

Lab. Scarce and High—Happened in the Fourth—Items of Interest.

Walnut Cove, July 10.—Below find a few items of interest. When this reaches you I will be in the Gate City listening to the silver-toned orators and observing the wire pulling of the leading men of the two factions of the Republican party in this State.

Mr. Pink Burge was here on the fourth inst. to see his father, who was very feeble at the residence of Robt. Slate. Mr. Burge decided that his father could be cared for much better at the home of his son, Billy Burge, of Winston, and engaged Chas. Morefield to move him which he did July 5th.

On July 4th the base ball team from Pinnacle came down and licked our boys by a score of 11 to 27. The darkies of Rural Hall pulled off very near as good a victory with the coons of this place; 22 to 30 was the score. Each game was well patronized.

Mr. Gus Reich, the "Wizard of the Blue Ridge," was here last Thursday on his way home from Germantown, where he pulled the wool over the eyes of the good people of that town on the night of the 4th inst. Mr. Reich expects to exhibit here just as soon as the school building is completed.

People here about who depend on hired help are about at their wits' end. Women laborers are all employed. Recently J. B. Woodruff, of our city, paid women $1.00 per day of ten hours and could only get a few hours work at a time from any one party. Two of Mr. A. J. Fair's men have quit him to seek greener pastures. He is now offering $20.00 and board per month for farm hands. Such men as Capt. R. L. Murphy are spending considerable time in their garden spots chopping up grass. What few idle hirelings to be found are too sorry to think about.

Mrs. J. E. Cookers, from West Va., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. P. Landreth.

A number of our young people visited Piedmont and Moore's Springs Sunday.

DANBURY ROUTE 1.

Danbury Route 1, July 10.—Elder J. J. Joyce filled his regular appointment at North View last Saturday and Sunday and was assisted by several visiting Elders. Walter Mabe and wife were baptized last Sunday.

The infant baby of Mr. Bob Coleman died last Sunday morning, and was buried Monday.

Miss Nina Sheppard returned home Saturday from a visit to relatives at Campbell. She was accompanied by Jennie Sheppard. Misses Lilla and Jettie Young, Berchie Dunlap and Mr. Herbert Ray, visited at Mr. John Sisk's Sunday.

Mr. Will Lackey and wife and Mr. Hub Young and wife, of Campbell, visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. P. E. Sheppard and Henry Smith called on the Misses Sisk Saturday.

Harvey came as a present for Miss Lucy, as Saturday was her birthday. We think she is well pleased with her present.

MAE.

HAS STOOD THE TEST 25 YEARS.

The old original GROVE'S Tasteless Chill Tonic. You know what you are taking. It is iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, No pay.

A Hair Dressing

Nearly every one likes a fine hair dressing. Something to make the hair more manageable; to keep it from being too rough, or from splitting at the ends. Something, too, that will feed the hair at the same time, a regular hair-food. Well-fed hair will be strong, and will remain where it belongs—on the head, not on the comb!

The best kind of a testimonial—

GERMANTOWN.

Germantown, July 9.—Has Germantown awakened? The first time in seventeen years the Fourth of July was observed. Although the farmers were very busy, yet quite a large crowd was present.

Some of the interesting features of the day, was a brass band from Centerville, a ball game between the Germantown and Rural Hall nines, a Literary Address by Prof. E. C. Brooks from Goldsboro, and at evening a sleight of hand performance by Guss Reich "Wizard of the Blue Ridge."

The exercises were enjoyed by all present. The address by Prof. Brooks was very good indeed.

Some of the ladies present from a distance were Misses Claudie and Stella Rierson, from Walnut Cove; and Miss Whorten, from Clemmonsville.

Mrs. Small is visiting her father, Dr. L. H. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McGee spent a few days of last week at the bedside of his mother, who is very ill.

J. L. M. McKenzie & Co. are preparing to move their stock of goods to their new stand. They have moved back the old saloon building formerly occupied by Kobre Bros. They have also moved the old store building once occupied by Poindexter & Westmoreland from the upper end of town and by combining the two have a large and roomy apartment; and in the near future they will be glad to see their friends at their new stand.

Miss Berta Roberson, of Roanoke, Va., and Miss Etta Anderson, of Rural Hall, are coming to visit Miss Maggie Petree this week.

Mr. Marshall Kurfes, of Louisville, Ky., will preach at Corinth Sunday July 15. There will be two sermons, one in the morning at 11 o'clock, and one at night.

Master Fred Petree, of Walnut Cove, is visiting his Aunt, Mrs. O. N. Petree.

Sheriff R. J. Petree left this morning for Greensboro to attend the State Convention.

PINNACLE.

Pinnacle, July 9.—Rev. J. L. Barret, of Reidsville, preached at the Baptist church here Saturday and Sunday. We are hoping to have Mr. Barret as our future pastor.

Mr. John Spainhour and mother went to Mt. Pleasant Sunday to attend the funeral of her grandchild.

Miss Liny Simpson spent Sunday in Greensboro with Mrs. W. L. McChriston.

Miss Addie Styers and sister, of Rural Hall, spent Saturday night with Miss Lucy Spainhour, returning Sunday A. M.

Miss Daisy Spainhour went to High Point Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Ruff Moser, for a few weeks.

Misses Flaud Kallam and Connie Haley went to Winston the fourth to visit the latter's sisters, returning Friday evening. They report quite a pleasant trip.

Walnut Cove and Pinnacle first nine crossed bats the fourth on the former's ground, which ended 28 to 10 in favor of Pinnacle.

Mrs. Nannie Spainhour spent several days of the past week in Greensboro visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. L. McChriston.

The lawn party that was given at the M. E. church Saturday evening was quite a success. There was a large crowd present, there being several from Pilot Mt. There were also Messrs. J. W. John and Ed Gibson from King Route 2, who I don't think enjoyed themselves very much.

Mr. Joe Spainhour left the past week for Spencer, where he will take a place in the machine shop.

BETSEY.

FORCED TO STARVE.

B. F. Leek, of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies, with a sore on my upper lip, so painful, sometimes, that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Bocklen's Arnica Salve. It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At all drug stores; only 25 cents."

A SURPRISE PARTY.

A pleasant surprise party may be given to your stomach and liver, by taking a medicine which will relieve their pain and discomfort, viz: Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are a most wonderful remedy, affording sure relief and cure, for headache, dizziness and constipation. 25c at all drug stores.
