

AGRICULTURAL COLUMN
 R. D. Goodman, County Agent

Carolina Forestry Association at the Sheraton Hotel, High Point, September 21st.

The care of existing woodland and reforestation are questions of immediate and growing importance and should be earnestly studied and thought about. Wood has a distinct value for which nothing can be substituted and has a constantly increasing commercial value. The planting of land that is not suitable for cultivation in timber prevents erosion of the soil, the forming of gullies and conserves the water supply. Not only that, it provides for a future supply of lumber, railroad ties, telephone poles, fence posts, etc., planted to black walnut trees will yield nuts and later the most valuable native timber.

This is really an important matter.

R. D. GOODMAN,
 County Agent.

home coming on last Saturday. Misses Amanda and Eula Coffey, of Charlotte, former teachers in the Stanley Hall School, were week-end guests of friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Furr, Mrs. Bessie Honeycutt and daughter, Miss Ora Lee, Mr. D. A. Treece and family attended services Sunday at Roanoke Baptist Church in Union county.

Rev. E. D. Teeter and Mr. Alex Smith will hold services next Sunday morning with Mrs. J. W. Hartwick and at 2:30 with Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bass.

Mr. Adam Hartsell, of Route 1, met with a painful accident a few days ago. He was cutting tops and in cutting twine in some way the knife went into his eye. We did not learn the extent of the injury.

We know of no term so applicable to the reunion and home coming last Saturday than to say it was simply heavenly. Although tears were mixed with the joys, there was the sweet fellowship, the meeting of schoolmates and old friends not seen before in a quarter of a century, possibly thirty or forty years. It was a feast from start to finish. Nothing to mar the pleasure of those present except the absence of many they expected to see, but were kept away on account of sickness.

The feast of viands has never been equalled in this section. The long table previously prepared was altogether insufficient to hold the good things to eat. After all had eaten a great deal still remained and boxes were sent to the sick in the community.

We are not giving here a list of those who attended, but if any one desires such we will be glad to mail it.

The speakers were: Mr. Titus M. Hartsell, chairman, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Temple, resident teachers, Rev. C. C. Burris, of Wingate, editor A. C. Honeycutt, of Albemarle, Rev. R. F. Honeycutt, Greensboro, C. H. Hartsell, Jackson Springs, Charlie Garmond, Charlotte, Mrs. Ada Burris Shankle, Raeford, Rev. T. F. Honeycutt, Oakboro, all products of Stanley Hall School.

Some of the out-of-town visitors were Mr. John Brawley and wife, his sister, Mrs. Radford and husband, his brother Ben, and his wife, of Mooresville; Mrs. Lizzie Morton Tucker, of Georgia; Messrs. Charlie Garmond, S. J. Nesbit, Mrs. Ida Belle Honeycutt, Misses Eula and Amanda Coffey, teachers, of Charlotte; Mrs. J. F. Furr, Coggin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Little, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Furr, Editor A. C. Honeycutt, Mrs. Addie Burris Casper, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Burris, of Albemarle; W. S. Morton, Matthews, Mrs. Lucy Thomason Cook, Mrs. Welzie Thomason, Monroe; Vernon Hartsell and family, Unionville; Mesdames Minnie Smart Caddill, Mamie Turner Barrier, Miss Mae Shinn, Miss Russell, Melvin Caddill, Lewis Smart, Concord; Mrs. Cora Lewis Stowe, teacher, King's Mountain; Mr. Willie Lewis, Gastonia; C. H. Hartsell and sons, Jackson Springs; Mrs. Cora Harvell Crayton, W. S. Eudy and family, Kannapolis, and all the other villages around furnished representatives.

A group of young folks sang "Dear Old Stanley Hall," composed by Earl H. Hartsell; another group of older people sang "The Little Brown Church in the Vale," a song they sang so often when together in school; then still older folks sang from the old Temple Star. Mr. Dock Dun and Mr. "Bud" Harris, of Oakboro, who many years ago, were singing teachers here, led these songs.

