

1,200 PERSONS JOIN AMERICAN RED CROSS IN CABARRUS COUNTY

Although 300 Short of the Assigned Quota, Cabarrus Has Greatest Red Cross Membership in History.

Cabarrus county did not reach the membership quota assigned by national headquarters in the eleventh annual roll call of the American National Red Cross, falling short of the coveted number by 300 persons. However, canvassers of the Cabarrus chapter enrolled 1,200 members, representing the largest membership in Red Cross history of this section.

The campaign to enroll and re-enroll people in the work of the Red Cross was begun on November 11th, concluding Thanksgiving. Intensive efforts to secure a membership of 5,000,000 in the United States were put forth by every unit of the national relief organization. Tabulation of memberships is yet incomplete.

Mrs. W. A. Foil directed the roll call in Cabarrus, being chairman of the local chapter. She mapped out a systematic way of canvassing the city and county, enjoying the help of scores of Concord women in the work.

Throughout the county also, there were women appointed in each community and cross roads to solicit memberships.

Mrs. Foil sought the ultimate goal in the campaign. There was a reluctance by many to give as they said they had given. The flood relief fund, however, is not discouraged by the report she will make to national headquarters. She will say that Cabarrus has never had as many Red Cross members as it has within its borders today.

CAGE TEAMS OF CITY FACE FIRST FOES OF SEASON COMING WEEK

"Y" Quintet Will Do Battle With the Catawba College Five.—Concord High to Meet Wincoff.

With King Football on the verge of being dethroned, the Court-of-Basketball is making ready to hold temporarily the sport world in this section. Next week will bring the first contests of the season for the cagers of Concord high school and the local Y. M. C. A.

A twin bill will inaugurate the season December 9th when the high school quintet will mix it with Wincoff, rural high school of Cabarrus. This is expected to be a lively match as it will have a bearing in the fight for supremacy in the county. Following the high school match the "Y" team will go into action against Catawba College.

The "Y" cagers will play a returned match with Catawba on December 14th and two days later will play Davidson College. Charles C. Nixon, physical director and coach of the quintet, is negotiating with several Y units and colleges for games. A complete schedule will be announced in a few days, he says.

Allred-Moss. Mr. and Mrs. Colon Allred wish to announce the marriage of their daughter Maymie Allred to Mr. Lewis Moss of Kannapolis, on November 26, 1917, York, South Carolina. At home to their many friends in Kannapolis.

Mrs. Cross Entertains. Mrs. L. B. Cross gave a lovely shower Monday night at her home on Kerr street for Mr. and Mrs. James Roland, who were married November 24th. Many delightful games were played after which refreshments were served. There were 35 guests present for the enjoyable occasion and the honorees received many beautiful gifts.

"SLOW-CORN" KEEPS MAN DRUNK DURING ENTIRE WEEK-END

Arrested For Drunkenness Saturday, Stranger Still Too Tipsy For Hearing Monday.

A counter-part on the once famous "slow-gin" of the pre-Volstead days, has evidently been found by some of the moonshine bootleggers of this vicinity.

John Thomas, a stranger, was arrested at the Hartsell Mills section Saturday afternoon by Officer Medlin because he (Thomas) was drunk. He was brought to the county jail, where he spent 4 more or less uneventful week-end, awaiting trial at the Monday afternoon session of recorder's court.

In the custody and with the aid of a county officer, he was brought to the City Hall Monday afternoon for trial but he was too drunk to write his name or sign the necessary papers. Whereupon, he was sent back to his cell with all the time he wants in which to get sobered, and a fine of $10 to occupy his mind when he does.

Jail attendants suggest that he is saving up to be ready for the Yuletide festivities.

THE KANNAPOLIS "Y" PLAYS DRAPER AT KANNAPOLIS TONIGHT

Towelers Have Trained Diligently.—In Gill-edge condition.—Confident of Winning.—The Tilt Starts at 8 O'clock and Good Crowd of Fans Expected to Witness the Fray.

