

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS.

The weather the past day or two has been warm and spring like.

Mr. W. R. Stovall, of Campbell, was among the visitors here Monday.

Mr. J. Walter Joyce, of Sandy Ridge, was in town on business yesterday.

Mr. Edward L. Martin, of Madison, paid Danbury a short visit Monday.

Mr. H. R. Nelson, a leading citizen of Critz, Va., was in town on business Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Spot Taylor tendered a very enjoyable candy pull and social to her Sunday School class last night.

Messrs. J. C. Wall and son, Watt, of Meadows, were here Monday a short while.

Mr. H. W. Shelton, of Campbell Route 1, spent a short while here on business Monday.

Mr. L. R. Gravitt, one of Yadkin township's leading farmers and best citizens, was here on business today.

Mr. Darian S. Watkins, of Walnut Cove, representing the tobacco manufacturing firm of J. G. Flynt & Co., of Winston, was here Monday visiting the merchants.

Misses Mary Lambeth and Mabel Crutchfield, who have been teaching here the past winter, left today for their respective homes at Guilford College. The public school closed for this season yesterday.

The big lot sale at Walnut Cove tomorrow will attract several Danbury citizens.

Dr. J. Walter Neal, of Meadows, was here a short while Monday. Dr. Neal is not only one of the leading physicians of the county, but is also one of our biggest property-holders.

Dr. W. C. Slate went to Smith Saturday afternoon to visit his niece, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tilly, who is quite ill. Dr. Slate returned Sunday afternoon reporting the child a good deal better.

Mr. Carl Ray left today for Whitsett Institute to enter school. Carl is a baseball player of county reputation, and it is learned that he has made a contract with the Whitsett team to pitch for it.

News reaches here that a mad-dog at Dillard is doing some damage this week. It bit a large number of other canines, and the public will do well to be on the lookout for the epidemic of hydrophobia soon to be the result.

The stockholders of the Stokes County Union Warehouse Company are hereby requested to meet at the court house in Danbury on Saturday, Feb. 25th at 10 o'clock a. m. to attend to some very important business. The Directors are requested to meet at 7 o'clock p. m. the night before.

The Origin of Royster Fertilizers.

Mr. Royster believed that success awaited the Manufacturer of Fertilizers who would place quality above other considerations. This was Mr. Royster's idea Twenty-seven years ago and this is his idea to-day; the result has been that it requires Eight Factories to supply the demand for Royster Fertilizers.
