 O'clock After Long Period of Illness.

Mrs. Josephine W. Widenhouse aged 79, died at 4:45 o'clock this morning at her home in Number 9 suffering with heart trouble since this venerable woman is deplored throughout the community in which | 917, of $8,147,122. she had lived so many years.

The deceased was a native of Cabarrus county, and belonged to Friendship Methodist church.

She is survived by her husband, J. the total. W. Widenhouse, and the following children: Webster and M. L. Widenhouse; Mrs. Marshall Herring, of Charlotte; J. A. Widenhouse, Mrs. Dolph Plott, Mrs. Vic Plott, Clarence and Gilbert Widenhouse; and Rev. E. C. Widenhouse of West Virginia. Two brothers and one sister also survive. They are: G. R. P. Cress, of this county; William Cress of Washington state; and Mrs. W. N. Cline, Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. W. L. Scott of Mt Pleasant at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon from starting an Al Smith-for-president Friendship church. Interment follows in the church cemetery.

LUTHERAN PICNIC FRIDAY AFTERNOON AT FAIR GROUNDS

Brotherhood Class Sponsors Festival.—All Reminded to Bring Well-Filled Bas-

The Brotherhood class of St. James Lutheran Church will entertain at an o'd-fashioned picnic the Sunday school and congregation, including several meeting came in Mr. Conrad's report. hundred persons, at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Cabarrus fair

A splendid program has been formulated to amuse the merry-makers nic dinner has been spread. program is in charge of Mr. Black welder, who reminds all to bring well filled baskets, and to be on time. TWO MILLS PRESENT

FOR DRESS CONTEST County Farm Council Meets Saturday to Determine the Best Method to Distribute

400 YARDS MATERIAL

Goods to the Participants. Miss Ophelia Barker, Cabarrus home demonstration agent, announces Locke and Gibson mills to be distriparticipate in the Dress Design Con test at the forthcoming Cabarrus District Fair.

A meeting of the County Farm Council has been called by Miss Barker for 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at her office in the county building a which time plans will be agreed upor as to the best method by which to distribute the material to participants.

School Opening Delayed.

Because of the incomplete condi tion of the building, the Hartsell Mil school will not open for the 1927-28 previously announced, but will begin the following week, Monday, Septem-This announcement was made to ities by H. G. Bryant, a report on day from the office of S. G. Hawfield. superintendent of the Cabarrus rural Work will be rushed on the building during the ensuing week in VINGTON'S MMENTARY NCORD, N. C.

Ford Parts. Wrecked a Ford. Will sell the pieces cheap. Men's Caps 75c; lanterns $1.00; Tin ware for a song; overalls $1.00; hats $1.00; cups 10c; saucers 5c bowls 25c; shovels 15c to $1.00; Buckets 20c to $1.00; Benches. am closing out three stocks of goods for other people. The stuff you generally find in community Everything priced to sell, and I am going to sell it. Remember we cheat you right.

C. COVINGTON

WE HAVE THE FOLLOW ING

A Severe Unseasonal Heat Wave Bolsters Soda Fountain Business as People USED CARS

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE

One Chevrolet Coach, late model. One Chevrolet Touring, late model. One Hupp Coupe

One Ford Touring One Ford Roadster Now on Sale Here

One Buick Touring

Standard Buick

TAX DATA IS MADE PUBLIC BY MILLER AFTER HIS SURVEY

For Cabarrus Made Public by the County Tax Super.

visor. An abstract of listed taxable property for the year 1927 in Cabarrus Lafferty, well county, prepared by John L. Miller, death was township. Mrs. Widenhouse had been | county tax supervisor, shows 221,058 acres of land listed in the county, with day at for early last spring. The passage of the total valuation, less the constitutional exemption amounting to $50.

> Mr. Miller explained in making the and intern abstract public that he will issue an- cemetery h other statement later, showing the amount of delinquent taxes added to afternoon for valuation of personal ical last Frid property listed, the abstract shows, is grew weaker, $7,679,169 and the total of real and after noon M personal property listed it $42,194405. This total, Mr. Miller explains, does December 17 not include the property of certain county, near corporations, including railroads, since they are assessed by the State quali- Parks Laffer zation board. When the property son College of these corporations is listed the to- was trained tal for the county will pass the $45, 000,000 mark.

