

PROF. WILCOX COMING.

Will Begin a Series of Temperance Lectures At Stokesburg M. E. Church Sunday Night, July 8.

On next Sunday night, July 8, Prof. A. D. Wilcox, of Kansas, will begin a series of illustrated temperance lectures at the Stokesburg M. E. church.

Prof. Wilcox comes highly recommended as an able interesting speaker. He is sent out by the American Anti-Saloon League.

The Reporter takes pleasure in publishing the following testimonials:

The addresses of Prof. Wilcox are witty, humorous, logical and powerful. His mirth-provoking remarks are always chaste, pure and wholesome. His arguments are strong and pleasant in a most pleasing manner. His speeches are sentiment-making from start to finish. His Lecture on "The Present Crisis" is one of the most intellectual, moral, patriotic, and religious treats ever listened to by a Kansas congregation. The thing that impressed me most of all was the kindness and consideration shown towards those who differ with him.

THOS. M. RUKMAN, State Lecturer Kansas W. C. T. U.

Mr. A. D. Wilcox is in this State with a view to conducting meetings in the interest of temperance. His work is educational in character. He came to the State well recommended and our people have commended him most heartily at Rocky Mount, Wilson, Goldsboro, and Selma, at each of which places he has held meetings. He requires no guarantee, but depends upon his work to command support. I have carefully examined his testimonial and am prepared to recommend him to our people.

In every town in the State we should have meetings in the interest of temperance.

Sincerely, J. W. BAILEY.

The Piedmont Springs Hotel Closes

The Piedmont Springs hotel was closed last Sunday and the proprietors, Messrs. J. M. Goddard & Son, have gone. It is thought that they went to Winston. It is known that they left behind a large number of unpaid bills. There were several guests at the hotel. These left for Moore's and Vade Mecum before the closing act. An Italian band from Richmond and a number of servants mourn the departure of the proprietors.

Whether or not Piedmont will be opened again for guests this season, is a matter of conjecture. Nothing definite can be learned. Messrs. J. S. Taylor, of Danbury, and J. R. Green, of Winston, are the lessees.
