

1305 Main St., Richmond, Va; August6m26-	The Finest Views	to see, the shops in Battleton will after one evening's experience,
J. L. C. BIRD, WITH	of Moore's Knob, the Hanging Rock, and other prominent peaks along the Sauratown mountain. The lots are	which Miss Dart had giggled spa cally all the way up High stree looked after every well-dressed m
W. D. KYLE & Co., DEPERTERS AND JOBBERS OF	well covered with large and small forest trees, which will afford shade in summer and form	der fifty between the station an Corn Market, exchanging "good ings" and "how-d'ye-do's" with
HARDWARE, Cutlery, IRON, NAILS and CARRIAGE GOODS	Beautiful Groves.	ten per cent. of the number. Miss was "sly," Miss Bland though then Miss Bland was a plain-
No. 9 Governor Street,	The whole is	gurl, who let them-i. e., the cus -"tave it" if they bothered h
RICHMOND,VA.	Surrounded by Springs	much-or rather at times did them have it, but looked over
BUY YOUR	of the purest mountain water, entitling	heads with a stony glare, and a SCHOOL BOOKS	it to the Indian name, "Camaca," a land of springs, which, together with the pure mountain air, would bring col- cr to the faded check, and strength to weary frame, even if there was no real mineral water within a hundred miles of the place.	them to scream for drink in vain. Daly was "spoons" on young Tod ought to be ashamed of herself him on like that, Miss Racket rat ed; but then Miss Racket had "spoons" on young Todd hersel launched horself at Todd, in fat neglected good customers for Tod
Williamson & Corrie, BOOKSELLERS AND STEAM POW- ER PRINTERS,
WINSTON, N. C.	The undersigned propose also to erect	been taken out once for a quiet da
Liberal discounts to merchants and teachers	a saw-mill, planing machine, &c., that they may build cottages or furnish lum-	Todd in the happy haleyon days Miss Daly came among them
WILSON, BURNS & CO., WEOLESALE GROORES AND COMMIS SION MERCHANTS.	ber to those who wish to purchase lots in this healthful locality, where no ma- laria ever comes, and a case of typhoid	blight. Miss Daly hardly looded like a behind the refreshment counter
30 S Howard street, corner of Lombard; BALTIMORE.	fever was never known, except it was	was always very pale and pretty
We keep constantly on hand s large and well assorted atock of Groceries-suitable for Bouthern and Western trade. We solicit con- signments of Country Produce-such as Oct ton; Feathers; Ginesug; Beewax Wool; Dries; Fruit; Purz; Skins, etc. Our facilines for do ng business are such as tw warrant quits salel nd prompt returns. All orders will have our	contracted out of the neighborhood. The price of lots this season, 50x100 feet, will be $25 each. For further particulars addres, • N. M. & W. R. PEPPER, May 20 '85 Dealawer N. C.	black dress and generally very unless semething out of the com young Todd was out of the com brightened her features with a en It may be a maiter for specula to the itspen?" on Miss Dals?

had at had d. and rive by like s staid tion as

and was intentionally lingering over during his pork pie or sandwich; and when the trains went out he resumed his place. at, and put one elbow on the counter, and talkan uned and gazed-generally gazed, as his nd the powers of conversation were limited, and Miss Daly did not care for the suba fair iegt on which he was disposed to grow Daly eloquent-billiards and bull terriers. t; but So regular a lounger at the counter poken good a oustomer, so well-known an tomers inhabitant of Battleton, was obliged to er too be received with a fair amount of cournot let tesy, and he was received in quite their sisterly-possibly more than sisterlyall but Miss Daly. Mis manner by Miss Daly said "good morning" and "good d. and evening," especially "good evening," to lend very graciously to him, but she did not markimitate the style of the rest of the young ladies or put herself out in anyway Mr. Todd. Conscious of the power she wielded over his susceptible broast, she did not hasten to meet his requirements at the bar ; did not lean over the counfore ter and talk to him between the sandwich stands and the dishes of buns : did not regard him languishingly while an irate passenger was hammering away with the milled edge of a shilling to athis own. tract her attention ; did not whisper or laugh or slap him in a kittenish impulse: and betrayed not even a jealous symp tom when he talked to Miss Part or ile. Miss Racket or arybody else. al can't make her out," he soliloquiz-over 100 k mometers.

tions and River war 1 was a visitor at the home of Gen- a red hot and slashing, against the seere- eral Lee, then president of Washington | carded the colt and picked the wool out tary of state for war on the iron-plated and Lee University. After dinner the of an old bed quilt and am making stock stocking question; they knew how hard General retired, and I was invited to mgs.' Mrs. Roe replied: 'So have I he had been upon his nephew and god- see Mrs. Lee in her chamber. She was son in many matters; but as he was the a great sufferer and confirmed invalid, with wool from a bed blanket will soon only being whom Edwin regarded with incapable of motion save in a roller-chair have a pair of stockings, too.' any degree of swe, they trasted he would which it was the chief delight of him time after that the whole neighbor some to the rescue and "put a stop to who had so long directed great armics it." all before the family was disgraced to move from room to room, bending for ever and ever by a mesalliance, or over her with the grace of a Sidney and by some dreadful scandal that was almost as bad if not quite as lasting, told Mrs. Lee the story which I have "I'll soon put an end to this non- so imperfectly attempted to reproduce. sense," said Maj. Crawshaw, after read- Need I tell any woman who reads these pilgrimage to Boston on foot, applied ing his sister's letters. "I'll have no pages that tears streamed down that at the police headquarters here today more of it. He had put an end to a patient, furrowed face or that a light for transporation on the cars. He says great deal of nonsense in his time, being and joy from beyond the stars beamed he could walk, but his money has given a hard-headed, sharp old soldier in his through these tears, as she knew that out. He had a little dog with him way, and he was very sure of his power the thoughts of her great husband wandemolishing this soap bubble affair in dered far away from the clash of arms loss than four and twenty hours. He to the memories of their youthful love knew the world and what it was made and courtship under the shade of her of; he understood men and women, par- ancestral oaks, for Chatham was origiticularly foolish men and designing wo- nally the property of a near relative. men, whom he had come across in an As I concluded the sentence, "They experience of five and forty years, to shall never have the land,' hearing a whom he had taught wisdom and given slight noise, I turned and saw the girls. warning before this-ah' many times General, who had silently entered, m before, for other people's sakes and dressing gown and shippers. The great Let him march and away buck-shot drops slowly rolled down that face, whose calm was never broken by against the enemy at once. the earthquake shock of battle. Blowly TO BE CONTINUED.

and silently he retired, and I could

A New Haven firm manufactures but feel the deepest compunction that over 100 kinds of barometers and ther- words of mine should have sent another pang through that great heart."

got a fleece, for I shaved our dog, and footed it four miles to see two sheep, so great and unusual was the sight."

WASHINGTON, August 10 .- Capt. B. W. Anderson, of Sumpter S. C., who-is 96 years old and who is making a

A young man in the West shot himself a year ago because a young woman refused to marry him. The girl said he was a fool, but the boy recovered The other day the girl committed suicide because the boy refused to marry her. The world changes, and so do boys and

Col. Denny showed the Asheville Col. Denny showed small but gen. uine diamonds found agniong the gold washings in McDowell county. He al-so exhibited other valuable genus, all in

The LEGALSE BUSIE

A letter addressed "g'big" safe reached Little Chebcague, for which was intended.