Worst Epidemic of Measles in County's History Keeps the Health Forces Working Overtime.

Cabarrus county is in the throes of the worst epidemic of measles in the history of this section, medical and health forces combining efforts "Chateau Thierry and to check the scourge. New cases of measles have been developing at the average of 17 each day during the past ten days, a tabulation of health records showing that 170 cases have appeared in less than two weeks. Showing the widespread attack of the disease, the 18 cases reported Friday are in more than a dozen outferent communities of the county. The health authorities of Cabarrus have gbeen waging war against meas les since early summer, and each week has seen increased effort.
