PRIZE ESSAYS

TO AMERICAN AUTHORS.

A GREAT opportunity is hereby afforded to American writers for the best essays in defence of the American Party, illustrating the beneficial ends to be accomplished by the adoption of its principles in the construction of the various branches of our State and Federal governments.

The compositions to be submitted to three disinterested and eminent judges: Wm. M. Burwell, Esq., Editor of the Concord Patriot; James H. Wilson, Esq., late Commissioner or the General Land Office.

The best Essay, in the opinion of the Judges, to be awarded a prize of $100, the next best $50.

All compositions for competition are to be submitted to the use of the advertiser, who will not bind himself to return any rejected papers. Essays will be received from the date of this notice until November 1st, when the awards will be made, and the names of the successful essays published.

Contents must distinctly understand that their efforts MUST NOT be published in a space of more than one column of the Weekly Patriot, unless otherwise they may be rejected. All Essays to be addressed to

PROSPECTUS OF THE LEXINGTON & YADKIN FLAG.

Having engaged the services of James A. Long as Editor, I have commenced the publication, in the town of Lexington, of a weekly paper, called the Lexington and Yadkin Flag.

The Flag will be devoted to Political, Social, Literary, Agricultural, and Mechanical Literature, and Manufacturing interests of the country.—And although Whig Principles will be advocated, yet its columns will always be open to all parties for a free and fair discussion of the principles of their country, it being the object and design of the publisher to correct error and disseminate truth. The Flag will also advocate the doctrine that native born Americans are citizens of the United States.

And although Whig Principles will be advocated, yet its columns will always be open to all parties for a free and fair discussion of the principles of their country, it being the object and design of the publisher to correct error and disseminate truth.

At a communication held at the residence of the editor, it was resolved to publish the paper in advance; Two dollars and fifty cents if payment be delayed 2 months and three dollars if not paid.

LABORERS WANTED.

A NUMBER of laborers is wanted at the Flour Mill of M. M. Ballo, on Broad Street, Concord, N. C. Price 50 cents per cord. Apply at the Mill.

PROSPECTUS OF THE N. C. CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

THE North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, having determined to issue a weekly paper bearing the above name, the publishers are authorized to issue this Prospectus.

It is intended to publish a Family Newspaper, which, while it shall be religious in tone and sentiment, and maintain the doctrines and usages of the Methodist Episcopal Church, shall be devoted to ALL THE INTERESTS OF

NORTH CAROLINA.

And furnish intelligence for every class of readers. In size and appearance, the paper will be as practical as the most useful and popular of our Church papers, while it will surpass them all in adaptability to the wants of our people.

The Advocate will be published at $1.50 a year, and the first number will be issued as early as practicable after the meeting of our Conference. It is believed that the publication will be commenced on the 1st day of January 1856. It is desirable that as large a subscription as possible be obtained before the Conference, and the Ministers and all others interested in the enterprise are respectfully urged to secure and forward the names and addresses of subscribers, particularly attention being paid to correctness in writing the names of Persons, Postoffices and Counties. Those who have no opportunity of subscribing through the agency of our ministers may wish directly to Rev. Wm. E. Bell, Raleigh, N. C.

The payment will be extended upon the issue of the 1st number. The location of the publishing office will be determined at the session of Conference.
