

PEOPLE AND THINGS OF NOTE.

Thos. H. Priddy was here Monday.

Harris Bros. circus will exhibit at Madison on July 19th.

Postmaster H. M. Joyce is slightly on the sick list.

Mr. Luther Gravitt, of Capella, was in Danbury yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. R. Blair attended preaching at North View Sunday.

Mr. Powell, of the Madison Grocery Company, spent Monday night here.

H. C. O. Hall, a fine farmer of Yarkin township, was a visitor here Monday.

The work of laying the foundation for the new court house has been completed.

Another kiln of brick, the largest yet put up, is about ready for burning at the brick yard.

There will be a social on the lawn at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Taylor tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Booth are happy in the possession of a fine, new, bouncing girl baby.

Mr. David Hodgins, of the Odell Hardware Co., Greensboro, was here Thursday and Friday.

T. Hutcheus, of the L. J. Lackey & Co. wholesale grocery, of Madison, spent Thursday night here.

A number of families are occupying cottages at Piedmont Springs, and others are expected soon.

Jno. T. Vaughn, a Stokes boy who now holds a position at Newport News, Va., visited relatives here Monday.

D. S. Watkins, of Campbell, was in town a short while yesterday. He is insuring tobacco against damage by hail.

A. S. Mitchell and two children passed through town Monday enroute to Walnut Cove, after spending Sunday at Dillard.

The big steam threshing machine owned by W. G. Slate, W. J. Johnson, J. H. Covington and Rufus Tuttle has been started up in the Capella section.

It is learned that the Rucker-Witten Tobacco Company will consolidate their two manufacturing plants by moving the one at Mt. Airy to Martinsville where the main office is located.

Mr. Roy King, who holds a position with the Virginia Bridge and Iron Co., of Roanoke, Va., and who has been spending a few days at his home here, left Friday in response to a telegram summoning him to his duties.

County Commissioner J. C. Flippin, who is an enthusiastic farmer, is a great believer in Blum's Almanac. Mr. Flippin fears that we are going to have a hot, dry summer, though he reports fine showers and good crops in his section.

A. C. Rhodes, of Campbell, a good citizen and farmer, was in town Monday and dropped into the Reporter office to renew his subscription for another year. Mr. Rhodes reports crops fine in his section, and that the farmers are now generally out of the grass.

The blackberry and huckleberry crops are said to be excellent. Nature has indeed been kind to our folks this year. Her dealings to her children have been with a lavish hand on all sides. Fine wheat and rye crops, excellent corn crop, the best wheat crop for many years, etc.

WONDERFUL NERVE.

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c. at all Druggists.

W. Y. Gordon, of Pink, was in town Saturday.

H. C. Southern, of Pink, was in Danbury Monday.

J. G. Southern, of Pink, was in Danbury Monday.

H. C. Lackey, of Elko, was here on business Monday.

F. A. Slate, of Capella, was a Danbury visitor Monday.

J. W. Fowler, of Walnut Cove, R. F. D. No. 1, was here Monday.

Miss Grace Taylor, of Winston-Salem, is visiting relatives in Danbury.

County Commissioners Joseph Martin and J. C. Flippin were in town Monday.

County Commissioners Jno. W. Gann, of Cases, was a visitor in town Monday.

Pastor J. T. Ratledge filled his appointment at the M. E. church Sunday night.

Mrs. Hiram Adkins and son, Henry, of Red Shoals, visited Mrs. M. T. Chilton Tuesday.

Hicks, the weather prophet, says the month of July will be hot and stormy throughout.

The new tobacco crop is growing off nicely. The seasons so far have been very favorable.

Miss Willie Edmonds, of Winston-Salem, is the guest of her cousins, Misses Nellie and Mary Joyce.

Mr. Frank Petree, who has been holding a position at Wakefield, N. C., is at home on a visit to his parents.

There will probably be more fruit than was at first thought. There is a pretty fair crop of apples. Blackberries are plentiful.

Several interesting letters went to the waste basket this week for the old reason which some people can never learn—unaccompanied by the real names of the writers.

Register of Deeds Gordon has issued only one marriage license since the last issue of the Reporter, as follows: J. Peter Scales to Miss Dora Hucks, both of Rockingham county.

More R. F. D. Routes.

Three more new rural free mail delivery routes will start from Walnut Cove August 1, with carriers as follows:

S. C. Rierison, Jos. Allen and Saml. Marshall. Two of these routes will run in Stokes and one in Forsyth.

County Commissioners In Session.

The Stokes Board of Commissioners were in session here Monday revising the tax list and hearing objections to the valuation of property. Several complaints were made to the board and the lists of several parties were ordered raised.

Dog-Days, Katy-dids and Frost.

T. J. Davis was in town Monday evening. Mr. Davis reminded the Reporter that Monday was the first dog-day and that it rained. You know, if rain falls the first dog-day, good seasons may be expected for 40 days following.

Mr. Davis thinks frost will be late next fall, as the first katy-did hasn't sung yet, whose first note will be an indication that frost is 90 days distant.

It Pays to Advertise.

