

Briefs Adrift.

Mr. J. H. Hart, of Hartman, visited Danbury yesterday.

The Methodist church here is being painted on the inside this week.

Supt. J. T. Smith left yesterday to look after some of the schools of the county.

Messrs. S. M. Nelson and W. C. Smith, of Danbury Route 1, were here yesterday.

Messrs. H. W. and Jno. T. Carroll, of Mizpah Route 1, were visitors here yesterday.

Mr. A. M. Carroll, of Germantown Route 1, was here yesterday. He was accompanied by Miss E. Thore.

A porker weighing 350 pounds and only 17 months old was recently killed by Mr. A. M. Carroll, of Germantown R. F. D. No. 1.

Mr. W. R. Johnson, of King, traveling salesman for Liipfert, Seales & Co., of Winston, visited the Danbury merchants yesterday.

Sheriff R. J. Petree will begin another tax-collecting tour Monday. His first appointment is at King as will be seen at another place in this paper.

Far Westerners Visiting Among Us.

Mr. J. L. Veach, of New Providence, Iowa, accompanied by Mrs. Veach, has recently been spending several days in this section visiting relatives. Mr. Veach was formerly of Yadkin county, but has been living in Iowa thirty-eight years. He went west soon after the war. Mr. Veach is a brother of Mrs. T. J. Davis, of this community.

Mr. Veach says that Iowa is a great country, but he does not advise others to go there unless they have plenty of money, as a poor man wouldn't stand much of a row where land is worth from 75 to 100 dollars per acre. Mr. Veach owns 90 acres of land for which he recently refused $8,000.

Mr. John Neal, Sr.

Mr. John Neal, Sr., of Meadows, was here Friday and paid the Reporter a pleasant call. Mr. Neal is now about 83 years of age, and enjoys the best of health. He can do as good a day's work now as the average person not half his age. Mr. Neal has never used tobacco, and but very little whiskey, and his temperate habits may probably be attributed his longevity. Mr. Neal is a big land owner, and one of the most substantial citizens of this township.

Three Marriages.

The home of the bride's father, Mr. D. F. Tillotson, on Jan. 2, Mr. Ernest Kiser and Miss Tillotson were united in marriage. Seales Cromer and Tillotson were also married at the same time and place. The bride's mother, Mrs. G. Edwards, on Jan. 2, Walter C. Sally and Mrs. G. Edwards were married. P. Oliver officiated at the marriages.

PINNACLE ROUTE 2.

Pinnacle Route 2, Jan. 8.—The Pinnacle Graded School is progressing nicely.

Miss Connie Haley spent Saturday with Misses Flaud and Floss Kallam.

Misses Maud Hunter, Amie Crouse and Emma Spainhower visited Mrs. Ellis Stone Sunday evening.

Miss Ila and Mrs. Fannie Watson visited Misses Flaud and Floss Kallam Sunday.

Miss Elsie Gordon, Pinnie, Grace and Janie King visited Miss Mamie Gordon Sunday evening.

Miss Eliza Edwards attended the quarterly meeting at Chestnut Grove Saturday and Sunday. Glad to see Miss Eliza out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shouse, of Winston, returned home Sunday, after a few days visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sullivan.

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Slate spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dolphus Slate, of King.

Mr. R. S. Moser left Monday for High Point.

We would ask Jack and Jim to explain themselves more fully about the four kinds of a time Messrs. Bud, Colphus and Hubert Gordon had at Mr. King's on Friday night, Dec. 29. Guess Jack and Jim felt some what left for the others had the music.

Miss Agnes Seagraves was the guest of Miss Elsie Gordon Sunday.

Mr. Preston Barber left for Winston Tuesday. We were very sorry to see him leave.

Miss Irene Simpson still comes down every Sunday to see her dear E. N. M.

JOLLY GIRL.

DILLARD.

Dillard, Jan. 9.—Prof. A. J. Essex returned home last week from his singings with an attack of lagrippe. He has since recovered and gone back to his work.

Reid Martin, son of Mat Martin, is very sick with typhoid fever. That is the third case at Mr. Martin's home since last summer.

Tom Duggins is reported as being very low with pneumonia. It is feared that he will never recover.

Mr. Nick Mitchell spent the Christmas holidays at East Bend. He reports an enjoyable time.

Several have gone from this neighborhood to Meadows to the auction sale of horses.

