

Briefs Adrift.

Georgia watermelons have put in their appearance.

Dr. W. L. McCannless returned from Winston-Salem Thursday.

Mr. J. Frank Martin went to Winston Saturday, returning Sunday.

Miss Cora Petree left Saturday for Winston to spend several days.

Miss Maggie Petree, of Germantown, is visiting relatives here this week.

A new piano was placed in the hotel at Piedmont Springs yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. R. Green, of Winston, went to Piedmont Springs Monday.

Dr. W. C. Slate, of Capella, visited Danbury and Piedmont Springs Saturday.

Attorneys J. D. Humphreys and N. O. Petree paid a professional visit to Mayodan Thursday.

Mr. D. D. Carroll, of Mizpah, is attending the Southern Students' Conference at Asheville this week.

Mr. Martin, representing the Madison Grocery Co., spent Monday night at the McCannless Hotel.

Dr. C. W. Joyce spent Sunday and Monday with relatives in the Pinnacle and Westfield neighborhoods.

Register Jones has issued only one marriage license since our last report and that was to a colored couple.

Mr. W. F. Davis, of Red Shoals, was here Saturday to consult the Drs. McCannless. Mr. Davis' health is slightly impaired.

Miss Maud Hunter returned to her home at Pinnacle Tuesday, after a week's visit to Mrs. A. W. Davis, of this place.

Mrs. H. B. Pulliam, of Winston, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. F. Smith. Mrs. Pulliam's little son, Master John, is with her.

Huckleberries are beginning to get ripe and there is an immense crop of them. In the language of the boys, "the woods are full of them."

Miss Belle Joyce and Messrs. Reid and Nune Christian, of Westfield, are expected to visit Danbury the latter part of the week.

The independent telephone line from Danbury to Madison has been extended to Intelligence and will soon be extended to Wentworth and Spray.

Hayes Duggins, who resides near Danbury, killed a large copper head moccasin in his house Saturday night. Hayes came very near stepping on the snake.

The Rev. Dr. B. W. Mebane will preach at the Presbyterian church here next Sunday morning and at night. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

Mr. J. I. Crews, of Kernersville, spent Saturday night with his daughter, Mrs. A. W. Davis. Mr. Crews returned home Monday accompanied by his daughter, Miss Floss, who had been visiting here several days.

Rev. J. T. Ratledge, who recently visited his people in Davie county, returned to his home at Cases Monday. We are glad to learn that his health, which has not been good for some time, is improving.

Miss Mary Martin entertained quite a number of her young friends at a lawn party Monday night from 8:30 to 11:30. Delicious ice-cream was served during the evening and the occasion was a very enjoyable one.

Sheriff R. J. Petree has been spending several days at his home near Germantown recently looking after the harvesting of his wheat. Mr. Petree says that he never saw so much straw but that the yield of grain will not be more than one-half what it was last year.

THE WEDDING BELLS TO RING.

Dr. C. W. Joyce, of Elgin, Oklahoma, To Lead Miss Cora Petree, of Danbury, to the Altar Next Monday Morning At Nine O'clock.

At nine o'clock next Monday morning at the home of the bride-to-be in Danbury, Dr. C. Will Joyce, of Elgin, Oklahoma, will lead to the hymeneal altar one of Danbury's well-known and popular young ladies, Miss Cora M. Petree. The ceremony will be a private home affair, only the near relatives of both parties, with possibly a few friends, having been invited. The ceremony will be performed by Dr. B. W. Mebane, pastor of the Mount Airy and Danbury Presbyterian churches.

Immediately after the nuptials the couple will leave for Walnut Cove where they will take the 3 o'clock N. & W. train for their future home in Oklahoma, going by way of Roanoke.

Miss Petree is the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Petree. She is a young lady of many endearing qualities, and a host of friends will note her departure for a distant residence in the west with sincere regret.

Dr. Joyce is the younger brother of ex-Sheriff R. P. Joyce. He has been practicing medicine in Elgin for two years, and has made a distinguished success.

Geo. Simmons Falls In The Street At Winston With Attack of Fever,

Mr. George Simmons, a young man who is employed as night watchman at Brown's warehouse, in Winston, was taken to the hospital Saturday morning, suffering from an attack of fever.

Mr. Simmons had started to the depot, and intended to go to Pilot Mountain, where his parents reside. In front of the Winston Clothing Co. he stopped and engaged a friend in conversation. In a few moments he became dizzy, falling in a faint. A carriage was called and the young man removed to the hospital, where he is receiving treatment.

Mr. Simmons formerly resided at Westfield. He had been sick for several days and had decided to go to the home of his parents. He weighs more than 200 pounds and his friends fear his illness will go hard with him.

Death Of Uncle Sam Westmoreland.