Kannapolis, Nov. 30.—Draper and Kannapolis Y. M. C. A. basketball five meet in their first combat in several years at the local "Y" tonight at 8 o'clock. It will be the Towelers' third contest of the season and a big crowd of fans is expected out to witness the fray.

The local manager expects the sale of tags in this county to reach the 7,500 mark this year, a gain of 1,000 over last year's 6,500 total.

Handsome invitations reading as follows have been received in Concord: "Mr. and Mrs. Marion Francis Wooten request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Katherine to Eliz Baxter Springs, II, on Saturday, the tenth of December, at seven o'clock, Saint Johns Baptist Church, Charlotte, North Carolina."

Enclosed card: "Reception immediately following the ceremony Charlotte Country Club. The favor of a reply is requested."

The wedding will be a brilliant event of the early winter. The bride-elect is one of Charlotte's prettiest and most charming girls. Many pre-nuptial parties have already been given in her honor and others will be given this week and next week.

Miss Penelope Cannon, who will be one of Miss Wooten's attendants, will entertain in her honor Saturday afternoon at her home on North Union Street.

Little Ellen Gives Birthday Party. Ellen Rankin, little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Rankin, gave a party Monday afternoon in celebration of her sixth birthday anniversary.

The afternoon being so lovely the children played games in the yard. Later they were invited into the dining room, where delicious ice cream and cake were served. There, in the center of the table, was a lovely cake, with six lighted candles on top.

Bags of nuts, and candies were given to the children as souvenirs of the delightful occasion.

1928 LICENSE TAG SALE STARTS HERE ON DECEMBER 1ST

R. B. McBride, Local Manager, Advises Car Owners to Shop Early and Avoid the Rush.

State automobile license plates will go on sale here December 1st at the Reid Motor Company, it was announced today by R. B. McBride, manager of the local office of the Carolina Motor Club which distributes the tags throughout North Carolina.

"Shop early" should apply to license plates just as to other holiday purchases, Mr. McBride points out, in order to avoid the rush that inevitably comes the last week or so before the law requires plates to be placed on cars which is January 1st. R. A. Doughton, motor vehicle commissioner, this year refused to sanction extension of time to procure plates, thereby sweeping aside a custom that had been in vogue several years and advices from headquarters of the Carolina Motor Club state that he will grant no extension this license time.

Plates must be placed on automobiles January 1st or after, according to the law passed by the last Legislature placing the license system on a calendar instead of a fiscal year basis. It is unlawful to use January 1st plates prior to January 1st.

The white registration card used for the past two years as an application card for license and familiar to most car owners has been mailed from Raleigh and car owners are urged to preserve this card and present it early as possible after license go on sale. This card, however, is not absolutely necessary to procure license, Mr. McBride says, provided the applicant can produce clear title to the car. A form is then filled in and license issued immediately.

In addition to license services, complete touring and road information will be available at the local office of the Carolina Motor Club. Touring information, maps and tour books are gratis to members of the club while non-members may secure the service upon payment of a nominal charge.

The local manager expects the sale of tags in this county to reach the 7,500 mark this year, a gain of 1,000 over last year's 6,500 total.

RAILROAD SCHEDULE

Table with columns: In Effect December 20, 1927, and Train No. Lists routes to various cities like Washington, New York, etc.

All trains stop in Concord except No. 32 northbound.

A total of $110 in fines and costs were imposed upon nine defendants at the regular Monday afternoon session of Recorder's Court at City Hall.

Cuyler, star outfielder with the Pittsburgh Pirates, has been traded to the Chicago Cubs. Two youngsters were traded by Chicago for the star, who was kept on the bench most of last season due to a run-in with the Pittsburgh management.

Temperatures in Concord again Monday were unseasonably high. The average for the day was more than 70 degrees, with but a slight drop in the mercury during the night.

