A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

Entered at the Danbury N. C., Post-office as Second Class Matter.

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1885.

A milk and butter fair is to be held at Raleigh before long.

A man in Davie county killed a few fine hogs by giving them an unusual quantity of salt in their slop.

A youth of 17 years is the engineer in charge of a material train on the Western North Carolina Railroad.

The Cherokee Indians, living in this State, have brought suit for lands in the Indian Territory valued at about $2,000,000.

Hon. J. W. Reid's address at Chapel Hill commencement is highly complimented. The Statesville Landmark pronounces it a masterpiece.

It takes about an hour to burn up a body in the Lancaster, Pa., crematory. About twenty corpses have already been reduced to ashes at that establishment.

It is thought there will be at least two thousand persons in the State entitled to pensions under the pension act. You may put down our guess at more than twice that number.

The Asheville Advance tells of a man in Buncombe county who handles rattlesnakes like red worms and who will hold up a poisonous lizard by the tail, drop it in his mouth and clamp it up.

A correspondent of the New York Sun, who has been overhauling the court records of Fairfax county, Virginia, finds that George Washington, of Mount Vernon, was presented by a Fairfax grand jury "for not keeping his roads in order."

Let it be remembered that all persons entitled to pensions under the late act of the Legislature must file their applications with the Clerk of the Superior Court on or before the first Monday in July.

Mr. Sing Patterson, of Mt. Airy, denies in the News, of that place, in its issue of last week, a statement in the paper of the week before, that all of his family was down with the measles. He says he has taken the census and found only one of them prostrated.

When Congressman Scott, of Erie, Pa., was told by Secretary of State Bayard to file the papers of one of his constituents who was an applicant for a consularship, he replied that he had filed a check for $25,000 last fall to help elect the administration, and that was all the papers he intended to file.

Alexander Hubbard, of Milwaukee, Wis., who swallowed a silver dollar several weeks ago, is getting along much better than would be expected after suffering such a peculiar and dangerous accident. He is not confined to his room at present, although his throat pains him considerably. He eats everything he wants in addition to a regular diet of flax seed three times a day. He has lost nine pounds of flesh in the last eleven days.

Mr. S. G. Verria, of Berrien county, Ga., has a female mule which has been pulling a plow for him for thirty-three years, said mule being now in her thirty-seventh year. She has always been, since she got over her youthful levity, an industrious and well-behaved mule, and her owner wouldn't take $250 for her.

Danbury has a mule—"old Rhoda"—which must be near forty, and she is almost as active and serviceable now as in her younger days.

The tobacco glut at Lynchburg, Va., is unprecedented. Wagons sometimes stand in the street all night, being unable to get to the warehouses to unload. Last week closed with 1,500,000 pounds on the warehouse floors, sufficient for this week's sales. Notwithstanding this state of affairs prices have kept up, and to prevent a break in the market, the commission merchants have advertised requests to planters to hold their crops back for a few weeks. No such necessity ever occurred before.

A correspondent tells the Concord Times that one day last week May Ellah, who lived at or near Mt. Pleasant, Cabarrus county, was washing at a spring near her dwelling, when a tree fell on her, killing her almost instantly.

The Clinton Caucasian says Mr. Ben Byrd, of Sampson county left home, Tuesday of last week, and some days ago his body was found in the woods. An open knife lay by his side. He may have suicided. His mind had been unbalanced.

A correspondent informs the North Carolina Presbyterian that Messrs. Brown & Bro., of Winston, have lately given $1,000 to the endowment fund of Davidson College to establish a scholarship to be called "The Thomas Brown Scholarship," in memory of their deceased father, who was a most Godly man and highly esteemed elder in the Mocksville Presbyterian church.

Concord Times: Mrs. Holdbrooks, wife of Mr. W. J. Holdbrooks, who lived in Poplar Tent neighborhood, one mile from Poplar Tent Church, committed suicide last Monday evening by shooting herself with a pistol. The sad affair occurred just after dinner, and Mr. Holdbrooks had gone to catch out his horses to begin the afternoon plowing when he heard the report of a pistol in the house. Hastening to the house he found his wife near the head of a bed, where he was in the habit of keeping his pistol, in a dying condition. She lived only a short time. No cause is assigned for the sad act.

Boston burglars will avoid the house of David B. Sears hereafter. Last Saturday night he heard one exploring his rooms, got up, seized him, and threw him out of the window when the sudden contact with the sidewalk below broke both of the burglar's legs.