The most touching feature at the close of the exercises came when Mr. Farrington Hartsell, who has been helpless for some time but was able to sit up in a car for awhile, expressed his desire to sing a selection. Always full of life, everyone listened for some dirty or other favorite, but when he began singing "My Latest Sun Is Sinking Fast, My Race Is Nearly Run," his long white beard, his feebleness and his faltering, trembling voice looked it so much that the entire audience was melted at once with tears.

The occasion will probably become an annual affair.

ROBERTA.
 Most of the farmers in this community have started picking cotton. Mrs. E. J. Linker, who has been in the Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte, has returned home and is getting along nicely.

Miss Effie Lefler is confined to her bed with measles. Also little Mildred Dulin has the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack McCall and daughter, Louise, Mrs. Melon, Miss Ollie McCall and Mrs. A. R. Hudson and son, Eugene, of Charlotte, were visitors at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. L. K. McCall Sunday afternoon.

The people of Roberta were sorry to hear of Mrs. Olive's temple falling.

We were glad to hear that Grady Furr was improving Sunday.

Also Plato Smith and Preston McCall are getting along nicely at the Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte.

Miss Helen Engle, of Charlotte, spent the past two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Linker, of White Hall, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Linker.

Mrs. Lula Dry, of Concord, is spending a couple days with Misses Ola and Ida Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Alexander and daughter, Evelyn, spent a while with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kiser near the Oakwood cemetery Saturday night.

Rev. G. L. Hodge preached two very interesting sermons Sunday, September 11th. He preached a wonderful sermon Sunday night, his subject being: "Why Do We Believe the Bible?" Rev. Mr. Knights, of Kinston, was with us. He is very old. We hope that he can come and be with us again.

Mr. Williams, of Kannapolis, who has been elected choir leader of Roberta Baptist Church, will begin a singing school on Monday night, September 26th. There will be preaching Sunday morning, September 18th. Mr. Cannon will preach.

There will be preaching also Sunday morning and Sunday night, September 25th, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Rev. G. L. Hodge will preach. The baptizing will be Sunday afternoon, September 25th, at 2:30 o'clock. Everybody is invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCall and children, of Concord, were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller's Monday evening.

Mrs. Lowder, mother of Mrs. J. E. Alexander, fell Monday, but we hope that she did not get hurt.

FAITH.
 School is starting here this morning with Misses Pearl Fisher, Lizzie McCombs and Ina May Peeler teachers. More teachers will be added later.

W. S. Barger and family, of Kannapolis, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Miller.

Max Miller and family, of Dun's Mountain, spent Sunday here with his brother, G. C. Miller.

So many young people getting married here that Venus can't keep up with them. They slip up on Venus and don't let him know a thing about it. We have just learned that Everett Alexander and Miss Lillian Holobough were married August 21st at St. Paul's parsonage by Rev. Mr. Ridenhour. They are making their home in Salisbury.

Glover Brown and Miss Helen Jones were married August 27th at Lexington by Rev. A. O. Leonard. They kept it a secret until September 10th.

William Jones and Miss Daisy Lyerly were married recently in South Carolina.

Little Miss Bowers, daughter of the late Doctor Bowers, was married recently. They are now at Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lingle's, her grandparents, in Faith.

We have just learned that the Lutheran preacher who lives in the parsonage here has just recently been married to a fine young lady from a distant city. The people here are getting married so fast we can't keep up with them.

The Salisbury Candy Kitchen was crowded today, Sept. 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Webber, Mr. Layman Cauble and Miss Mayone Wilhelm, of Salisbury, spent a delightful evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Wigs. They also attended the supper at the Faith Lutheran church.

Miss Willette Barger, of Kannapolis, spent the week here with her cousin, Miss Estelle Miller.

Quite a few of our young people from here are going to school at Granite Quarry. We have so many young people in high school the bus has to make two trips.

Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Fesperman, of Greensboro, spent last Tuesday here with Mrs. J. L. Peeler.

Duke Rogers has a pair that weighs two pounds and wants to know who can beat it.

When we were at the freight depot in Salisbury today on business we met Miss Ruth Swicegood, the stenographer for the agent. She is one of the prettiest girls we ever saw.