The program for the concert to be given here Friday night by the Glee Club of Davidson College will be the most comprehensive ever attempted by a Davidson musical organization.

Harry Schwartz, of Charlotte, most unanimous choice as All-State center on this year's mythical eleven, was elected captain of the 1928 University of North Carolina football team at a banquet given the 1927 squad Monday night at Chapel Hill. Schwartz will be a senior next year.

Canvassers in the Tuberculosis Christmas Seal drive reported excellent progress at the end of their first day of work in the business and residential sections of the city, many dollars worth of seals being sold. The drive will continue until December 24th.

A regular meeting of the Fred Y. McConnell Post of the American Legion will be held Friday night in the club room on Barbriek street. Members who have not yet renewed for next year are asked to take their dues to the meeting which will be given at 7:45.

Several Concord Legionnaires, including Zeb Thornburg, post commander, W. M. Sherrill and James Caldwell, plan to go to Albemarle this evening to attend a banquet given by the post of that city. It is probable that one or two others from Concord will attend also.

N. C. State College will wind up the 1928 gridiron season in North Carolina when it meets the strong aggregation from Michigan State in an intersectional tilt at Raleigh Saturday afternoon. Many local fans are planning to motor down to see Jack McDowall perform in the last game of his college career.

The New York Giants will train in Augusta, Ga., next season, according to Stove League gossip from New York. McFaraw's men have trained in Sarasota, Fla., for the past four years and the change would indicate that their leader is not altogether satisfied with results obtained there. The training period will begin on March 1st.

Dutch Ruether and Bob Shawkey, veterans of the New York Yankee pitching staff, have been unconditionally released to make room for new talent, it was announced yesterday by Ed Barrow, secretary of the Yankees. Shawkey may be retained as a coach and it is probable that Ruether, who was effective most of last season, will sign a contract with another major league outfit before the training season begins.

Deeds Recorded Here Monday. The following deeds of real estate transactions in the county were recorded Monday at the office of the register of deeds in the court house: W. T. Adams to E. D. Childers for $40, lot No. 2 in Villamont Heights, George W. Hudson to A. B. Palmer for $100 and other considerations of value, property in No. 6 township. D. A. Beaver to G. H. Bost for $2,500, property near Rocky River in Cabarrus county.

W. J. Cline to W. M. Hilton for $600, property in No. 4 township. F. W. Pharr to E. F. Cooch for $600, property in No. 11 township.

Engagement Announced. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Dixon Barber, of Mount Pleasant, North Carolina, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred Juanita, to Mr. John Henry McDaniel, of Mount Pleasant, North Carolina, the wedding to take place on the third of January.

Mrs. J. S. Walker has returned from the Charlotte Sanatorium where she was a patient for six weeks. She has as her guest now Mrs. Charles T. Rogers, of Sanford.

LAX SHOE CAUGHT BY OFFICERS IN LINCOLN COUNTY

Youth Is Being Held in Jail Here on Charges of Larceny and Assault With Deadly Weapon.

Lax Shoe, Concord youth who eluded pursuit after wrecking, with Robert Furr, who was caught, the automobile belonging to Miss Ruth Dry at the intersection of Spring and West Depot streets. Sunday night, was captured in Lincoln county Monday and returned to this city Monday night by local police officers. He was lodged in jail in default of $500 bond.

Both Shoe and Furr got away from the car which they had stolen and wrecked, but Furr was caught hiding on the North Spring street. Shoe escaped until surveillance until Monday, when by the local police department served to form a dragnet that speedily caused his apprehension. Lincoln county authorities found him and two police officers from this city drove over and brought him back.

Just how the modern youthful portrayer of Jesse James made his way so far from this city is not known. Up until Tuesday he had not told anything that would indicate the manner of his escape. Nor had he made a confession similar to that made by Furr.

Police officials think that both boys, with Shoe the aggressor, have been responsible for many of the "temporary" thefts of automobiles from their parking places in and near the city that have occurred lately. Furr, in his confession, said as much to Chief of Police Talbirt.

