

Sale of Land.

By virtue of a mortgage-deed to me executed by W. W. Boyles and his wife M. C. Boyles, I will on January 20th, 1890 (first Monday), at the court-house door in Danbury, sell at public auction one tract of land situated in Mendocino Township, adjoining the lands of Samuel Westmoreland, the heirs of Jas. Brossan, Sr., and others and containing 35 acres, more or less. See Book 28 page 426. Terms cash. Sale at 12 o'clock.
This Dec. 30, 1890.
J. N. NEAL, Mortgagee.
A. M. STACK, WY.

NOTICE.

Having this day qualified as administrator of Thomas V. Haynes, dec'd., notice is hereby given that all persons holding claims against the estate of the said Thos. V. Haynes, dec'd., must present them for payment to the undersigned, and all persons indebted to said estate must come forward and make immediate payment.
Claims against the estate must be presented within twelve months duly authenticated.

EY,
Administrator.

Would hereby give notice that we are daily receiving fresh supplies of goods, and being on two railroads get our goods as direct and at as low freight rates as any house in this section of the state, that that we pay cash for our goods, buy as low and will sell for as small a profit as any house can which counts sixteen ounces a pound and one hundred cents a dollar. We mean all we say, but nothing can give the same assurance as an actual test.

COME AND SEE US.

Come and see us, give us one trial, and if we don't do what we say do not come again. With many thanks for the liberal patronage given us in the past, we are with much respect, and good wishes to all,

"I have seen in Winston many things that surprised me, but the greatest surprise of all is your Store. I thought Winston did not have any business but Tobacco."

The above remarks were recently made by one of the most prominent business men of the state after he had examined our immense stock of goods. "A Perfect Noah's Ark," was the exclamation of one of the best and most successful business men of Virginia after he had gone through our

S. E. ALLEN.

Many readers of this paper in Stokes and adjoining counties do not know that S. E. ALLEN, the leading hardware man for this section of North Carolina is in business in his magnificent store and mammoth stock of goods were burned. To all who would say when in Winston, just back of the burnt buildings on the east side of the city, you will find the same S. E. Allen in a large room with a splendid stock of goods. He is himself again and will furnish you anything you need at a discount.