Mr. F. A. Lasley, who has been going to school in Baltimore visited his people here during the holidays, returning to Baltimore Sunday.

Mrs. J. P. Lasley, who has been in Ohio for some time, is at home on a visit.

Mr. Charlie Peebles is going to school at Sharp's Institute, Intelligence, N. C. Hope Charlie will make a success of his effort to learn.

Mr. F. M. Davidson is suffering a great deal with rheumatism.

MR. C. W. WALL ENTERTAINS.

Old Christmas Celebrated in Royal Style.

Rural Hall, Route 2, Jan. 8.—Some of the farmers have been marketing tobacco since Xmas.

Mr. C. W. Wall broke up Xmas for all his friends Saturday 6th, Old Xmas. He seldom ever keeps the 25th of December. He waits till the last and has the best time of all. There were 105 gathered at his home and all enjoyed Old Christmas with the old man. He gave a nice dinner and after all enjoyed that he had plenty of nice music in the afternoon, and about candle-light Santa Claus and old Aunt Santa opened their little tent and made all welcome to a lot of candy, nuts, apples and raisins.

Among them that were present: Ex-Sheriff J. C. Wall and step mother, Mrs. Dicie; Mr. Jim Kallam, Zack Isom, Allie Boles, N. S. Jones and family; J. A. Newsom and wife; W. M. Burrow and family; S. C. Tuttle and family; Mrs. Polly Wall and family; J. A. Rierson and family; W. T. Jones and wife and little son Clifton; Mr. Millar Edward and wife; Messrs. Gid Rutledge, Tom Wall, Jim Wall, C. E. Moore, Tom Edwards, Laura Jones, Arthur Westmoreland, Misses Carrie Vaughn, Alice Edwards, Martha Jones, Mary Jones, Martha Spainhour, Eva Westmoreland and sister Pearl and a lot of others.

All enjoyed themselves until about 11 o'clock and then went home thinking they would never forget the 6th day of Jan. 1906, and will try to be with the old man next Old Xmas if it be the Lord's will.

We all sincerely wish Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wall many more happy Xmases.

A GUEST.

HIGH POINT.

High Point, Jan. 8. Everything is lively since Xmas. It seems to be a little too lively for Dick Joyce. He could not stand us a week.

Mr. Dan Tuttle is getting 35c a day and is paying 36 for his board.

Mr. David Southern is liking it all right, but would like better if he could see his girl.

I will close for this time.

STREET PACKER.

The Bank of Stokes County is proving a good thing for widows, children, and other persons having small sums of money, which they are placing with the Bank, and laying up for a rainy day. Any amount is taken, and 4 per cent interest is paid.

BROWN, CARTER & SIMPON

The Gorrells

Farmers Warehouse

Winston, N. C.

Have gained more new trade and sold far more of their old customers this year than ever before in the history of their warehouse business. This shows very plainly that they have been getting the best prices and making the highest averages. We are justly proud of this record and desire to thank our friends for this immense trade. We will be delighted to handle the balance of your tobacco, and, undoubtedly, we can make it pay you to sell with us.

Your friends,
A. B. GORRELL & SON.

FIRST SALE DAYS:
For November—Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
For December—Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays.

Re-Sale Of Valuable Land.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior court of Stokes county, rendered on the 12th of August, 1905, in the special proceedings entitled "J. C. Wall, administrator of Wm. Wall, dec'd, against James R. Rierson and others," I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, upon the terms hereinafter set forth, at the court house door, in the town of Danbury, N. C., on Monday, February 5th, 1906, beginning at 12 o'clock, M., one valuable tract of land in Stokes county, belonging to the estate of Wm. Wall, dec'd, to-wit: A tract, known as the John H. Young tract, adjoining the C. W. Glidwell tract and contains 201 acres, more or less. This is a very fine farm, and is well improved, with a fine lot of original timber land on it. This farm is a good tobacco, wheat, corn and grass farm, with a lot of good meadow, and a good young orchard on it. Has two dwelling houses on it, one of which has several rooms, and is a good comfortable dwelling. The other house has three rooms, and there are good stables at both of the dwellings. This farm is also well supplied with tobacco barns, and has also a small cabin house. This tract is within four miles of Walnut Cove, in a good neighborhood.

Terms of sale—One-third cash, one-third payable May 1st, 1906, and the other third payable on Dec. 20th, 1906, with bond and approved security for the deferred payments, bearing 6 per cent interest from day of sale.

This Dec. 27th, 1905.