The two boys will be tried here on Friday, December 2nd.

CAPTAINED BY KANNAPOLIS, BOY, CHRIST SCHOOL HAS SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Frank Walker, Towler Town Chap. Pilots Football Team at Arden to Six Wins Out of Seven Starts.—Weaver College Only Outfit to Cross 20 Yard Line.—Full Blooded Eskimo, Believed to Be Only Alaskan in South Playing Football, Member of Team.

Kannapolis, Nov. 30.—Over at Arden in western North Carolina, Christ School, which has turned out such brilliant athletes as Nettles, now at Citadel; Red Whisenunt, Gastonia High coach; and Walk Shuford, mentor of Biltmore high school, has closed an unusually successful football season.

From mediocre material at his command, due to the graduation of the stellar lights from the team of 1928, the coach, Dick Fayssoux, brother of the nationally known slight-of-hand wizard, developed a strong combination, unusually so for his weight. It played with vim and dash, winning six out of seven games during the season.

Defensively the team ranked with the best scholastic contingents in that part of the state. The linemen were fast and played the game soundly. The backfield also backed them up effectively. Offensively the team was remarkable. In Walker, Clayton, Eason and John the team had four stars. Frank Walker, Kannapolis boy, captained the eleven throughout the season. He was highly rated by competent critics, the Asheville sports scribes making mention of him everytime the team played a game.

Christ School started the season by crushing the Robert E. Lee outfit to the tune of 33 to 0. Black Mountain High was battled in the next combat and was taken in to wit by 39 to 0. A winning streak was maintained by bouncing Biltmore Junior College, 24 to 0; Biltmore High School, 19 to 0; and Lenoir High, 18 to 0. The Christ schoolers came out of the Lenoir game all battered up, and with a couple ends playing at the guard positions and one halfback at tackle they lost to the Weaver College pack by a crushing count of 63 to 0, which was the only time their goal line was trampled on. The season was ended in a wave of glory when the Christ proteges handed out a 12 to nothing defeat to the Asheville school for boys.

Two other games were claimed by forfeiture as Blue Ridge and Asheville High failed to live up to their contract and cancelled scheduled games after the season was well underway.

Fayssoux's team weight was very light compared to the average prep school. The line averaged about 165 pounds and the backfield averaged less than 145 pounds. However, gaining through this line were few and far between so to speak. Weaver College being the only team to cross Christ's 20-yard boundary. One hundred and forty-five points were registered against 63 for the opponents.

The team's line-up for the year was as follows: Simmons, left end; Mitchell, left tackle; Ingle, left guard; Redd, center; N. Rumfelt, right guard; J. Rumfelt, right tackle; J. Walker (of Kannapolis) right end; Johnson, quarterback; F. Walker (also of Kannapolis), left halfback; Eason, right halfback; and Clayton, fullback. Able reserves were found in William New, Toby Guerrant and Charles Charlton, a full-blooded Eskimo, who came to Christ School several years ago from Alaska. He is believed to be the only Eskimo playing football in the southern part of the United States.

Costs That Cost Fortunes. New York, Nov. 25.—Furs of all kinds promise to be just as popular this season as they have been in past years, and furriers are considerably alarmed by the acute shortage of some of the more expensive pelts. The imitation skins that go into the making of the cheaper fur coats are plentiful enough but the genuine pelts of those animals that always have been rare are now practically unobtainable.

Sables of the finest quality have become exceedingly rare—an English woman of fashion paid $30,000 for a coat made of the Russian skins only a week or two ago. Faultless mink pelts are also hard to get, and a number of these can cost as much as $15,000 when made up as a coat.

But the rarest and most expensive fur of all is the silvergrey chinchilla. Even the world's leading carriers have to collect these exquisite pelts one by one, it taking anything up to twelve years to procure enough perfect skins for a coat. Today such a garment is almost priceless, and there are only a very few on sale.

