SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Held at Bethany Church Last Saturday—Business Transacted By the Convention.

Pursuant to notice, the Stokes County Sunday School Association met in convention at Bethany Lutheran church on Saturday, Aug. 17, 1907.

On account of the unfavorable condition of the weather, the people were late in assembling, and the convention was not called to order until 11:30 a. m., and part of the program for the morning session had to be omitted.

About 12 o'clock the people began to come in and at the evening session there was a very good crowd present. Addresses were made by the following parties:

Rev. Mr. Strickler of the Lutheran church, Rev. D. A. Binkley of the M. E. church, Rev. C. H. Johnson of the Missionary Baptist church, Rev. A. R. Berkeley of the Episcopal church, and Prof. M. T. Chilton of the Friends church.

Report of committee on recommendation of officers for the ensuing year.

Bethany Lutheran Church, Aug. 17th, 1907.

The undersigned committees appointed to recommend to this convention persons to be elected by the convention as officers of the Stokes County Sunday School Association, for the ensuing year, respectfully recommend the following:

"REGULAR AS THE SUN"

is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and setting of the sun is the most regular performance in the universe, unless it is the action of the liver and bowels when regulated with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed by all druggists, 25c.

I am an at Hartman, N. C., ready to make your tobacco flues, and sell all kind of repairs.

J. H. ROBERTSON.

"HAS IT IN" FOR MR. BUXTON.

A Correspondent Writing Under the Name Of "David" Gives His Reasons For Not Supporting Him For Congress.

Mr. Editor:
I feel like somebody ought to tell Mr. Buxton through the Reporter what our people generally think of his letter to Mr. Flinn. In it he tries hard to cover up as we believe the real reason for his very un-Democratic conduct in the last Legislature. As I see it, his explanation is nothing more than an insult to the intelligent readers of the Reporter.

Does he think we are so devoid of hard horse sense as to believe any part of such rot as he hands out to Mr. Flinn, and through him to the readers of the Reporter.

Perhaps it is the Democratic, or rather only the Buxton way, of saying what Charley Reynolds did in the last campaign, that the American Tobacco Company was the best friend the farmers of this section had, and the result of last election shows how few voters believe such rot. Mr. Buxton will find when he comes in for a nomination as Congressman, that he is not half so popular as he was when he got the nomination as Senator for Forsyth.

Mr. Buxton's reasoning is that the American Tobacco Trust is greater than the State of North Carolina. And he is, or was at the time he wrote Mr. Flinn, of the same opinion as Mr. Finley and one Jeter C. Pritchard were before they met Gov. R. B. Glenn on the railroad rate question.

Mr. Buxton was evidently more the representative of the tobacco interest of Winston than of the people of Forsyth county. And he saw that the Reid Bill "had teeth" and that it would bite the life out of the Tobacco Trust, and he was willing to sacrifice the welfare of his people to the interest of the Trust.

If the Reid Bill was a good thing 12 or 14 years ago when Cy Watson tried so hard to get it on our statute books, it is a good thing yet, and our people are inclined to the belief that a few thousand dollars cash in hand was more attractive to Mr. Buxton than the salary of an uncertain Congressman. A case of a bird in hand rather than two in the bush, you see.

That trust influences will boost Mr. Buxton for Congress, is not yet certain, because he made such a mess of it trying to make Republican acting fit into Democratic promises—such a bad mess of it that we very much doubt if his name is put to the Convention. It is certain nobody else will offer his name. No true Democrat will.

DAVID.

A PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Mary Kreeger Becomes the Bride of Mr. Ira G. Gentry.

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday evening, Aug. 14, at 5 o'clock at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kreeger, near King, when their daughter, Miss Mary, became the bride of Mr. Ira G. Gentry, of Oak Grove. The ceremony was beautifully performed by Rev. J. C. Keever, of Rural Hall. The bride was handsomely attired in white organdie. The ceremony was witnessed by a host of relatives and friends of both bride and groom. The attendants were Mr. S. A. Tuttle, of Rural Hall, with Miss Nannie Spainhower, cousin of the bride; Mr. T. W. Gentry, of Winston-Salem, brother of the groom, with Miss Martha McGee, of Oak Grove. Among the number of guests present were Mr. and Mrs.

J. J. Gentry, of Winston; Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Grabs, of King; Mr. S. F. Gordon and sister, Miss Bettie, of Germantown; Mr. C. R. Boyles, and Misses Hattie and Clemmie Smith, of Oak Grove.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom with their guests were ushered into the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers, where an excellent supper was served in honor of the happy occasion. The day following the happy couple with their guests were entertained at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Gentry, where a sumptuous dinner was served to about fifty guests or more.

The bride is a beautiful and accomplished young lady, and has a host of admiring friends. The groom is a popular young man, and one of Stokes county's most successful farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. Gentry will reside with the groom's parents for the present.

