MADISON ROUTE 3.

Madison Route 3, May 25.—Rev. A. R. Berkley and wife dined with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wall Sunday. Mr. Berkley preached to a very attentive congregation at Knoll Hurst in the afternoon.

This is the doggondest district in the county. One man sold about $50.00 worth of puppies last year. Now his neighbor has 11 hounds.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. H. L. Wall is better after quite an attack of bronchitis.

People are about through planting tobacco. The seasons for such work have been very favorable. There was more fertilizer bought in this district than in 10 years, and more tobacco planted than in several years. Lookout for a low price.

Mr. Editor, can't you persuade the people to raise more mules in Stokes and stop letting so much of our money go to other States for stock?