Richard Hands, head clerk in the drug store of Henry V. Crawford, No. 120 Hudson street, New York, was found murdered, sitting in his chair, in the back room of the store, last Sunday morning. His skull was crushed to pieces by some blunt instrument and his throat cut from ear to ear.

A band of 250 masked men rode into Corydon, Ky., on Saturday night and deposited in the postoffice letters addressed to the county commissioners and other county officers, demanding of the officials an impartial and vigorous investigation of the county finances in order to ascertain the truth of rumored irregularities.

A notorious woman at Gallipolis, O., who had got an innocent young girl in her power, and who endeavored, first by persuasion and then by threats of personal injury, to induce the child to adopt a life of shame, was taken out of her bed by a mob of 500 men last Saturday morning and tarred and feathered from head to foot.

Counting-Out Rhymes.

Mr. H. Carrington Bolton, of Trinity college, contributes to the Boston Journal of Education the following specimens of "counting-out" rhymes collected by him from children, and by correspondence:

One-ery, two-ery, ickery, Ann; Fillity, fallacy, Nicholas John; Quover, quaver, English knaver; Stinckelum, stankelum, buck.

This rhyme is widely used, having been reported to me from Connecticut, Philadelphia and Cincinnati. It is subject to many variations: "English knaver" becomes "Irish Mary" or "Virgin Mary;" some insert the word "berry" or the word "John" before "back" in the last line. "Ickery" becomes "hickory," "stinckelum" becomes "stringelum," etc.

Ana, mana, mona, mike; Barcelona, bona, strike; Care, ware, fro, frack; Hallico, ballioo, wee, wo, wack!—New York City.

This, also, is subject to countless variations: "Barcelona" becomes "tusalona," etc. One form ends in: Haldy, guldly, bee, out goes you; Ana, mana, dippery Dick; Hitcha, piteha, dominitcha; Hon, pon, tush.—Central New York.

In some districts the third line is given as "Houtcha, potucha, dominitcha," and in others "Hotcha, potcha, etc." "Tush" may also become "tus" or "tusk."

Haley, maley, tippety fig; Tiney, toncy, touby, nig; Goat, throat, country bats; Tiney, toney, tix.—Rhode Island. Eatum, peatum, penny, pie, Babyoni, stickum, stie. Stand you out therey.—Scotland.

Besides rhymes of the character of the above—i. e., consisting of a mixture of gibberish with disconnected words, there are many rhymes containing no uncouth words, but possessing, in general, a jingle easily recognizable.

One, two, three, Nanny caught a flea; The flea died, and Nanny cried; Out goes she!—Delaware, Rhode Island, etc.

1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8; Mary at the cottage gate, Eating grapes off a plate, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8.

This is given, also, "plums," in place of "grapes," and "garden gate" for "cottage gate." When "cottage door" ends the second line the counting stops at "four" to satisfy the rhyme.

The clumsy passenger who, entering a street car, tramps upon the rows of toes in the aisle, is better than a red-hot stove to warm up the atmosphere.

A Plucky Boy.

The famous electrician, Thomas A. Edison, like many another genius began life as a poor boy. At twelve, he was selling peanuts and papers on the Grand Trunk Railroad, and using his odd minutes to study chemistry. He turned an old baggage-car into a laboratory, and for fear that somebody would touch his chemicals he labelled every bottle "Poison."

He picked up a little knowledge of printing and of telegraphy, and when about sixteen saved the life of a little child, by snatching him from the track before a swiftly-coming train. In gratitude for the heroic act the child's father offered to teach young Edison the art of telegraphy, but all the time he was trying experiments with chemicals, sometimes resulting in accidents which cost him his place.

But he kept on working until he invented the system of telegraphy whereby four messages can be sent at once over the same wire. This was quickly followed by the phonograph, the telephone, the electric light, and various other inventions. He was described by U. S. Patent Commissioner as "the young man who kept the pathway to the Patent Office hot with his footsteps."—Nashville Christian Advocate.

The Religion Demanded by the Times.