The abstract shows more mules than ter leaving erses listed in the county, more hogs than cows and a scarcity of sheep. It also shows that many dog owners place a high value on their canine

Listed with the supervisor are 6,-959 town lots valued at $9,696,094, this total allowing $3,987 for the constitutional exemption. It is interesting to note that the approximately 7,000 town lots are listed for more than the 221,058 acres of farm land. Manufacturing property adds much to the total, this property, outside listed at a value of $16.969,094. Other items in the abstract follow: No. polls, 5,693. 1.868 horses valued at $77,753. 3.096 mules valued at $183,303. Three jacks and jennets valued at ralued at $21,926. 2,544 milk cattle valued at 4,963 hogs valued at $52,163. 393 sheep valued at $913. 110 goats valued at $183.

135 dogs valued at $2,647.

emale dogs no value. Stocks of merchandise and ere listed at $1,172,621 and material J. C. Wadsworth n process of manufacture and ma- and James B. Laten hinery not affixed to realty were alued at $3,249,775. The net value, above exemption, of

301 male dogs no value and 1,165 ferty, of Davidson p ersonal property from which exempon of $300 is allowed, $269,454. Net solvent credits $1,332,162. Actual value of all other tangible ind intangible property owned by taxavers not otherwise specified $162,-

Mr. Miller stated that the total polls reported was far below the actual Ward 1, he said as an illustration, Mt. Pleasant rold mi here are only 27 persons listed for polls between the ages of 21 and 27. He believes similar conditions exist in the latter's multiin other wards and throughout the

DOUGHTON ON WAY TO CAPITOL, STOPS SHORT TIME HERE

Expects Tax Reduction and Blackwelder fam a Flood Relief to Be Import- when the Cherrolet in ant Questions Before the Next Congress.

Tax reductions and flood relief probably will be two of the most important questions presented to Conress at the approaching session, de clared Congressman R. L. Doughton while in Concord yesterday. Mr. Doughton spent severa! he here with friends, and went Albemarle from this city. He plane to go to Washington the latter part the week to look after details incide to the opening of Congress, He wil return home before going to the capi tal for the regular session. As a member of the ways and means committee, one of the most important in Congress, Mr. Dougaton feels that he will be of more benefit to his party than ever before. "My appointment to the committee I accept as a tribute to my district," Mr. Doughton said. In his committee will ogirinate many of the important questions Congress must decide.

Mr. Doughton said it was probable that tax reductions would be affected by flood relief legislation. It will take millions to make the Mississippi safe, in his opinion, and the amount appropriated for this work may de termine the extent of the tax reduc will get first consideration, these have been increased in instances. It is also possible, he said, that the tax on automobile will be en tirely abolished since the automobile s now a necessity almost. The ways and means committee has been called to meet October 31st, and Mr. Doughton will be in Washington permanently after that date. He expects the approaching meeting of his committee to be an unusually im-

FALLS IN DITCH AND BREAKS LEG TUESDAY EVENING

Employee of Landis Mills Fell Into Newly-Opened Ditch As He Walked From the Mill. William Bradley, of Landis, was rushed to the Concord bospital Tuesday night for treatment after he had fallen into a newly-opened ditch and broke his right leg below the knee, it was said. Mr. Bradley, employee of the Landis Mills, suffered the misfortune about 9 o'clock in the evening, when, in search of another employee, he walked from the mill, stepping into a ditch which had been opened during the day and in which pipes were to be placed, it was reported.

CONCORD COTTON MARKET

LAFFERTY IV AT HIS H DURING I

Well Known Ph Monday Afr of More Th Duration.

and inside incorporated towns, being shaw Holdbrook ried December 5, 180 The deceased was ber of the Present affiliating with Pople ing his members was an elder in f 1,679 cattle (other than milk) of the leaders in Odd Fellow. W. Lafferty, of Ro ters, Mrs. J. T Wa cord, and Misses Sall

> CARS COLLING OCCUPANTS Pat Ritchie's Car in Wreck on M.

> > Road.—One Mar

in Cabarrus Jal

Charlotte; and Mra J damaged. was one of the three me

Chevrolet, which my Rev. R. M. Courts day in Chapel Hill on the Strayed Last Saturby with black spot on in black, other ear black Notify E. E. Lawing nappolis, for liberal B For Sale-One 4-room Be emy street n front d.

brick veneer house in one 6-room house at D. A. McLaurin, Plus

One nine-room home

Church and Barrow

SPECIAL EXCL CINCINNAIL

LOUISVILL