PLANTERS' WAREHOUSE, PINNACLE, N. C.

A FEW WORDS TO THE FARMERS. Read and consider your next interest. Our house is large, well lighted, good basement, good stalls, and every accommodation that heart can wish, when you come with your tobacco to our market. And the best of all we guarantee the highest market price. As a proof of this it is difficult matter to keep best dealers from other markets any length of time from the fact they claim that they can buy the same grades of tobacco much cheaper on a larger market. So, gentlemen, if you can do as well or better on a side market, a home market, why not patronize it. So bring on your bright tobacco. First sales to begin the 9th day of November, 1893. Sell only on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at every clock, p. m. until Christmas. After Christmas every day.

Your Future Prospects

may look bright enough to-day, but what guarantee have you that they will be the same a few years hence? How do you know but that you will be incapacitated or deprived of your present income by an unforeseen calamity? Ask these some questions of a policy holder in the

and see how quick he will answer that he is protected against misfortune; that he is assured of comfort in his old age; that his family is provided for after his death. This is worthy of close investigation. For particulars address W. J. RODDEY, Manager, Department of the Carolinas, ROCK HILL, S. C.

Trust Sale.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by a certain deed of trust executed to me by James E. Boles and James H. Tuttle and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Stokes County, N. C. in Book No. 35 Page 38 and 39. I will sell at public auction for cash on the premises at one o'clock p. m. on Wednesday the 10th day of October, 1894, the land and premises described in said deed to-wit: A tract of land in Meadow Township in Stokes county adjoining the lands of Sydney Smith, J. D. Tatum and others and containing 168 1/2 acres more or less. This 4th day of September 1894. M. D. Stockton, Trustee.

Execution Sale.

By virtue of an execution in my hands, issued from the Superior court of Rockingham county, on a judgment therein obtained and docketed in Stokes county, in favor of James P. Dillard, against W. L. Halston, I will sell for cash at public auction at the court house door in Danbury, on Monday, the 1st day of October, 1894, the said W. L. Halston's undivided half interest in the following described lands in Stokes county: One tract of 141 6-10 acres on the north side of Dan River, on the waters of Buck Island creek. For description of title see record of deeds and petitions in Stokes county, Book No. 20, page 655. One other tract of 109 3-10 acres on both sides of Dan River, also 680 acres on Dan River, both tracts below Halston's Ford and the other tract of 500 1-2 acres. For a description of the three tracts on record book of deeds and petitions in Stokes county, Book No. 20, page 451. The said lands are subject to the prim liens of two other judgments in favor of W. A. Lamb, D. W. C. Benbow, J. E. Gilmer and others. This the 27th day of August, 1894. J. H. FULTON, Sheriff of Stokes county.

The above and other well known writers will contribute special articles during 1894 to the New York Weekly Witness making the Witness one of the strongest and ablest family newspapers published.

The Witness is just the paper for Farmers, Farmers' Wives, Farmers' Sons, Farmers' Daughters, country merchants, country storekeepers, blacksmiths, carpenters, stone masons, and all other laborers, who form the backbone of our country and who want to be thoroughly posted in what is going on in the world.

The Witness is a weekly paper which represents high ideas and sound principles. It has a weekly sermon by Dr. Talmage, and a weekly Sunday-school lesson by Dr. Pentecost, the latest home news, the latest foreign news, the latest political news, reliable market reports, reliable quantities of farm products; reasonable editorials on political, social and moral questions; the cream of the best editorials in New York and other daily and weekly papers; good reliable farm and garden articles written by practical men; tells of the home life of the American people, and of their thoughts and experiences; pleasant moral stories for the young people; stories of interest for the elder ones also in brief. It is just the paper that you can safely take into your home and find to be an educator in the best sense, of both old and young.

PRICE $1 A YEAR. Special to subscribers of the REPORTER. In order to largely increase our subscription list we have made an arrangement with the Witness whereby we can send you the Witness and the REPORTER AND POST for a year

FOR $1.25. This price, as our readers know, is only 25 cents more than the regular price of the REPORTER AND POST, and could not be afforded except that we anticipate a very large increase in our numbers.

A sample copy of the Witness will be sent free on receipt of request by postal card.