Uncle Sam Westmoreland died Monday night at the home of his adopted son, Mr. Jack Heath, after a lingering illness. He was aged 76. His wife died last January at the age of 82. They were childless.

Uncle Sam was a noted character in this community. He attended every court here during a period of about 50 years, with his cider and cake wagon. He was an honest, conscientious old fellow, and was a consistent and devoted member of the Primitive Baptist church.

The interment was made at the old Burton graveyard near Danbury Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Thos. Petree visited Winston-Salem Saturday.

CHICKENS, EGGS AND CROSS TIES.

These Articles Take the Place Of Money and Keep Trade Lively At Dillard—The Sick Improving.

Dillard, June 20.—Weather extremely hot this week, some of the boys had to go to the shade. We had a nice shower of rain Friday, Saturday and today.

The members of Wilson Primitive Baptist church ate the Lord's Supper last Sunday. There was a large crowd in attendance. Rev. Mr. Robbins preached at Bethesda Sunday P. M.

Mr. J. C. Flinn, one of Pine Hall's prosperous merchants, was here today looking after his fertilizer business.

Mr. J. A. Carter, another prominent merchant of Pine Hall, was also here today. Those that are on the sick list this week are some better than they were last week. David Carter is improving some and Russell Mitchell is also getting some better, we are glad to note.

Luther Hester, with Vaughn & Co., of Winston, called on the merchants here today, and Mr. Martin with the Madison Grocery Co., called yesterday.

J. Wilson Mitchell went to Winston last week.

Chickens, eggs and cross-ties seem to be the main currency with the people of this section. I expect there is more such stuff sold here than any other part of Stokes, N.

WM. BURROW THROWN BY MULE.

Children's Day at Bethel—Birthday Supper in Honor of Mr. Lucian Moore.

Rural Hall Route 2, June 18—Farmers are very busy nowadays cutting wheat.

Children's Day was observed at Bethel yesterday and continued until after night, commencing at 3 P. M. and lasting until about 5 o'clock. Then all went and enjoyed a grand surprise birthday supper given in honor of Mr. Lucian Moore. Everybody enjoyed a nice good supper.

Mr. Ollie Boles and his sister Miss Morice visited relatives near Rural Hall recently.

Mr. Wm. Burrow happened to the misfortune of getting mule thrown the other day. He had a scything cradle in his hand but didn't get hurt much, except his feelings. He had 50 cents' worth of sugar, too, and dropped it and I guess he hated to leave his sugar there in the road.

Messrs. Willie Wall and C. E. Moore are the sportiest boys you ever saw. They have gone to King today and of course you know they carried their best girls. But Mr. Willie happened to the luck to have to hook in another horse at Mr. Westmoreland's. That is right, Mr. Westmoreland, help him out all you can, for he is rough on rats, and I guess he is on horses, too.

Mr. Will Bodenhammer seems to be a good boy of late. He goes along with the widow and helps take care of the children. May God bless him in his kind effort.

TIP TOP.

Miller-Field.

Miss Sudy Stokes Miller, of Richmond, who is well known in Danbury, was married on June 14th to Mr. B. Percy Field, a well known gentleman of the same city. Miss Miller is a daughter of the Rev. Cornelius Miller, formerly pastor of the Danbury Presbyterian church.

The many friends of Mr. J. H. Hill, a native of Germantown, will be pleased to learn of his promotion in the railroad world. He has just been appointed chief train dispatcher on the Shenandoah division of the Norfolk & Western.

WALNUT COVE.

Walnut Cove, June 18—We have had several nice showers of rain for the past few days. Crops are looking better.

Mr. Tom Campbell and little sons, Willie and Paul, took a trip to Winston last Friday.

Mr. J. M. Westmoreland saved some nice hay down on the Reid farm last week.

Walnut Cove is on a boom; it runs a special car up towards Wilson's Store every Saturday with Mr. Jim Taylor conductor.

We are sorry to know that Miss Francis is going to leave us. I know there are more sad hearts than mine.

I wonder how Mrs. L. E. Boles' company is now? US BOTH.

Thinks King Is The Place For the County Fair.
King, June 20.

Mr. Editor: I notice an editorial in regard to a county fair next fall. I say we can have one O. K. Old Stokes has a lot of good things if they were only brought together in a grand display. Now you run the fair. I only want to say where to have it. Of course, King is the most desirable place as it has a fine outlet with adjoining counties, plenty of room, water and something to eat. I don't think you could do better than to choose King as the ground, I am sure it would appreciate it and help to make a success.

Let's hear from others.

Chamberlain's COLIC, CHOLERA AND Diarrhea Remedy

A few doses of this remedy will invariably cure an ordinary attack of diarrhea.

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. It may save life.

PRICE, 25c. LARGE SIZE, 50c.
