The Charlotte Observer says that the points where Capt. Kitchin is sorest, as was ascertained by the discussion between him and Mr. Tillett in that city Thursday night, are his votes in the last Legislature against the bill of Mr. Harris of Mocklenburg, to reduce the hours of labor in cotton factories and sgainst the bill of Mr. Watson, o Forsyth, to strangle the eigartte trust. After this latter vote Capt. Kitchin is not the man to go gallivanting around the country talking about the sympathy of the Democratic party with trusts.