PLEASANT BOYS.

FIRE INSURANCE POLICIES.

Beware Of the Tricks By Which the Adjuster Will Try To Beat You Out Of Your Money.

Judge Robert W. Winston recently published a card in the Durham Sun which is of interest to everybody who has a fire insurance policy.

Referring to the fire insurance adjuster, Judge Winston says:

His (the adjuster's) business is to flit from place to place on the heels of a fire and to search the court records to find out if he can beat the policy-holder out of his insurance. He does not work under a local agent, but he works above him and really scorns him. He goes to the registers of deeds' office and if he finds any defect in your title his company then refuses to pay the loss, or else it does what is called penalizing you. For this reason I would ask you to give attention to the following facts:

1. If the deed to your house and lot stands in the name of your wife and is insured in your name, you cannot recover one penny under your fire insurance policy.

2. If you have a mortgage or deed in trust upon your lot and you fail to disclose this to the insurance company you, cannot recover one penny in the event of a fire.

3. If you have no deed to your house and lot and a fire occurs you cannot recover under your policy.

Judge Winston is a lawyer of recognized ability and ought to know what he is talking about. The above fact will doubtless be news to many people who carry fire insurance policies and it would be nothing amiss for all who hold an old line fire insurance policy to see to it that in case of loss by fire he is fortified against the tricks of the smart insurance adjuster.—Prog. Farmer.

Humphreys--Price.

A very pretty home marriage was celebrated at Price, Rockingham county, Wednesday morning, August 14th, at 9 o'clock, when Miss Dora Price became the bride of Mr. Ira Humphreys, Esq., of Wentworth. The ceremony was performed by her pastor, Rev. Edward Edwards, of Stokesdale. The maid of honor was Miss Morna Wilson, of Leaksville. Mr. T. T. Humphreys, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys left immediately for a trip to Washington and northern cities.

The Reporter has received a very interesting letter from Prof. W. B. Harris, of Garfield, Wash., this week, but as it is rather lengthy we will not be able to give it space until next week.

Mr. G. W. Corn, of Campbell Route 1, was here Saturday.

Briefs Adrift.

Mr. N. A. Martin visited Greensboro Thursday.

Mr. Z. R. Moran, of Meadows, was in town in business Saturday.

Miss Josie Pepper left Friday to visit relatives in Mount Airy.

Mr. H. A. Hall, of Smith, was a visitor at the Reporter office Monday.

Mr. I. D. Barr, a prominent citizen of King, was here on business Monday.

Miss Annie King, of Spencer, Va., is the guest of Miss Mary Martin.

Clerk of the Court M. T. Chilton visited Walnut Cove Monday.

Mrs. M. T. Chilton returned Friday from visit to relatives at Red Shoals.

Mr. R. P. Joyce, of Walnut Cove, spent a short while here Sunday.

Mrs. R. P. Joyce, of Walnut Cove, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. F. Smith, this week.

Pastor D. A. Binkley preached at the M. E. church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Watermelons are getting plentiful but prices fail to come down. The crop is unusually late this year.

Misses Phebe and Helen Edmunds returned to Winston Sunday, after spending several days visiting relatives here.

Prof. C. H. Johnson, of East Bend, who in spending some time at Moore's Springs, was a Danbury visitor Saturday.

The young people at Piedmont Springs gave a dance in the ball room there Saturday night. Quite a number of Danbury people attended.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Trotter, of Greensboro, who are occupying their handsome cottage at Piedmont Springs, visited Danbury Monday.

Prof. Shirley, music director at Salem Academy, accompanied by his son, Dr. Shirley, spent several days the past week in Stokes. They visited Danbury Saturday.

Reports are received here to the effect that crops in a small section of the south western part of the county are almost ruined on account of the extremely dry weather there.

Mr. J. M. Deaton, a former citizen of Stokes, who now resides at Moffit, N. C., visited his relatives and friends in Stokes the past week, returning home Tuesday. Mr. Deaton was in Danbury Monday and dropped in to see the Reporter.

The Business Guide, published by Messrs. M. I. and J. C. Stewart, at Winston, suspended with last week's issue. This action was taken by the publishers in order to give their time to other business affairs—perhaps more profitable than running a newspaper. The Guide was a welcome visitor to many homes in Stokes and will be missed.

The Taylor hotel is still enjoying quite a nice patronage. Among the recent arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. Nervell Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simpson, Mr. Dink Lockett and daughter, Miss Edwina, Mr. Robert Critz and two daughters, Misses Charlotte and Ruth, Mrs. E. W. O'Hanlon, Mrs. A. A. Smith and daughter, Miss Kathleen, Messrs. Will O'Brien, Eugene Albee and J. Irving Bolt.
