

A. J. SMITH CLEAR

STOKES MAN TRIED AT FRIES

At Carroll County, Va., Court Last Week Sergeant A. J. Smith Was Acquitted of the Murder of Geo. Nelson.

Fries, Va., Dec. 9.—In the case of the commonwealth against A. J. Smith, sergeant of Fries, for the murder of George Nelson, whom he shot while trying to arrest him and who afterwards died from the wound last August, it was proven that the sergeant was in his jurisdiction and shot Nelson in self defense. Commonwealth's Attorney was assisted in the prosecution by W. S. Tipton and D. W. Bolen. The defense had Joe Mysor of Pulaski; W. S. Poage, of Wytheville; W. D. Topkins, of Hillsville; William Rector, of Fries; and Mr. Padget, of Independence.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. Stokes Man Writes From Michigan.

Vassar, Mich., Dec., 5, 1910. Dear Editor: Having enjoyed the Reporter each week for some time thought I would write a line at this time. I am a Stokes county boy, but am now connected with the Valley Home Telephone Co., at Vassar, Michigan. It is a thriving corporation, which is incorporated as an independent company which connects with all opposition companies all over U. S. Capitalization is $2,000,000.

Would like to say to my Stokes and Surry friends that I haven't forgotten them and would be pleased to hear from them at any time and if they should ever happen this way, they will find the latch string always on the outside. I am married and have one child. Below are a few lines that will show my appreciation of your paper:

When the evenin' shade is fallin' at the endin' of the day,
And a feller rests from labor, smokin' at his pipe of clay,
There's nothin' does him so much good, be fortune up or down,
As the little country paper from his ol' home town.

It ain't a thing of beauty, an its print ain't always clean,
But it straightens out his temper, when a feller's feelin' mean,
It takes the wrinkles off his face, an' brushes off the frown,
That little county paper from his ol' home town.

It tells of all the visitin' down in Stokes you know,
'Bout who spent Sunday with his girl, an' how the crop will grow,
And how it keeps a feller posted 'bout who's up and who's down,
That little county paper from his ol' home town.

Now I like to read the dailies an' the other papers too,
An' some other trash too, don't you?

But when I want some readin' that'll brush away the frown,
I want that Reporter from my ol' home town.

Very respectfully,
R. W. VENABLE.

SAVED FROM AWFUL DEATH

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhage or bronchial troubles, it has no equal, 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

A Good Example

"I am a good example," writes Mrs. R. L. Bell, of McAlester, Okla., "of what Cardui will do for suffering women."

"I suffered with my head and back, for over six years, and although I tried everything, I never could get anything to do me any good, until I began to take Cardui."

"Cardui has surely helped me and built me up and I am so thankful that I have found something that will do me good. I feel so much stronger and better than I have in a long time."

It is well to make up your mind before you are sick what medicine you will take when you are sick.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

You will be glad to take it when you are tired, miserable and when life seems a weary grind. It will put new thoughts into your head, fresh courage into your mind. If not sick now, at least burn Cardui on to the pages of your memory, so that when you are sick you will ask for it without thinking.

If sick or weak, get a bottle today. At all druggists.
