GIVE US A JUDGE AT LARGE.

There ought to be a law passed by the next General Assembly for the election of a Judge-at-large for the State of North Carolina, whose business shall be to fill vacancies in the court terms of the State caused by the illness or death of Judges, and whose mission shall be, moreover, to hold special terms of court when and where needed in the different counties. We understand that the constitution would have to be amended first, however.

In our own county this week we are confronted with a situation wherein the above-mentioned remedy would be applicable. The witnesses, jurymen and parties to the suits were kept waiting three days, and put to a great deal of expense, loss of time and worry because the only two available judges were sick.

GOOD NEWS ABOUT THE R. F. D. LINES.

The Postmaster General, in an examination before the committee of the Senate of which Senator Simmons is chairman, states that the report current that many of the R. F. D. lines are to be discontinued, is without foundation, and that it is the policy of the department to render the R. F. D. lines more efficient rather than to discontinue them. All of which is good news to our people. We are getting used to this method of getting our mail delivered at our doors daily, and we like it.

Mr. Jas. Green, who is one of the leading workers of the R. J. Reynolds branch of the Tobacco Trust, was in town last week and stated that tobacco is going to sell high next fall because there is a short supply. Now is there really a shortage of the raw material, or does the Trust intuitively feel the breath of the gathering storm, and thus make friendly overtures.

The provision in the constitution and by-laws of the Farmers Association that any officer or member who injects politics into the organization, shall be expelled, is wise. There shall be no politics in this great movement. It is born of the sufferings of the great mass of the North Carolina tobacco raisers. Its origin is right and its mission sacred.

Hundreds of the Reporter's readers and friends visited Danbury this week. We wish we had the time and space to print all their names.

When Quaker Gap takes a notion, she does things. It is reported that the Farmers' Association at Francisco has 140 members and they are still a-jinin'.

It was suggested by some of the crowd that Judge McNeill was playing sick because he dreaded to tackle the Stokes county roads.

But whether the price of tobacco be high or low, you are going to need all the bread and meat you can grow, so be wise.

WALNUT COVE ELECTION.

The "Unlucky" Municipal Officers—Professor Bagby Has Pneumonia, Roy Fair Up, Mrs. Davis Improving—Items and Personals of Interest.

Walnut Cove, May 8.—The children with a crowd of young people and older ones had their annual picnic in the grove at the Episcopal church on Monday. Mrs. Nannie Fulton, Mrs. S. C. Rierson, and Mr. W. B. Vaughn chaperoned the picnickers. At 12 o'clock lunch was served, and was much enjoyed by all, especially the children. The afternoon was spent in hunting flowers to crown the May Queen. Miss Sallie May Fulton was voted Queen by a small majority, Miss Bettie Woodruff being a very close second.

Among the visitors to our city since our last report, we mention Willie Vaughn, of Winston, Miss Fannie Voss, Miss Lillian Vaughn, Lola Martin, Lizzie Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Vaughn, R. U. Moser, Mrs. Dr. Thos. T. Watkins and children and Capt. D. B. Fouch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Vaughn, while returning from a shopping trip to Winston, had the misfortune to lose their horse. When within seven miles of home it sickened and died in a few moments.

Mrs. Thomas Crews nee Miss Jane Samuel returned to her home at Durham, N. C. Sunday after visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Petree, several days.

Wm. Lewellyn is out again. Dr. E. Fulp, Dell and Jack Taylor and others spent Friday afternoon and night over on Dan river fishing. They report a big time and a good catch.

The many friends of Roy Fair were very much gratified to see him on the front porch Sunday.

Prof. Bagby has pneumonia at Dr. A. G. Jones'. His sister is at his bedside.

Mrs. Jno. W. Davis, who has been confined with paralysis for sometime, was able to be carried on an invalid chair to spend the day with her son, Thos. W. Davis, Sunday.

Dr. W. W. Withers is the proud father of a bouncing girl about 10 days old.

Bob Haizliff, of Indian Territory, was calling on his friends in this city Sunday.

Prof. Emmett Willis, of Germantown, was calling on some of our girls Sunday afternoon.

North and South Walnut Cove crossed bats in a game of baseball Saturday. South Walnut Cove won, score 17 to 29.

Dr. Thos. Watkins, of Advance, came over yesterday afternoon.

Pendleton Overby reports an egg apparently with two yolks, but when it was broken it contained one egg under the first shell, and inside another egg shell and all complete.

The city election passed quietly yesterday. Ticket elected as follows: The unlucky ones are:

A. S. Mitchell Mayor.
Committeemen: C. T. Willis, R. L. Murphy and D. S. Boyles.

Thos. Rothrock and J. G. Fulton were lucky in that they tied and neither will serve as city fathers.

J. Will East was elected constable.

Increasing Business.

The Bank of Stokes County every week adds new depositors to its ledger. The people of Stokes county are patronizing it loyally. Many people who have never done any banking business before, especially farmers, are finding that running a bank account is not only nice and convenient and business-like, but that it saves them quite a good deal when they want to send money off any distance.

KO-KOON.

Death Of Mrs. Martha E. Pulliam.

Martha E. Pulliam, maiden name Vanter, was born June 16th 1835, died May 6th 1906, aged 70 years, 10 months and 20 days old. She was married to Simeon S. Pulliam Aug. 15, 1852. Her husband was killed at Fredricksburg, Va., Dec. 13, 1862. Thus she lived a widow 43 years, 4 months and 23 days. She lived a consistent member of the Methodist Church about 51 years. She leaves one son, three daughters, 26 grand children and 10 great grand children to mourn their loss.

"Aunt Martha," as she was formerly known, was a prominent figure in the country for a great while. She will be much missed, not only by her children, but by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, who sorrow not as those who have no hope. We doubt not that her soul is safe in the arms of Jesus. The body was laid to rest in old Mt. Olive cemetery on the 7th inst. in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and sympathizing friends, burial services conducted by Eld. P. Oliver. May all her relatives be prepared to meet her in Heaven.
