Occurrences in and Around Danbury, and County Matters Briefly Told.

"A child's name you take in notes, And, faith, he'll print it."

This is the warmest day of the season.

He who honors not age, is unworthy of it.

Everybody is wiser after the thing has happened.

Nothing is more like an honest man than a rogue.

He that does you an ill turn will never forgive you.

Rev. P. Oliver will preach in this place next Sunday.

Mr. E. W. Blair and family are visiting relatives in Surry.

He who excuses himself, without being accused, makes his fault manifest.

There is not so much sickness in this county as there was a few weeks back.

Most of the farmers in Stokes planted a part of their tobacco crop this week.

Our farmers are planting too much tobacco. We fear that it will be very low next year.

We have several communications on hand which we will publish as soon as we can spare the space.

The hate which we all bear with the most Christian patience, is the hate of those who envy us.

Rev. C. G. Dodson, pastor of the Methodist church in Winston, died in that place on last Saturday night.

If the season is favorable there will be an unusually large crop of cabbage and Irish potatoes made in Stokes this year.

The Statesville Landmark has been enlarged to a thirty-six column paper. It was before one of the best papers in the State, and it is now better than ever.

A mortgage was recorded in Danbury last week on 12 acres of corn, 10 acres of wheat, and twenty acres of tobacco.

The system of farming practiced in Stokes would soon ruin any people.

We learn from the mail carrier that the engineers on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad have passed Germantown, running the line on the south side of the town.

How about the State Exposition? Will we have a meeting here the first Monday in June and petition the Commissioners to make a small appropriation, or just let the thing pass? Surely not! surely not!!

A Prestonville correspondent writes that Winston's subscription of $11,200, for a bridge across Dan river at Hairston's ford, will be supplemented by the private subscriptions of the citizens of that community. It is thought that enough money can be raised and the bridge let to contract at an early day.

"Does Science Destroy Love of Nature?" asks an exchange. It does. Once upon a time a scientist invented a flying machine, and after his first trial not only his love of nature, but his love of art was also destroyed. A fall of 60 feet, from the roof of a building, in the interest of science, is apt to destroy anybody's love of nature.

FOR RENT OR LEASE.—Pepper & Sons having more business on hand than they can well attend to, will rent for one year or lease for several years, their tanyard at this place. They have in tan about 600 pieces of leather, which is over half tanned, and several packs of hides to work in, which they will either sell or pay for tanning. They will also rent their circular saw-mill near the tanyard.

We inadvertently failed to mention in our last issue the death of Col. A. J. Steadman, of Patrick Court House, Va., which sad event occurred at that place on the 8th inst. Col. S. was for a number of years a citizen of this place, where he followed the practice of law and teaching. He is a near relative of Maj. Charles Steadman, of this State, who is very prominently mentioned as the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor.

It is proposed to organize a company for the manufacture of fertilizers at Danbury. No doubt it would be a good move, as the people seem determined on using it. If our farmers would manufacture their own fertilizers it would not cost more than half as much as it does at present. The chemicals to make a ton will cost only about $12, and if bought in large quantities can be had for even less than that. The State Chemist, who analyzes every brand sold in the State and knows which brand or what ingredients compose the best for any crop, will furnish a formula.

WEEK'S DOINGS IN DANBURY.

Neighborhood Cossip and Little Nethings.

Thursday, May 16th.—The day is clear and cool.—Farmers complain that the ground is getting dry and hard in many places.—Not many people in town, and nothing of general interest to note.

Friday, 16th.—The day is bright and pleasant.—Several strangers in town, looking after the undeveloped resources of this section. A Pennsylvania miner and chemist is here, said to be in the interest of a New York Iron company. He has examined the mines, and expressed himself as being well pleased with the prospects.—Considerable number of county men in town, talking tobacco, fence law, &c.—Trade seems to be improving, and merchants tell us that money appears more plentiful.—The Pepper Mining Co. received a load of fine mica today from the Hawkins mine. They report prospects very flattering at several of the mines.

