AT THE ASSOCIATION

GROWDS AT NORTH VIEW

Monday, Sunday and Monday, October 15, 16 and 17. Great Occasion For the Primitive Baptists—Hospitality Wide Open.

The Primitive Baptist Association at North View Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Oct. 15, 16 and 17, was one of the biggest ever held in the county. Thirty preachers of the Primitive were present, as follows: Messrs Moore, Fagg, Flinchum, Burn, Wright, Barnard, Atwell, McDaniel, Goly, Turner, Matt, Jesse, Mabe, Coleman, Biggs, Knight, Ayers, Crews, Mathews, D. Col. Spangler, Perty, Beasley, two Blancetts, two Gilley, two Priddys and three Messrs. Elder Moore was Moderator, and Elder Clark, Secretary.

Large crowds attended each day, Sunday being the greatest, and the crowd was estimated several thousand.

The hospitable people of the neighborhood took care of the visitors, Messrs. J. Wesley Morefield, Pleas Morefield, C. H. Sheppard, John Sisk, J. D. Young, and many others setting wide tables loaded down with the best that a prosperous neighborhood can afford. It is reported that Mr. J. Wesley Morefield fed several persons. Everybody was well and everybody had a good time.

The next Association will be at Sugar Tree, Pittsylvania county, Va., on the third Saturday and Sunday in May.

Airy White Sulphur Springs Sold For $41,600.

Airy, Oct. 22.—Mr. J. K. Gwyn has sold the famous Airy White Sulphur Springs to Mr. Joe H. Gwyn, of this county, the consideration being $41,600. The deal has been on some time but the formal transfer of the property did not take place until a few days ago.

Mr. Gwyn, associated with H. G. Galloway, had the springs leased the past season and they enjoyed a liberal patronage and made some money.

Mr. Gwyn is an enterprising young man of ability and good financial backing and no doubt will make this famous summer resort a profitable investment.

Mr. Reynolds has not yet decided what business he will engage in, but will spend the winter in Florida.

Dillard.

Dillard, Oct. 11.—Rev. Tom Glenn filled his appointment at a grove near here Sunday. Not so very many being present owing to the inclemency of the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Shade Martin, of Wentworth, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gentry, of Stokesdale, visited their father, Mr. Jerry Martin, Saturday and Sunday.

Among those four people who attended the Winston fair were Messrs. Landon Duncan, J. W. Wood, C. A. Mitchell, Bob and Andy James and Taylor Dunlap. Miss Minnie Duncan, who visited her sister, Mrs. L. A. Berry, of Pine Hall, the past week, returned home yesterday.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has become famous for its cures of coughs, colds, croup and influenza. Try it when in need. It contains no harmful substances and always gives prompt relief.

A TRIP TO THE FAIR.

A Jolly Party From Lawsonville Attended the Stokes County Fair Last Wednesday In Spite of Rain.

Lawsonville, Oct. 23.—On last Tuesday evening a party assembled at Mr. E. C. Sheppard's, anticipating a glorious trip to the Stokes County Fair the next morning. Everything was made ready and at 9 o'clock all retired. We slept with one eye open watching the clock, while the other dreamed on, seeing visions of fairs and balloons. By one o'clock everything was astir, the provision box was loaded, the mules were hitched, the party was aboard and at 1:30 we were moving toward King. On we went, the moon shining brightly upon us, singing merry songs and all in high spirits. As we reached the Seven Island ford, however, the moon was obscured by a dark cloud, a damp wind was blowing, and pretty soon a slow rain began to fall. Someone suggested that we turn back, but not us, we were bent on seeing the fair, so the bottle (coca-cola) was passed around and we pushed on. By 4 o'clock we were in Danbury, but much to our dismay not a person was awake, even the chief-of-police had fallen asleep at his post. Around the mountain, across rocks and creeks we went until just at day-break a spring near Flat Shoal was reached. Here all hands enjoyed a wholesome repast served in camping style. Again we started and as we went our hearts sank at times, thinking we had reached the end of the road or that we had passed the end. After passing Mt. View the roads were better, and soon we were at our journey's end. As we entered the fair grounds a heavy rain began, but despite this we saw and enjoyed all the exhibits, some of which were excellent. After taking in a few side shows and getting as wet and muddy as possible, we set out on the home retreat at two ten. All the way we faced a driving rain which put us in bad spirits. Many funny incidents too numerous to note occurred on the return. Darkness overtook us beyond Danbury and everyone fell into a peaceful nod. As we passed Snow Creek church all began to sing "Home, Sweet Home." Everyone drew a sigh of relief when at 11:05 we reached home after a long, rainy trip of 56 miles. The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. Zack Sheppard, Misses Jennie, Nina and Elsie Sheppard and Mr. Carlis Davis.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO START

Many Young Women and Young Men From Adjoining Counties to Assist in the 1910-1911 Stokes Campaign of Child Training.