A few days since Mr. F. A. Slate, of Capella, wanted to sell a sawmill. He put an ad in the People's Column of the Reporter. The ad didn't run but one week before a gentleman near Pilot Mountain saw it, communicated with the sawmill owner at once, and bought the machine.

It pays to advertise in the Reporter, which is read by nearly every single citizen of Stokes county's 20,000 population, and by hundreds outside.

KILLED BY TRAIN.

Mary Roberson, Colored, Near Walnut Cove.

Mary Roberson, aged about 19 years, was killed two miles east of Walnut Cove Friday evening by the pastanger train on the old C. F. & Y. V. road bound for Mount Airy.

The woman was walking in the middle of the track. The engineer saw her and blew his whistle several times, but no attention was paid to it. An effort was made to stop the train, but the engine had struck the woman before the engineer was able to bring his train to a standstill.

Besides cutting off both legs the woman's shoulder was broken. Other serious bruises were inflicted. Death was instantaneous. The body was placed on the train and carried to Walnut Cove, where it was prepared for burial.

The unfortunate woman, who was married, had been in bad health for some time and her mind was impaired by her illness.

Card From J. A. Leake.

Editor Reporter.

Will you please publish the following notice for the benefit of pensioners:

No person is entitled to a pension who is receiving aid from the county. No widow who has married since 15th of April 1865 is entitled to pensions and if there is any such been allowed to any of the above named they will please report to the board that they may reconsider their claim. While we would be glad to give all pensions, we must strictly adhere to the law. No one need apply for pensions of the above described class. The board will meet the 23rd day of July, 1904.

J. A. LEAKE.

New Correspondent at Walnut Cove.

The Reporter has enlisted the services of A. S. Mitchell, of Walnut Cove, who will in the future conduct the Walnut Cove department of the Reporter.

All persons of Walnut Cove and neighborhood adjacent thereto who may have items of interest, especially the young people in their society matters, will confer a favor on the Reporter by reporting to Mr. Mitchell.

Brandy Distillers Bonded.

Deputy Collector J. A. Petree, of Walnut Cove, and Distillery Surveyor E. A. Ebert, of Winston, were here Saturday bonding brandy makers. Seven distillers entered into bonds for making brandy in Stokes, as follows:

J. L. Corn, P. C. Campbell, Green Hall, J. L. Martin, Wm. R. Stovall, Wm. T. Smith, Frank Martin.

Notice.

Postoffice Max, N. C., will be discontinued on the 15th of July. All patrons of that office may prepare to get their mail elsewhere.

P. H. YOUNG, P. M.,
Max, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Watt, of Reidsville, who are occupying a cottage at Piedmont Springs, spent a few hours in Danbury Thursday.

Messrs. Wm. Poore and Nathaniel Hutcherson, of Sandy Ridge, were in Danbury on business Tuesday.

ONE LADY'S RECOMMENDATION SOLD FIFTY BOXES OF CHAMBERLAIN'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS.

I have, I believe, sold fifty boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets on the recommendation of one lady here, who first bought a box of them about a year ago. She never tires of telling her neighbors and friends about the good qualities of these Tablets.—P. M. SHORE, Druggist, Rochester, Ind. The pleasant purgative effect of these Tablets make them a favorite with ladies everywhere. For Sale by all Druggist and Dealers.

TOBACCO GREATLY INJURED.

Terrible Hailstorm Visits the Jewell and Muff Section.

A terrible hailstorm visited the section of Muff and Jewell Tuesday about noon, wreaking great destruction to growing crops of tobacco.

Mr. J. A. Fagg, of Jewell, came to Danbury shortly afterwards in search of information regarding claims to be made for insurance. Only a few of the farmers whose crops suffered were insured. Messrs. Walter Nelson, Mint Nelson, Bun Nelson, Capt. Lee Nelson, Moses Labe, W. R. Bennett, and others suffered loss, some of them very heavily.

From "One Who Loves You Yet." Mr. Editor:

Please excuse me for asking for space in your paper to reply to "Speak What I Think," whose letter appeared in the issue of June 16. If he intended his letter as a reply to my letter in a former issue of your paper then I find no excuse for writing this epistle as he clearly forgot the purpose of his miserable effort. But if he wished to notify his friends of his drink habit then he was successful and we should thank him for acknowledging his unworthiness for the association of all moral and virtue loving young ladies.

No well bred young woman will accept the company of a young man with a pint of whiskey in his pocket, nor would my "Boss" advance the money to him through me with which to purchase it, as he intimates that he would be glad to have him do.

I had not known 'til he mentioned it, that I had a "Boss." I do not need one, as he evidently does, but the gentleman for whom I work never denies me funds for any worthy purpose and would now be glad to contribute money to keep "Speak What I Think" out of a drunkard's grave, notwithstanding his very immoral proposition to buy the company of young ladies with a pint of moonshine whiskey. No, the respectable girls of North Carolina, like the good girls of Iowa, do not keep the company of young men with "a pint of good old whiskey in their pockets." Yes, I too am glad you do not live in Iowa, for the North Carolinians who are now here do not belong to the class who call strong drink "mighty good." They are of a superior class of young men, and thus honor the Old North State.

