PINNACLE R. F. D. No. 1.

Pinnacle R. F. D. No. 1, Jan. 8.
As I have not seen anything from this section lately, I thought I would write.

Mrs. J. A. Poney has returned home from a pleasant visit to her friends and relatives near Pinnacle.

Miss Martha Stone is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sam Westmoreland.

Miss Flora Kallam, of Pinnacle, is visiting her mother this week.

The Stork visited Lay Hauser's last Monday and left a fine boy. He went next day and bought himself a man hat.

Miss Martha Robertson and her brother, Tom, spent the night with Mrs. E. E. Kallam.

Mr. Chas. Kallam has been visiting Mr. Fountain Kigers lately, wonder what's the attraction? Miss Belle, I guess.

Mr. John Spainhour, of Pinnacle, visited this section Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shamel visited her mother, of Pinnacle, Saturday and Sunday.

FRANCISCO.

Francisco, Jan. 9.

Billie Cox, an aged citizen, of this community, is at the point of death.

I understand that Robt. George has gone to Richmond to school.

Messrs. Clifford Nunn and John Smith went to Mt. Airy a few days ago to work in the furniture factory and the boys got homesick and didn't work but one half of a day and the boys come home and I think the boys will make another crop of tobacco.

Mr. Fletcher Collins has been right puny with an ingrowing nail.

People are marketing a very little tobacco now.

Farmers Meet At Red Shoals.

Red Shoals, Jan. 15.

The Dillard branch of the North Carolina Farmers Protective Association met at Dillard on Saturday before second Sunday in January.

Several of its members were present. Some important questions were discussed.

Some new members enrolled. J. Wilson Mitchell, an active member of the Association and a reliable merchant proposed to sell goods for cash to any and all members of the Association for 10 per cent profit. Next meeting will be held at Dillard on Saturday before second Sunday in February. All members should be present as we wish to arrange to buy our fertilizer.

JAS. M. FAGG,
Pres. N. F. P. Association.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

J. R. Martin, of Hartman, was in town a day or two since.

Mr. Ray Martin left Saturday to enter school at Whitsett Institute.

The Stokes County Medical Association will meet here next Monday.

R. H. R. Blair is contemplating moving to St. Louis, Mo., sometime during the coming spring. It is hoped that he will decide not to leave. Mr. Blair has a brother living in St. Louis.
