Yesterday was the first day of the season that people had to put up their stoves. Our climate is the finest in the world.

The Pretty Marriage Of Miss Ellen Petree and Dr. George E. Dennis, Mr. Editor :

If you will give me a little space in your paper I will tell the many relatives and friends of Miss Ellen Petree, a little about her wedding and her doctor and their immediate future. At a little after 12:30 o'clock Saturday, June 9th, those who were permitted to witness the marriage were assembled in the parlor of Mr. F. E. Petree, the father of the bride and Miss Hill, of Germanton, played a very pretty wedding march, while the bride, Miss Ellen Petree, and the bride-groom, Dr. George E. Dennis, descended the stairs and faced the ministers. There was not that nervous excitement in the faces of the bride and bride-groom, which is so often seen on such occasions, but a quiet earnestness which speaks well for the future. After a short but impressive ceremony had been read by the writer and a prayer invoking God's choicest blessings upon the young couple was uttered by Rev. Hunter, of Pinnacle, Dr. Dennis and his new wife were heartily congratulated then shown the way to a table groaning under the weight of a wedding feast. Doubtless many wedding dinners have been served in finer style, but this one was served in that way that makes every one feel free to eat until his appetite is satisfied. After dinner there were about two hours of very pleasant social intercourse before some of the guests began to call for their teams and vehicles. One sad feature of all such occasions is that the parting words must be said so soon.

Dr. Dennis and his wife and a few of their friends who could, went to Germanton and took the six o'clock train for Pinnacle, the home of the bride-groom's parents. Those who were there report a very pleasant evening and a royal feast for supper. Dr. Dennis said that they would spend two or three days with his parents and then visit his sister, who lives at High Point. From there they intend going to Lynchburg, the Hill City of Virginia, and see the sights there for a day or two, and from there to Roanoke. After seeing the city of Roanoke they will go to Iager, W. Va., where they intend to make their home.

A TRIP TO DILLARD. A Region Of Fine Crops, Pretty Farms and Hospitable People.

A Reporter representative paid a pleasant trip to the Dillard and Gideon sections last Saturday.

Cousin Gid Mitchell was found at his hospitable home under the pleasant shade of the oaks. Mr. Mitchell has been rather unwell this spring, but is peart as a cricket now.

Dillard is a hustling place. Two excellent stores, a sawmill and other enterprises, and a number of nice dwellings. The merchants, C. A. Mitchell and Mitchell Bros., are enjoying good trades. Mr. Nick Mitchell, of the firm of Mitchell Bros., was absent over about East Bend—gone courtng, some of the boys said. Mr. J. Wilkes Mitchell has recently moved into his attractive little home.

Messrs. C. A. Mitchell and Jas. Reynolds expect to spend some time during the summer at some of our springs. We have picked out a girl apiece for them. They mean business.

Farms are in good fix and crops look fine around Dillard and Gideon. There are some beautiful residences, notably those of Dr. D. C. Dix, Mr. Zeb Martin, Mrs. Bettie Martin and others. There are no more progressive and hospitable citizens in the county than those who live in Dillard, Gideon and surrounding country.

A. S. Voss Announces Himself For Treasurer.

King Route 1, June 5. Editor Reporter:

Please give me space in your most valuable paper for a few lines. I wish to announce myself as a candidate for the office of Treasurer subject to the county convention, as I see a number of good men spoken of for this office and I want to be in the fight also, and whatever designation our convention makes in nominating a candidate will be harmonious with me and I will work for the whole ticket just as I have been doing for twenty-eight years. Now I hope the voters will make a selection from this number and if I am the lucky one, I sure will appreciate it, and if not I will appreciate what is done just the same.

Yours truly, A. S. VOSS.