Ernest Walker has gone to Beamus, Tenn., where he will spend several months.

DAVIDSON MUSICIANS TO GIVE CONCERT IN CONCORD FRIDAY EVE

Local Chapter of King's Daughters Sponsors Appearance of Glee Club and Orchestra Here.

Music lovers of Concord anticipate with enthusiasm the appearance of the glee club and orchestra of Davidson College at the high school auditorium here Friday evening, December 2nd. These musical organizations will present their concert program under the auspices of the local chapter of King's Daughters.

The Davidson glee club and orchestra have been preparing since the beginning of the academic year for their tour of North Carolina and adjoining states, arranging a program of varied numbers to please the most critical of audiences. Advance reports emanating from the campus of the Presbyterian institution pronounce these music groups even better than last year.

The Concord chapter of King's Daughters considers itself fortunate to secure the Davidson musicians early in the concert season, and extends a cordial invitation to the public to hear them. Tickets may be purchased from members of the King's Daughters chapter.

CONSTRUCTION BEGUN ON NEW SCHOOL BUILDING AT KANNAPOLIS

All Preliminary Work Completed and Actual Construction Begun.—Will Be Two Stories in Height, Have Twelve Classrooms and Auditorium.—To Be Completed by September, 1928.—New School to Be Named in Honor of Charles Aycock, North Carolina's Educational Governor.—Other Kannapolis News.

Kannapolis, Nov. 30.—After many days of clearing the ground, breaking the ground, surveying and the like, actual construction of the new grammar school building for Kannapolis has begun. The site is on lower Ridge Avenue, better known as Glass Street.

The building will cost $30,000, the contract having been awarded to J. L. Beam, of Albemarle, several days ago. The expenditure for the building will be $1,871.75 while the heating fixtures in the building will be installed for the sum of $3,588.

The new building will be two stories in height and of fireproof construction, only the window frames and doors to be of wood. There will be twelve classrooms, several private offices and an auditorium that will seat between three hundred and four hundred persons. The project will fill a long-felt need, as the children of that section of Kannapolis are now attending school in dwelling houses.

The new school will be named in honor of Charles Aycock, "the educational governor of North Carolina." It will be completed by September of next year.

New Police Uniforms Ordered. Members of the police force of this city will appear soon in brand new uniforms, all decked out in gala attire of cadet caps, shiny blue suits and brass buttons, similar to those worn by the cops in the big cities. An order for these uniforms, six in number, was placed yesterday by Chief of Police John L. Boger. In measuring up the officers for their new uniforms Chief Boger found them to be all sizes and shapes. The weight of each man was sent in as follows: John L. Boger, 260 pounds. W. L. Tesh, 203 pounds. I. T. Chapman, 200 pounds. Frank Rogers, 195 pounds. Love Nusseman, 190 pounds. J. A. Hinson, 176 pounds.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Funeral arrangements for Oliver Viola Overcash, 22-year-old suicide victim of the Enochville neighborhood, had not been made last night, according to information received here.

James Price, 14-year-old son of Jim Price, manager of the City Barber Shop, is recovering from a shotgun wound received while out hunting Friday afternoon with a companion. James was injured when the gun, pointing toward his foot with the safety off, was accidentally discharged.

Among the candidates out for the Christ School basketball team is Jimmy Walker, Kannapolis boy, whom coaches in western North Carolina believe covers more floor than any other running guard in scholastic circles of that part of North Carolina. The Christ School quint is expecting a bumper season, opening their campaign about December 6th and closing it three months later.

Miss Grace Fowler has returned to her home at Great Falls, S. C., after a visit to her sister, Mrs. James Sappenfield.

Mrs. James Mellon delightfully entertained her bridge club yesterday afternoon.