ONE WHO LOVES YOU YET.

Japanese Lose 28,000.

London, July 13.—The Morning Post's Shanghai correspondent says that the Japanese casualties by land mines at Port Arthur Sunday night are reported to have been 28,000, but none of the many other special war dispatches mention a Japanese disaster at Port Arthur.

Mr. Jas. Taylor, of Stoneville, was in Danbury yesterday.

The Mt. Airy Weekly Leader says that Foy Clark, the negro who recently killed Jim Martin, a Danbury negro, was last week given a preliminary hearing. He was bound over to court, the evidence against him being very damaging. Clark is in Dobson jail.

Mrs. R. L. Hartman, and son Everett, of Hartman, were in Danbury Monday.

John Robinson's circus will exhibit in Winston-Salem August 19th or 20th.

J. T. W. Clements, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Lillian Withers, of Stokes county, were united in marriage at the home of the latter on July 3rd.

Japs Take Another Fort at Port Arthur.

Che Foo, July 13.—A Frenchman who arrived here on a junk from Port Arthur this morning reports that on July 7, the Japanese captured Fort No. 14.

OUR ROLL OF HONOR.

Recent Paid-In-Advance Subscriptions to the Reporter.

The regular paying subscriber is the rock and foundation of a newspaper. All honor to him and may his shadow never grow dimmer! But the pay-in-advance subscribers! How dear to the editor's heart are they! Exquisite joy paves their pathway into the editorial sanctum, and satisfaction keeps vigil when they are gone. When the editor sees the pay-in-advance fellow coming, he rushes for two chairs—one is not enough for the welcome visitor. The office belongs to him while he is present. He may sit with both feet on the editor's desk that has been made sacred to the memory of profound discussion of many dignified subjects—such as the eastern imbroglio, national conventions and peas—and spit where he please. If he happen to be a lady, more refined homage is due, and over and above that innate and constitutional gallantry, which is part and parcel of every true editor's nature, the office takes on a roseate hue. The click of the types cease to be monotonous and assume a musical cadence, the press instead of a discordant rumbling speaks in eloquent tones of welcome, while the grim rigidity of the editor's grizzled physiognomy, becomes ruffled with the most angelic of smiles. Can language express the bliss of the occasion?

Since our last issue we have had the pleasure of inscribing upon our roll of honor the names of the following ladies and gentlemen:

C. W. Blancett, to July 14, 1905.
J. L. Martin, to Jan. 14, 1905.
A. C. Rhodes, to May 6, 1905.
J. A. Southern, to April 27, 1905.

Miss Mollie Joyce, to July 20, 1905.
Miss Alice Mickey, to Sept. 2, 1904.

[A large number have paid up since last week. Only the paid-in-advance are entitled to a seat on the band wagon.]

PINE HALL.

Pine Hall, July 11.

As it has been some time since we wrote will see if we can both up a few lines.

Several people went from this place to the Battle Ground on the fourth of July, and when they returned they seemed not to regret going.

Miss Beulah Neal spent last Sunday night with Miss Mollie Young. Think they had a nice old time, as they had some callers from Dillard. Also think they had a dark drive to get home after their stay.

Miss Lelia Flynn, of Pine Hall, is visiting Miss Essye Knight, of Madison.

Miss Minnie Neal has not got over her disappointment in going to Greensboro and the Battle Ground.

Guess Messrs Billie Neal and Joe Carter have grown tired of bicycles, or rubber tire horses, as they call them, as they have sold them.

Success to the Reporter.

TWO STICKERS.

SUSAN.

Susan, July 6.

We are having lots of rain up in this section.

Miss Delia Gibson died last Thursday and was buried at the family graveyard.

Mr. Thos. Nunn was buried yesterday with an infant baby in his arms.

R. E. L. Morefield has been visiting R. H. Morefield this week.

Come again William. We enjoy your letters very much that you write to Bachelor.

IF YOU RECEIVE A COPY OF THE REPORTER WITHOUT HAVING SUBSCRIBED, THIS IS FOR YOU.

Dear Sir:

We are sending you this copy of the DANBURY REPORTER with our compliments.

We are very anxious that you, as a leading citizen of your section, should become a friend and patron of the paper as it is now published and managed, and to this end we will send you the Reporter for one month. We do this of course in the hope that you will be pleased with it and become a permanent subscriber.

For these 4 papers there will be no charge made and you will be under no obligations to continue taking the paper unless you so desire. At the end of the 4 weeks the paper will be stopped unless you order it continued.

The paper will speak for itself. Please accept it and give it a fair trial.

Should you have any item of news at any time we would consider it a favor if you would bring or send it in, and and you are cordially invited to visit the Reporter office at any time you may be in Danbury.

Truly your friends,
N. E. & E. P. PEPPER,
Editors and Publishers.
Danbury, N. C.

A Big Black Snake.

A. P. Baker, of Pink, was in town Thursday and called in to see the Reporter. He reports his crop of tobacco of 35,000 hills as looking well. He will make also a fine crop of wheat.

Last week Mr. Baker, assisted by his son, Cephas, killed a black snake that measured 6 feet 7 inches.