Saturday, 17th.—Pleasant today, but not so warm as farmers would like it to be.—Considerable number of county men and strangers in town today, including several drummers.—Trade seems to have been brisk today. Fertilizers cannot be delivered fast enough to supply the demands.—Mr. T. R. Pepper, of the firm of Vaughn and Pepper, together with several other young men of Winston, are here, on their way to Russell's Creek Association.

Monday, 19th.—Yesterday was a pleasant, quiet day in Danbury. Sunday school in the morning, after which a number of our citizens attended preaching at Flint Hill, Rev. Mr. Monrinn's appointment, one mile south of this place.—Today is warm, with heavy banks of clouds hanging above the horizon on every side, or drifting before the wind. The indications are for rain.—Considerable number of people in town.—Mr. James Rierson, sr., passed here today on a visit to his old home.

Mr. R., though nearly ninety, seems hale and hearty.—Trade seems to have been good today. In addition to the goods sold, a considerable quantity of fertilizer has been hauled away, and a large amount sold to be delivered at the depot in Winston.—Delightful rain late this evening.—Mr. R. C. Taylor left today to join the corps of engineers locating the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad west of Walnut Cove.—Mess. W. W. King and A. H. Joyce have returned from Forsyth court. We are sorry to learn that Mr. King's horse was so badly founedered that he could not get him home.

Tuesday, 20th.—The day is bright and pleasant.—The shower yesterday evening seemed to give new life to vegetation, and everything looks as bright and fresh as a May morning.—Quite a number of tobacco plants were transplanted yesterday evening and this morning.—Some of our people are having new Irish potatoes. Onions and lettuce are about all most of us can have.—Mr. R. B. Glenn returned from Forsyth court this evening.—But few people in town today.

Wednesday, 21st.—Cool and clear this morning, but warm later in the day.—Farmers are in a rush, cleaning out corn and getting tobacco land ready.—The river is very muddy today, showing that there was more rain higher up than here.—But few county men in town and locals are scarce.—Some of our people are cutting grass, which appears to be fine.

Don't

Don't shake a hornet's nest to see if any of the family are at home.

Don't try to take the right of way from an express train at a railroad crossing.

Don't talk back to a woman who handles a fire shovel with grace and dexterity.

Don't go near a draft, if a draft comes toward you run away. A light draft is the most dangerous.

Don't blow in the gun your grandfather carried in the war of 1812. It is more dangerous now than it was then.

Don't try to persuade a bull dog to give up a yard of which it is in possession. Possession to a bull dog is ten points of the law.

Don't eat things after you have enough because you fear they'll go to waste; such a custom will bring you too much to waist yourself.

Don't go to bed with your boots on. This is one of the most unhealthy practices that a man, especially a married man, can be addicted to.

Don't call a very large, sinewy man a prevaricator, hire another man to break the news to him.

Don't put an old bombshell in the stove to amuse the audience. You may not linger here below to enjoy the applause, even if you should win any.

Don't, when gunning, put the pipe you have been smoking into the pocket where you are carrying your powder, unless you have a very strong constitution and another suit of clothes.

ELEGANCE AND PURITY.—Ladies who appreciate elegance and purity are using Parker's Hair Balsam. It is the best article sold for restoring gray hair to its original color, beauty and lustre.

Pepper & Sons buy goods in the best markets, from manufacturers in many cases, and are thus enabled to sell them as low as anybody dare to.

A CARD.

Whereas I lost some money in the house of A. Marks, and whereas something was said by me in anger against the house of Marks calculated to do him injustice, now this is to certify that I have recovered back my money, that I found not in the possession of Mr. Marks, but upon another person, and I do hereby say that I exonerate Mr. Marks from knowing anything about the taking of said money, but believe in all things pertaining to the matter that he has acted fairly and honestly. I write this so that no injustice may be done a man who never wronged me.

Signed and acknowledged before me this 14th day of May, A. D., 1884.