FORBES LEAVES PRISON TO START OVER AGAIN

Wants "To Correct Erroneous Impression" of President Harding. Leavenworth, Kans., Nov. 26.—(AP)—Announcing his most important mission in life would be to "correct the erroneous impression the public has been given of President Harding," Colonel Charles R. Forbes today returned to civilian life after completing service on a two-year term in the federal penitentiary here.

The 49-year old former director of the United States Veterans' Bureau, who was convicted in Chicago in 1925 of defrauding the government in handling contracts for veterans' hospital beds was released at midnight. Clad in a neat business suit, his hat concealing his gray hair, he emerged from the prison gates with a firm step, in marked contrast to his profession of civil engineering in surveying penitentiary property, and even in wielding a hammer and a saw in construction work apparently had restored him to the health he enjoyed in a long army career.

He paused only long enough to issue a statement on his plans for the future—before entering an automobile with a newspaper man of St. Louis. His statement dealing largely with recommendations for handling prisoners in various types of penal institutions, concluded with the announcement he "had startling facts to reveal relative to his connection with the Harding administration."

109 MEASLES CASES DEVELOP IN COUNTY IN SPACE TEN DAYS

Twenty-Two New Cases Reported in Past Three Days —Measles Storming Many Counties of State.

Although members of the Cabarrus Health department are waging a desperate battle to curb the spread of measles in the county, the disease adds new victims to its list daily, 22 new cases having developed during the last three days. The alarming number of 109 cases has appeared in the last ten days.

Cabarrus is among the many counties of the state, which, at this time, are troubled with the measles menace. There seems to be a statewide battle against it as from all sections there comes reports of increasing numbers of new cases. Charlotte is now fighting to avert an epidemic.

Roberta Mill village is the last community to report the appearance of measles in Cabarrus, according to health officials. Since June this county has been the target for measles and each subsequent month has seen a rapid increase of measles cases until the numbers reached epidemic proportions.

A period of four years had elapsed since Cabarrus was bothered with measles until the past summer when the malady renewed its troubles. The disease is not prevalent among adults but among children ranging in ages from two to 12 years. The disease is also characterized as being mild.

Scarlet fever has appeared in the county from time to time since the advent of the fall season but the authorities have been able to keep it within check. During the past three days three cases of this disease have been reported, and prompt action taken by the health unit to quarantine.

Let Radio Do It All. Wireless is really pretty wily, declares Rose Macaulay, writing in the December number of the Forum magazine. She describes the mass of coils and aerials and other mechanisms that surround the average radio set as simply "wires" and describes it as "the tangle, as of nests of vipers, which crawls profusely about my own set and runs down my passage."

But she draws a dizzying picture of a future of effortless ease, all of which is to come through the advance of radio.

"Yes, everything should be done for us," she writes in her Forum article. "Why not?" It is rumored that we may soon have rushing into our homes over the wires all kinds of domestic help. Unseen power will come at our need and will clean our rooms, wash our dishes, cook our food, run up meals to our armchairs on electrically propelled tables, make our beds, turn on our baths, divest us of our clothes and dress us again, shave us, wash us, do our hair, and fling us into bed.

"And as to our recreations, why should we not have dinner parties wireless on an evening, instead of salting out from our homes to the homes of others? Tune us in on any dinner party where there is jollity, wit, the feel of reason, and the flow of soul, transmit to us the taste of savory viands (this should be a simple business) and let us sit and enjoy the evening without trouble."

THREE MOTOR-METERS STOLEN FROM CARS IN FRONT OF Y. M. C. A.

Thieves Display An Artistic Temperament in Storing All But Emblazoned Decorations.

Owners of emblematic or artistic motor-meters are warned to lock their cars or else to have them entirely before parking, for the length of time on North Union street at night.

Three have been reported in raids of the section in front of the Y. M. C. A. Monday night, each instance the meter was damaged—one with a stick, one with the other with the golden "D" emblem, which annually costs local owners many dollars, is being organized for periodical thefts, everything that can be easily detached from motors parked in the downtown sections.

This is, however, the first time thieves have exhibited an artistic temperament.