We met J. D. Freeze today, foreman on the Fairmont Tiers apartment now going up. He is a fine clever man and reads Venus items.

We met Leon White, superintendent of the Hardaway Construction Co., Woodleaf, N. C. He ships 25 car loads per day of crushed stone and 20 cars of paving blocks per day.

Mr. White is now drilling a 6-inch well for water at Woodleaf school. He is a clever man who does things. He invited us to visit his plant.

Mrs. Banks Peeler and children visited her parents a few days at China Grove, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Efrid.

We met C. A. Lowder in his car. A fine young man.

Miss Ethel Peeler and Mr. Mault were married July 23, 1927.

Send one dollar to J. T. Wyatt, Salisbury, N. C., Route 3, and get a jar of home-made eczema salve and it will cure your eczema. VENUS.

BOSTIAN CROSS ROADS.

The rock work in this community is not much along now. Everybody is cut off, only so much a week, but we all hope that it will be better before long.

The Sons and Daughters of Liberty No. 54 of Salisbury had their picnic at Ritchie's Lake Thursday evening, September 1st. They all reported a fine time.

The Charity Club No. 1 of Salisbury had its picnic the 28th of August at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Beck. We all surely did have a good time. We had plenty of supper and good watermelons. We had some music and good singing by the crowd. We got to see the old ground hog and two pet squirrels. Mr. and Mrs. Beck are fine, clever people.

Happy and family visited Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Winecoff August 27th. We all had a fine time together.

We all are sorry to hear of the death of J. D. A. Fisher, of Faith. Mr. Fisher certainly was one good Christian man, we all do believe. He leaves a Christian wife, two children and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death. Mr. Fisher was a special friend to Happy Trex. We never in our life passed him in the road or met him anywhere but what he would almost come running to shake hands with us and call us old friend Happy Trex. He often gave us lots of good news to put in the paper.

A large crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cauble last Wednesday night, September 7th. We all had plenty of music together. The band will meet at Happy's home next Wednesday night, September 14th. Everybody is welcome to come and enjoy themselves with us. We will try to give the crowd some music. Happy urges all the members of his band to be sure and come without fail.

The children and grandchildren of Reuben Hellig and wife gave them a birthday dinner September 4th at their home near Shipping's Mill. They have eighteen grandchildren and ten children living. They received lots of nice presents from them. We all hope them many more happy birthdays.

 Mr. J. T. Wyatt,
 Salisbury, N. C.

Dear Sir—Received the eczema salve that I ordered from you, and it is just wonderful what it has done for my baby. He is 20 months old and has had eczema since he was six weeks old, and the salve has given him more relief than anything. We have spent about $500 on him, and I am going to advertise your tablets and salve well in Greensboro. I want you to send me another dollar jar of the homemade eczema salve by return mail.

 Here is a letter we just received:
 Salisbury, N. C., Sept 13.
 Mr. J. T. Wyatt,

R. F. D. 3, Salisbury, N. C.
 Dear Mr. Wyatt: I am enclosing herewith a check which I found on Innis street, of Salisbury this morning and endeavored to find you, going to Tom's Drug Store and other places, but could not locate you. I soon discovered the check was payable to J. T. Wyatt, one of Rowan county's best known men and I am therefore sending this to you.

Sincerely yours,
 W. T. BUSBY.

There is sure one good honest man in Salisbury, as the above letter shows. Mr. Busby is an insurance agent for the county fire insurance Co., of Philadelphia. If another honest man can be found trot him out. There are lots of good honest people in this world.

One man in Salisbury today gave us a mighty good pencil and here is what is printed on it: "Gateway's Stores, Inc. Paints, Varnishes, Oil, etc."

R. M. Candler has a half dollar of 1821 that he trots out to equal the other fellow we mentioned a few days ago. He also has a two dollar note on 9th Street National Bank of New York of 1865. This bank has been out of business for 33 years.

One of those pretty clerks in the Wachovia Bank gave Venus some carbon paper to write his items with. All the papers have Venus' items in them this week. Look them up and see who all got married.

Glover's Lunch was crowded today. It is court week and lots of people are in Salisbury.
