

BEREA GAZETTE.

Berea, Saturday, June 8, 1878.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

If you mean business, advertise in the GAZETTE!

The campaign has opened and officers are in the field.

A whole week court is pretty well for Berea.

Col. Geo. Wortham was in town this week on business.

Harvest will soon be here and the reapers will go forth.

The weather is not settled yet. Last Thursday was quite cool.

Isam Hill's school ended yesterday, Friday—it was a free school.

A. R. Slaughter has not been called off on duty this week as much as a few weeks back.

Mr. C. H. Smith, J. P., was in town all this week attending to business of a legal character.

Our sermon was illumined with bright and cheerful face of Miss Pattie Fuller last Thursday.

Subscribe, only 50c a year.

We have not heard from the Revenue officials since last week. They did a lot of business, but they were numerous (no. g.) to do big things. Whew what a crowd.

A grand Tournament ride is to come off at Holloway's Cross Roads, in Person county, next Monday, it being the tenth of June and holiday. We return thanks for being kindly remembered.

L. J. Fuller, of the firm of J. N. Fuller & Bro., attended the Grand Closing Exercises of the schools of Miss Lillie Milliken and Mr. — Ragsdale, near Wilton, last week. Mr. Fuller reports this to be the grandest school exhibition that he ever saw. Speeches and dialogues were served to make the day pass off pleasantly.

Otho Wilson, proprietor of Wilson's nursery, near Henderson, N. C., was in town this week selling his trees. He had fine peaches with him—we tender our many thanks for the one he gave us. It was in the best taste we ever received a present.

Mr. Thomas Lyon was in town Thursday for the purpose of availing himself of the benefits derived from the mineral properties of our mineral water. This place is fast becoming popular.

Bl. D. R. Moore will preach at old Tar River on Wednesday before the first Sunday in July. If it's the Lord's will.

The Rev. Mr. Gibbons will preach at Mt. Zion the fifth Sunday in this month.

Walter Daniel, Col., was committed to jail last week for breaking in the dwelling house of G. W. Dean and then in a trunk and stealing some money.

Coming Home.

Miss Nannie B. Meadows and Miss Corinna P. Day are to arrive at their homes this evening (Friday) from Thomasville, where they have been at school for the past year. Coming with the June roses, to impart a fresh life to things around the old homestead, and gladden the hearts of father and mother.

W. T. Lyon.

This gentleman will be at this place on the 15th of June on his way home from Trinity College, at which he has spent the past year in study. Mr. Lyon is a gentleman and thought highly of by all who know him. His friends will be surprisingly glad to see him.

We think there is one bachelor,
Within Berea's bound,
That, before this year has gone,
Will move a wife to town.

The war news from Europe has of late got to be as unreliable and contradictory as can well be. One day's despatches almost invariably contradict those of the day before, and all look like the guesswork of eager news agents who have no really authentic news.

An old salt, when asked how he felt during a recent severe gale which he encountered at sea, and during which the ship was in great peril, replied, in all sincerity and simplicity, Why what will the poor fellows on shore do now?

A purchaser of a riverside property asked the estate agent if the river didn't sometimes overflow its banks. Well, responded he, it isn't one of those sickly streams that are always confined to their beds.

ADVERTISEMENTS

LANDIS'S TYPE

RENOVATOR

AN AMATEUR DISCOVERY!

The undersigned is the discoverer of a new process by which type can always be kept as bright as silver. A pack will be sent post-paid for twenty-five cents. Directions sent with every order. This is no fraud, but a good, practical type cleaner, and is much better than lye or benzine. Five pounds, and over, at ten c. a lb. It is designed for amateur use.

Give it a trial.

Yours fraternally, D. B. Landis,
Proprietor, Landisville, Pa.