In the sixty-five districts of the county the public schools will start next Monday. Among the bright array of young women and young men who will manage the schools are included not only natives of Stokes, but many from adjoining counties—some from Rockingham, Guilford, Forsyth, Surry and other counties.

The Reporter hopes to publish soon a complete list of all the teachers, with names of the districts and postoffice addresses.

Eggleston-Johnson.

At high noon Wednesday, Oct. 19, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson, of Madison Route 3, a beautiful home wedding was solemnized when their only daughter, Miss Lillian, became the bride of Allen J. Eggleston, of Bassett, Va. The bride was attired in a beautiful dress of colored silk. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Joyce. After the ceremony the minister, bride and bridegroom and attendants marched to the dining room where they found a most sumptuous dinner had been prepared which they partook of heartily. Among those present were Misses Ollie Gann, Annie Highfill, Mabel Gann, Bettie Johnson and Mary Joyce, Messrs. L. J. Gann, Judson Highfill, J. C. Johnson, R. H. Mitchell, Jr., J. R. Richardson, T. G. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gann and Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Joyce. The distant attendants were Mr. J. C. Johnson, of Stoneville, brother of the bride, Mr. Frank Eggleston of Bassett, Va., brother of the groom and Mr. Peter Craig, of Bassett.

The new couple left Mayodan on the 3:47 train for Bassett, where they will make their future home. The bride was a beautiful and popular young lady of this section, and was loved by all. The groom is an esteemed young man of Bassett. Best wishes are extended to the happy couple for a long and prosperous life.

For Sale.

On account of changing my business I will sell my farm of about 70 acres, one good six room newly painted house, good feed barn, shedded all around, one good grainery, corn crib, one smoke and well house all together covered with steel, four good tobacco barns, planked good all around, 3 1/2 acres of good meadow, can be all mowed with a machine. This is the best place in this country. There are three times as many acres in lands around this, but I get more stuff than the farms containing three times as many acres.

Terms made known day of application. Act quick and get a bargain.

STOKES COUNTY FAIR

SUCCESS IN SPITE OF RAIN

On Account of the Inclement Weather and the Show at Winston the Dates Were Extended to Embrace Friday and Saturday—The Big Gathering of Exhibits and Attractions.

In spite of the bad weather for one or two days, and in spite of the counter attraction of the show at Winston, the Stokes County Fair at King last week proved quite a success. Wednesday was a rough day, a steady, cold rain falling, but the Reporter is informed that more than 700 people entered the gates that day. The dates were extended to include Friday and Saturday, on account of the weather.

The attractions were good and the exhibits fine. The Reporter hopes to publish the list of premiums awarded in a subsequent issue.

Farmer Near Roanoke, Va., Who Did Not Believe In Banks, Now Believes In Them—Conversion Cost Him $700.00.

Near Roanoke, Va., one night recently, a farmer named Suthers was robbed of $700.00, the savings of a life time, while his wife was beaten into insensibility by robbers. Suthers was gone from home with a load of produce. The money was kept in the house, sewed up in a mattress. A suspicion of the neighbors leaked out that money was kept in the house, as Suthers did not believe in banks. The robbers came and after knocking the woman down, and tying her to a bed post, the search of the premises found the money. The robbers escaped, and the Virginia authorities have found no trace of them. Mrs. Suthers is in a serious condition.

Immense Crowds at Walnut Cove.

The Walnut Cove Mercantile Co. began a big ten day special sale last Wednesday and it is learned that immense crowds are attending and the company is selling immense quantities of goods. It was necessary to add a score or more of new clerks to wait on the crowds. The sale continues the remainder of this week and it is predicted that the crowds will be immense the latter part of the week as the sale closes Saturday night. See their announcement on third page of this paper.

To Organize Merchants Association.

All the retail merchants of Stokes county are urgently requested to meet at Danbury on Saturday, Nov. 12, at 12 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a Merchants Association. The object of the organization is to protect ourselves from bad debts. The purpose is not to fix the price upon goods, or to do anything that will enure to the prejudice of the people.
