Notwithstanding the dry hot weather the health of Danbury continues good We don't think there has been a single case of fever in town this summer, and but little diarrhot, or any other sickness.

Departed this life August 19th, 1881. Zebulon T Mabe, son of P. H. Mabe Esq., age one year and 7 months. Little Zabe has been called home to the spirit world, his soul has taken its flight. and only the casket that held the jewel is permitted to linger for a moment with sorrowing parents and friends.

All the Danbury hotels have been well patronized during the hot weather, except the White House, kept by deputy sheriff Whitten, who, notwithstarding board is furnished at his house without even so much as the asking, has not a single boarder at this time. Our jail is

We knew that it is said "when you are in Rome de as Rome does," but it seem to us that Presbyterians kneeling at a Methodist meeting to pray, or Methodists standing to pray at a Presbyterian meeting are not worshiping God agreesble to the dictates of their own consciences. We don't believe in putting on style when one goes to pray.

YE LOCALS.—'Tis hard when a follow doesn't feel like talking, to be compelled to spin uninteresting yarns to a crowd of men who are not in the least interested in what he is saying, but this is nothing in comparison to having the printers devil yell out every five minutes, "bring on yer locals," when a fellow has none, don't feel like writing, and has nothing to write about.

Some of the State papers are now advocating the plan to put down drunkenness recommended by the REPORTER be fore the prohibitory bill passed the legislature. That is, educate the people to a higher standard of moral worth, let the good everywhere frown upon excessive liquor drinking and drunkenness, and especially can the ladies do more toward utting it down than a hundred Probibitory laws. Keep the dirt from your

Is IT POSIBLE That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., make so many and such marvelous and won-derful cures as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editer, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no lenger.— Post.

In either dry or liquid from it is a perfect remedy for torpid liver, kidneys or bowels .- Exchange.

Resolutions of Respect

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Supreme Architect of the universe to summor from his labors upon earth, our beloved brother Beverly Powell, calling him by which awaits all who are toiling in this earthly temple, and whereas the Masonic ties which have so long bound us in mutual friendship and enjoyment to our departed friend are severed no more to be united until the day when the grave shall yield up its dead; therefore, Resolved, That we sincerely mourn this disruption of covenanted friendship, bearing in tender remembrance his fidelity to Masonry, and his devotion to the principles it inculcates

Resolved, That we earnestly sympa-thize with the relations and friends of our deceased brother, and tender them that consolation which the world can that consolation which the world can neither give nor take away, and that we will wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of our deceased brother, and inserted in the Danbury REPORTER, with request for the Western Sentinel to copy.