The world needs a religion to-day that will make a man's word as good as his note; that will make its possessor pay one hundred cents on the dollar, sell sixteen ounces to the pound, thirty-six inches to the yard, four pecks to the bushel, and one hundred and twenty-eight cubic feet to the cord; that will make a workman do a full day's work for a full day's pay, whether the eye of his employer is upon him or not; that will make capital disgorge the lion's share of all profits and divide them equally and justly with labor; that will cause the manufacturer to cease from adulterating his goods, the clerk from pilfering from his employer, the official from embezzling the funds committed to his trust; religion that will make men honest, upright, pure and trustworthy in all the walks of life; a religion that not only makes men happy, but also makes them righteous.

In St. Louis people spend Sunday as they please. They are a liberal minded set, and hate anything that favors puritanism. On a recent Sunday the attendance at the churches was 10,000; at the base ball grounds, 20,000; at the beer gardens, 40,000; at the cow-boy exhibition, 40,000; at the St. Louis exposition, 50,000. It must be admitted that this showing is not calculated to do the moral character of St. Louis much good.

The assertion having been made that lawyers as a rule are skeptics in religion, the Philadelphia Times has taken pains to investigate the matter so far as its own city is concerned. The result is very gratifying. Of the 1,800 members of the Philadelphia bar nine tenths are either church members or have well defined church affiliations. The lawyers in the Southern cities can make a still better showing, as the South is the orthodox section.

A. F. Howard, collector of customs at Portsmouth, N. H., has tendered his resignation. In his letter to the Secretary of the Treasury he says he has held the office nearly twelve years, has always been an active Republican worker and an "offensive partisan," and believes that "to the victors belong the spoils." Therefore like a manly man he throws up his commission and a Democrat has been appointed in his stead.

A Southern man, Jefferson Davis, remains very distasteful to certain brethren of the North who proclaim free speech, but sometimes are intolerant of it. Another Southern man, Abraham Lincoln, though dead, lives in the memory of the North as the greatest man of the most wonderful epoch. So, the South has furnished the North with a living bugaboo and a dead idol. Think of that.

The following days are first and second sales at Piedmont warehouse, Winston, N. C., for June, 1885:

Table with 3 columns: Day, Date, and Sale. Thursday 4th, 1st sale; Monday 8th, 2nd; Tuesday 9th, 1st; Friday 12th, 2nd; Saturday 13th, 1st; Wednesday 17th, 2nd; Thursday 18th, 1st; Monday 22nd, 2nd; Tuesday 23rd, 1st; Friday 26th, 2nd; Saturday 27th, 1st.

M. W. NORFLEET & CO.

There is a great deal of religion in this world that is like a life preserver—only put it on at the time of immediate danger, and then half the time put it on hind side before.

The man who has nothing to say is unfortunately the man who is always talking.

CAMACA!

To the Weary, Feeble AND PLEASURE SEEKER.

Seeing the need in this section of a place where the weary, feeble and broken down may recruit their health and rest; where they and their families may spend the hot season pleasantly when it is necessary to leave their homes or change air, that the failing health of some loved one may be restored, we have laid out and are now offering for sale lots in probably the healthiest section in North Carolina. The town is located on a beautiful

A NEW TOWN

Flat Mountain Ridge 2 1/2 miles west from Danbury, about 1/2 mile from the celebrated Piedmont springs; about the same distance to Pepper's Alum springs; 1/2 of a mile from Smith's Chalybeate spring, and two miles from C. E. Moore's Sulphur spring, while the location presents

The Finest Views of Moore's Knob, the Hanging Rock, and other prominent peaks along the Saurotown mountain. The lots are well covered with large and small forest trees, which will afford shade in summer and form

Beautiful Groves. The whole is Surrounded by Springs of the purest mountain water, entitling it to the Indian name, "Camaca," a land of springs, which, together with the pure mountain air, will bring color to the faded cheek, and strength to weary frame, even if there was no real mineral water within a hundred miles of the place.

The undersigned propose also to erect a saw-mill, planing machine, &c., that they may build cottages or furnish lumber to those who wish to purchase lots in this healthful locality, where no malaria ever comes, and a case of typhoid fever was never known, except it was contracted out of the neighborhood.

The price of lots this season, 50x100 feet, will be $25 each. For further particulars address, N. M. & W. R. PEPPER, May 20, '85. Danbury, N. C.

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS. FROM THE SON: "My father resides at Glover, Va. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was severely afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case. Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sore. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the Sarsaparilla in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Va., Oct. 21, 1885. Yours gratefully, HILMAN PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Itchings, Sores, Bolls, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.
